Tells Plans if Elected as Governor

Gives Own Remedies.
Talking from an auto he found ment with what has been termed administration extravagance and gave his own remedies. He insisted the governor's salary be reduced, opposed any salary increase, put responsibility for extravagance upon the chief executive, eliminated fatherhood of budget law, promised abolition of many commissions and consolidation of state offices now scattered over Portland, into one building, halt of misuse of state autos by employees, correction of inequalities of auto license law, abolition of public service commission with an appointed personnel, a square deal to farmers, and reiterated his one term plank. If elected he will not be a candidate for re-election.

Father and Four Children Burn to Death This Morning

(By Associated Press)

MARENGO, Ill., May 9.—August Hauke, Jr., aged 35, and four children are dead in a fire at their home. The mother and two other children were saved by the father who lost his life in attempting to save the remaining children. The fire started from an incubator in the basement.

Priest's Home Under Construction Now

Excavation has been begun for the parsonage being built just south of the Church of Our Lady of the Valley for the priest. The building will be a two-story brick structure in harmony with the architectural design of the church and it is expected that Father Loefer will occupy the new home some time this fall.

CASHING IN ON STOLEN ORDERS

Business men of La Grande have been warned through the police department to be on the lookout for stolen money orders. According to word received from the American Railway Express company money orders bearing the numbers C-7641020 to 59 and C. O. S. money orders B-6152880 to 99 were stolen at Zirkle, Georgia, on January 6. Some of these have been cashed in Portland and other Willamette valley towns.

The orders that have been passed were made payable to Frank Rozier or showed Frank Rozier as agent. The method used by the passers of the orders was to make small purchases at stores and then present the order, receiving the difference in cash.

VIEWS UNCHANGED

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 9.—The views of the president on the soldiers' bonus legislation, described today at the White House as unchanged, will be transmitted within the next two days to Chairman McCumber and republican members of the finance committee.

WILL OPEN THE CARSON MINES

(Special to The Observer)
STANLEY, May 9.—The weather is still cool but a two-day's rain has caused the grass to come up and some of the farmers are already plowing although the ground is still rather wet.

A. B. Bennett plowed some ground for Ralph L. Sullivan this week. Mr. Lucas has gone to the Peddleton country for cattle for Mr. Sullivan.

Jack Starvo and Vincent Emerick went out to the Peddleton country for pasture horses Monday.

Alvin Thornburg went to Baker to attend the wedding of his sister Friday. He returned Saturday.

Ken Ingham planted his potatoes this week. He is the first one in the Starkey country to plant his potatoes. Most of the people are in fear of losing their seed if planting so early.

L. D. Rose of Portland, who is interested in the mines at Carson Camp came in on the Starkey stage a week ago. He engaged Tom Rose to take him to the mines with saddle and pack horses. They expect to put a crew of men to work as soon as the ground is clear of snow. About the 15th of May from 12 to 15 men will probably be taken on.

The road to Hilgard has improved somewhat.

INVITATION EXTENDED

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 9.—The president has invited republican members of the senate and house merchant marine committees to confer tonight while at the White House to convince them he is entirely in support of the administration ship bill and anxious that it pass at the present session.

At Foley—

Mrs. S. W. Coulter and daughter arrived in La Grande last evening on the branch line train and registered at the Foley. They will be here a short time.

PERRY WOMEN ARE HOSTESSES

(Special to The Observer)
PERRY, May 9.—Although the weather was inclement and the roads were bad the ladies of the Mooseheart Legion drove to Perry Thursday, where they were entertained at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Hull. Mrs. Gene Bonham and Mrs. Fred Robertson helped the hostess in serving refreshments.

Harry Colwell, who has been on the sick list, is again able to be out. Tarvel Hanson and family and Earl Wilson drove to La Grande Saturday evening. Mrs. Hanson remained in town several days.

Mrs. Lowery and daughter, Mrs.

Jim Knight, were Friday shoppers in La Grande.

Mrs. Geo. Flanders and May Wise visited at the home of Mrs. Hull Thursday.

A number of young folks from Glover, Hilgard and Perry drove to La Grande last Wednesday night to attend a party at the home of Estrid Dixon. Following the party at the Dixon home they drove on to Union and attended another party.

Mrs. Louer spent Thursday in La Grande on business.

Bill Colwell has taken a two week's lay-off from the mill. During his vacation he expects to plant his garden and put in his fall crop of hay.

Mr. Palmer, who organized a Sunday school here some time ago, reports he is pleased with the success and that each Sunday the attendance increases and is hoping that with summer weather the increases will continue.

Mrs. Al Rehner has been ill but is the others.

Dykstra Tries to Make a Record of Reading Many Books

It G. Dykstra of Cove believes he is one of the biggest readers among the teachers of the state. Mr. Dykstra is principal of Cove schools. Each year the state superintendent's office sends out a list of books one of which must be read by every teacher in the state.

But one book is just an appetizer for Mr. Dykstra. He received the list of 29 books, all of which deal with pedagogy, school management and other allied subjects, and started reading them all. He has already read 15 of the books and before his summer vacation is over he expects to read the others.
