PRIZE MONEY IS OFFERED

SACRAMENTO, Calif., May 10.—More than $5,000 in prize money has been offered winners in the California-Nevada trap shoot in Sacramento May 23-25, during the "Days of '49" celebration. Invitations have been sent sportsmen in all parts of the coast and from reservations already received it is thought the event will be the greatest of its kind ever held on the coast.

In addition to money prizes, a $200 diamond medal, a lion's skin and a $100 puppy, as well as a long list of novel prizes, have been offered.

George Wingfield, of Reno, and Alden Anderson, Sacramento, are among prominent trapeshooters who will participate.

CANDIDATES ARE PLENTIFUL NOW

Bean in the City.

Last evening Louis E. Bean of Eugene, who is also a candidate for governor, spent a few hours in La Grande. He says the indications are just right for him to win this nomination. He has made a handsome campaign over the interior country and claims he found many Bean men who are working hard for him.

Patterson Also Confident.
Like Patterson, the dirt farmer candidate, made a speech in La Grande Monday night. Senator Patterson says the voice of the people will be heard on May 19th and that voice will proclaim his nomination. He claims extensive strength among the farmers and throughout the thickly settled Willamette valley counties.

Spuds Will Be Selling at $2.50 Soon

The potato market is advancing. Our last ear of Yakima Netted Gems rolled in today. We have less than 200 sacks left at $1.75 per hundred. Get your order in at once. This stock will be sold out in less than 48 hours. Our ear to arrive next week will sell considerably higher.

The HOOVERIZED has received and sold in the last 60 days 5 carloads or 2000 sacks. Up to the time we reduced our price to $1.75 per sack, spuds were selling in La Grande from $2.25 to $2.50 per sack. This means that our stock as sold at this saving of from 50c to 75c a sack, saved our customers more than $500.00 per month, and they are good spuds. If you don't need a sack at once, we will give you the privilege of purchasing and will deliver them any time within 2 weeks. Don't forget to include with your order a sack of Picket Flour, Idaho's Best—It's better and makes more bread per sack than other flours—and we sell it at $1.95 a sack—or 60c less than other flours not its equal. You can't lose. We sell a carload a month. It's guaranteed. Buy a barrel. Can't be sold much longer at this under-market price.
