Members of four church congregations assembled around a festal board last evening when the four church brotherhoods of La Grande gave their annual banquet to their wives and sweethearts. One year ago this event was participated in by but two brotherhoods, and this year there were four, namely, the Baptist, Presbyterian, and Methodist and the Brotherhood of St. Andrew of the Episcopal Church. Two hundred people were assembled at the Methodist church for the occasion, beginning at 7 o'clock. Committees of men from each of the four constituent churches set up the tables and waited on the guests, while a group of Presbyterian ladies had generously cooked up the delicious viands.

After an hour of fun and frivolity the four brotherhoods elected officers for the joint organization for the coming year, E. D. Towler being chosen president, C. M. Humphreys, vice-president, and Dr. H. O. Brown, secretary-treasurer. These men, with two delegates from each of the four brotherhoods will constitute the board of control of the joint organization. A. W. Nelson presided as toastmaster. Presidents of the various brotherhoods, ministers of the church, and six presidents of the ladies' organizations of each church were in attendance at the assembly. The latter included Mrs. J. F. Ingle, Presbyterian, and Mrs. E. A. Pratt, of the Baptist Society. As a side-light the men presented a wedding cake to Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Patton, thereby being their fifth wedding anniversary. This was a surprise to the couple. Mrs. Patton treated all present to a taste of the cake.

The tasks numbered three, Mrs. Shesad Williams, president of the Young Woman's Educational Auxiliary speaking for "Our Ladies;" C. M. Humphreys, of the Presbyterian brotherhood speaking for "The Laymen," and Rev. G. H. Quigley, president of the Ministerial association, talking for the ministers. Each speaker "gave" a sound message.

The lobby scene from Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet," was played by a group of three ladies, Mrs. E. E. Dixon reading the prologue, Mrs. Bertha Wallinger interpreting Romeo, and Mrs. F. A. Ingle the character of Juliet. The acting was especially good.

Many toasts that are now worshipping theologians and scientists were thrashed out to the satisfaction of all during the evening. For instance, the dispute over the interpretations put on Job of the whale episode prompted a bit by F. E. Divens, George Bille and A. Edwin Pryke in which laudatory powers were brought to bear and local pastors were grilled soundly before the event was over.

Mrs. Lee Bardsley played two piano selections that pleased everyone immensely.

E. Marks of the Episcopal organization explained that during the coming year each brotherhood will hold an individual meeting once a month and one joint session, at which time outside speakers will be brought in and the very best available talent be presented on the topics.

A. C. Hampton, chairman of the nominating committee reported with the results noted above.

C. E. Short, president of the Methodist men's club, visored of the city but a telegram from him was read, expressing his regret.

Throughout the evening there was a constant stream of frivolity and women and ministers specially were the subjects of banter with prickly protons. The many committees responsible for the banquet had each, in turn, done its part all, with the result that the second annual meeting of joint brotherhoods of this city was a success in every way. With the singing of "God be With You 'Till We Meet Again" the assembly adjourned.

Mrs. D. Fitzgerald entertained the graduating class of the Sacred Heart Academy at her home last evening. A delicious four-course dinner was served at 7:00 o'clock and followed by a social hour.

The graduates present were: Isel Hunter, Marian Gatlin, Mey Prawley, Ruby Bean and Clark Fitzgerald. Father A. F. Lösser was also present. The evening was not very pleasantly and all reported a delightful time.

The Westminster Guild met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. L. B. Moe. Miss Edith Pickett had charge of the program, which was "Alaska and the Indians," and at the close of the program Miss Hulda Larson gave a report of the Presbyterian meeting held at Union last week.

The meeting was well attended and following the business meeting refreshments were served.

Mrs. T. George Bantz was busy at a card party Tuesday evening at her home on Seventh street. Her guests included Mesdames W. S. Sawyer, E. Jacobson, Ross Eaton, Hazy Johnson, J. F. O'Connell, G. R. Orr, K. C. Tuckey, Herbert Pattison, V. H. Safford, Elizabeth Priest, B. V. Hughes and W. J. Spencer.

Two prizes were given, Mrs. Price winning first and Mrs. Hughes second.

At the close of the evening dance refreshments were served.

Mrs. Harry Zurbick entertained the Clio Club at a four-course bridge luncheon at her home Saturday afternoon. The luncheon was served at 1:30 o'clock and the remainder of the afternoon was spent at cards. There were four tables at bridge and the club high honors went to Mrs. Chase Bohnenkamp, while the guest prize went to Mrs. Harry Bouvy.

The guests and members were delighted with the afternoon's entertainment.

The Island City Epworth League will hold their monthly business meeting at the M. H. Whistler home on Friday, May 5, at 8:00 o'clock. Every member is urged to be present as an election of officers will be held.

The marriage of Melvin Larsen and Miss Mary Fitzgerald will take place on May 9, at 6:30 a. m. at the Catholic Church, with Father Lösser officiating.

Immediate following the ceremony a wedding breakfast will be served at the Country Club.

The first of the series of Elk's dances will be given tonight in the Elk's lodge. The dances were discontinued during the Lenten season.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Society is meeting at the home of Mrs. W. S. Parker this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. O'Brien and

Mr. and Mrs. John Theisen will entertain the Kaffee Klatch at the Country Club Thursday evening. This meeting will take the place of the regularly scheduled meeting for Friday evening.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew met Monday evening in Honan Hall for a business meeting which closed the meetings for the season.

An election of officers was held. A. C. Hampton was re-elected director, H. C. Zurbick was elected vice-director and Robert A. Pratt was elected secretary and treasurer.

No social hour was observed, the party adjourning at the close of the business session.

Chapter I, P. E. O., will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lee Warnick.

Some very interesting tableaux illustrated some readings from the works of Charles Dickens given by Mrs. Harriet McDonald at the meeting of the Neighborhood Club yesterday afternoon. It was observed as English Literature Day and Charles Dickens was selected as the subject. The illustrative tableaux were in charge of Mrs. Donald Pague.

Mrs. Harriet McDonald also gave an interesting sketch of Dickens' life. She was in charge of the day's program.

Mrs. Hal Bohnenkamp furnished a delightful vocal solo, "Ivy Green," the words by Dickens and the music by Russell. Mrs. James McNamee and Mrs. E. McManus sang a duet, "What Are the Wild Waves Saying?" The meeting was very interesting and instructive and a better understanding of Dickens was had by all.
