

COMMENCEMENT IS POSTPONED

(Special to The Observer.)
COVE, May 17. — Elder L. M. Jensen of La Grande delivered the Baccalaureate sermon at the La D. S. church on Sunday afternoon. The house was crowded.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Gale of Union were over-night guests at the home of Mrs. Gale's mother, Mrs. Cora Room.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Good-nough (nee Effie Conley) have returned from their honeymoon trip and were in Cove today visiting at the homes of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Conley and her sister, Mrs. Clarence Heryford. They returned to La Grande tonight and will begin housekeeping at once at their home, 1508 Oak street.

Miss Hazel Duncan of Weston will spend the weekend in Cove at the home of Miss Helen Antles. The revival service conducted by the Rev. T. H. Osborne draws a full house. The service has been held in the Methodist church for the past two weeks, but beginning tonight they will be held in the Baptist church.

Commencement exercises will be postponed until Saturday evening, May 20, instead of Friday evening, May 19. The change is made because of the primary election. The hall to be used for commencement is also used for the election.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Baxter, manual training teacher of Union, came down for the Baccalaureate sermon.

Several Cove people were shipping in La Grande on Saturday. Mrs. Judd Gear, Mrs. A. G. Conklin, T. R. Conklin, Miss Helen Antles, E. F. Roberts, Mrs. Pollard and daughter Lily, and Mrs. P. M. Ellis. Mrs. T. W. Conklin was a Union visitor on Saturday.

Mrs. Clarence Heryford and Mrs. Chris Bertsch will entertain the Ladies Guild on Thursday afternoon. A social dance was held at the hall on Friday evening. The Owl Quintette furnished the music.

At a meeting of the Caldwell ditch company Monday afternoon the following were elected as directors for the coming year: Karl J. Stackland, president; T. R. Conklin, vice-president; J. W. Baxter, secretary; J. W. Rollins and J. H. Allen, directors.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibson have returned to their home in Cove, after spending the winter with their daughter, who is teaching at the town of Minam. Miss Gibson has been elected to fill a position in the Cove school for the coming year.

L. R. Lay has gone to Baker. He will act as foreman in a garage. At a recent meeting of the Ad club a fourth of July celebration was planned. Last year Cove had a celebration all her own and liked it so well that she will have another this year.

Paul M. Ellis, forest ranger, is out in the hills again looking after the range entrusted to his care. The snow in the mountains is getting so soft that he had to go in by way of Elgin.

Bert DeVore started for the Minam on Saturday but the snow was so soft that he had to return after making strenuous but futile attempts to get through.

Waldo Richardson, who has been working in a lumber camp in the Minam country, came home Saturday.

Clark Sharp left on Thursday with pack animals to bring his mother, Mrs. Wesley Smith, home from the Minam, where she has been spending the winter.

It's blossom time in Cove. The cherries are out in full blossom and the apricots are just coming into bloom. H. G. Avery, county agent, has examined the fruit in this vicinity and thinks it is not damaged by the frosts.

Free Man or Oath-Bound! For Public Service Commissioner

1. Thieff, a railroad man, without qualifications for the office, a Democrat until October, 1921, is endorsed by the Ku Klux Klan.

2. Campbell, un-equipped to master complex, present-day problems facing the Commission, is backed by a political clique which is grasping at an opportunity to focus anti-Klan sentiment as a chance to foist a favorite upon the commission.

3. Layman, a practicing attorney, the ablest and best qualified candidate, is absolutely free from obligation to any church, clan, sect, society, machine, railroad or public utility.

If you want a high-grade, impartial, Klan-free, and non-sectarian Public Service Commission

20 Years Without Recognition

Medical Springs, May 9, 1922.

Mr. A. C. Hess,
North Powder, Ore.,

My Dear Sir:

Rest assured that the people of Medical Springs are awake and alive to the neglected interests of the south end of our county. It is a matter talked over and decided on without making any great noise about it. We are already on the job and will be there with both feet on the 19th and do our part.

Look after the other precincts. I feel that La Grande is friendly to the south end of the County and if they wish to keep down the agitation and annexation to Baker County they must give us some recognition other than sending us a deputy assessor once a year.

Yours for success,

DUNHAM WRIGHT.

North Powder, Ore., May 13, 1922.

Twenty years without recognition is too long. It arouses indignation and discontent.
