

MUCH FISHING NEAR HILGARD

(Special to The Observer)
HILGARD, May 18.—Mrs. Jack Christensen took No. 23 Saturday evening for Portland where she went to join her husband who preceded her a couple of weeks. They will be engaged in the carnival business in the northwest throughout the summer.

E. P. Staples and family stopped in Hilgard at the Scott home for dinner and a visit Sunday. They are en route to Baker from Forest Grove, where they spent last winter. They are glad to return to Eastern Oregon and will locate either in Baker or La Grande. They made the trip home by automobile.

Mrs. Edlitz spent a couple of days here the last of the week and returned to La Grande Sunday morning.

George Hilgard of Telocasset moved his family here Sunday and will remain at least for the summer. Mr. Hilgard will work for the Hyslop Construction company who have begun work at Glover.

Many cars have been crossing the mountain on their own power for the past week. Several bad places are reported on the road on the top out; otherwise the trip is easily made. Many cars on both sides have been camped for some time waiting for the road to open.

Pleasant spring weather has brought out many fish men and Sunday the streams hereabout were lined with anglers. Some nice trout were landed but the number was rather limited.

Mrs. Scott Wheatley and Miss V. Arnoldus spent the week-end in La Grande.

Alan Porter was in Hilgard visiting for a couple of days last week.

Mrs. Lyle McFadden with her infant daughter left Saturday for Terrebonne, Oregon, to join her husband who has been there for some time.

Miss Vera Arnoldus entertained several guests at dinner last Wednesday.

Howard Stairrett and family and Frank Santore and family spent Sunday on Spring Creek fishing.

Miss Ivy Saling of La Grande spent the week-end visiting at the Ed Saling home previous to the departure of her cousin, Mrs. Lyle McFadden.

HOBOS BLAMED FOR BARN FIRE

(Special to The Observer)
UNION, May 18.—About 11 o'clock Monday night a large dairy barn in South Union, caught fire from some unknown cause and was nearly destroyed before the fire department arrived that nothing could be done to save the building. Some cattle were on the grounds but fortunately none happened to be in the barn at the time of the fire. The structure itself was practically the only loss as there was only a small amount of feed in it. Walter Stevens, owner of the barn, thinks the blaze originated from a match or a cigaret, as hobos had been in the habit of using the building as sleeping quarters.

Rev. L. A. Cook preached the graduation sermon to the 17 members of the graduating class of the Union high school, at the M. E. church Sunday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. E. J. Schuster left for Portland Tuesday morning. Dr. Schuster will attend a medical clinic during the week and return to Union Friday or Saturday while Mrs. Schuster plans to go to Corvallis and visit for a short time with relatives and friends there.

Mrs. David Jenkins returned Monday from Boise, where she had been called last week owing to the death of her sister and nephew.

Members of the sixth grade from the south school picniced in the Busick grove about two miles up Catherine creek on Monday of this week. R. H. Hounes, superintendent ent of the fish hatchery, very kindly used his truck to haul the lunch and part of the pupils to and from the picnic grounds.

The last few warm days have been melting the snow up in the mountains very rapidly and Catherine creek is too high and muddy for any successful fishing.

Ed Horton has brightened up the interior of the postoffice with fresh coats of paint and varnish.

The first team played in Baker Sunday and the second team crossed with the second of Cove at the latter's grounds on the same date.

Eastern Oregon and other nearby towns were represented on the register of the Union Hotel during the past week: Robert Kerr, Giles Harnden, T. K. Bellamy, J. B. Brokaw and family, L. W. Weeks, Colon Echehard and family, I. C. Wright, Ross Summerwell and wife, C. W. Fitzgerald and wife, W. L. Lane, Earl Smith and wife, Harris French and wife of La Grande; A. C. Moore and Walter B. Tubey of Boise; Willis Smith, Geo. Oliver and T. H. Sutherland, of Baker; William Beattie of Balmora, and T. S. Townsend, of Hermiston.
