Informal Reception—

The daughters of Mr. and Mrs. E. Johnson held an informal reception in the lobby of the J. C. Penney store Saturday morning, this being the first appearance of the young ladies in public. They are triplets and attracted much attention as they are beautiful babies and if Mrs. Johnson decided to give one away it would be very hard to choose one. The young lady in the middle slept peacefully through the evening, while the young lady on the left was very dignified and surveyed all very calmly but the young lady on the right had a bad habit of rolling her eyes at the public which leads one to believe that she will be inclined to make eyes as she grows older. If they continue to attract as much at
