COVE GIRLS GO ON LONG HIKE

(Special to The Observer) COVE, May 5.—The Open Cycle girls went up Mill creek for a picnic and "steak fry" after school on Monday. Twelve girls received their badges for earning 200 credits which entitles them to the name of "Daughter." Those present who received their badges were Ruby Sharp, Olive Delaney, Florence Delaney, Lola Madsen, Violet Bloom, Grace Goyette, Ruth Heryford, Laura Richards, Mildred Richards, Loretta Loree, May Loree, Zela Goyett. There were also present Nina Peterman, Vera Lloyd, Mildred Pulp, Lylvia Coons, Mrs. R. G. Dykstra, their leader, and Mrs. Thos. Towle.

Father Walsh of La Grande was in Cove on Wednesday. Services were held at the residence of Ralph Comstock. The two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Wilson is on the sick list. Miss Clarice Conklin has been out of school for a couple of days on account of illness, but is able to return again.

Rev. T. H. Osborne of Buffalo, N. Y., the "drummer evangelist" is in Cove holding revival services. Service every evening except Saturday. He comes here from Elkin, where he has held a most successful meeting. Mrs. Eva Duncan has been appointed on the executive board of the Farm Bureau.

A committee from the Woman's Club met with the City Council at their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday evening. Miss Eva Baker is quite ill at her home north of town.

Alvin Lloyd, who was injured in a mix-up with a mule at Telocaset last week, has been brought to his home here. He is recovering from his injuries.

Clarence Heryford had the misfortune to mash a thumb early this week. The stockmen are taking their talk to the ranges. There is such a shortage of hay that in spite of the snow still in the mountains this has become necessary.

A number of the dairymen at this place will sell their milk to the cheese factory at Union. The factory will send out a truck and gather up the milk and pay a price in advance of what the creameries offer. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Connally, with their children left this morning for a trip through California. They are travelling in pioneer style, are equipped with cook outfit and all the paraphernalia to camp and thoroughly enjoy the trip. They will camp and spend days or weeks, as their fancy dictates, but their ultimate object will be the home of Mrs. Connally's father, George Corpe, at El Monte, Cal. Hornia.

Mrs. E. C. Rees and Mrs. Frank Miller will entertain the Ladies' Guild at the Rees home on Thursday, May 4. A petition to open a street connecting with Main street and running south on the east side of Bloom's store, as before the council at their regular meeting Tuesday evening, May 2. This proposed street would run through the property owned by Mrs. Hattie Alexander, but the petition stated that Mrs. Alexander would give a strip of land 20 feet wide running through her property in exchange for the triangular strip of land running along the entire front of her residence property and now owned by the city. This transfer met favor by a unanimous vote of the council and the exchange will be made and the street opened.

Silas Koser, one of the city councilmen, having resigned, Joe Goyette was appointed by the council to finish his unexpired term and was duly sworn in. T. G. Wilson, the city recorder, was absent, and Grover Duffy was asked to act as recorder.

Evils of Constipation. Perhaps the most serious of the diseases caused by constipation is appendicitis. If you would avoid this dangerous disease, keep your bowels regular. For this purpose Chamberlain's Tablets are excellent, easy to take and mild and gentle in effect.—Adv. Highest price paid for clean, large-sized cotton rags.
