

TARKINGTON IS GIVEN HONORS

(By Associated Press)
 NEW YORK, May 26.—Footh Tarkington again has won the Pulitzer prize of $1000 for the American novel best presenting the "wholesome atmosphere of American life and the highest standards of American manners and mores." Columbia university announced today. The prize-winning novel was "Alice Adams." Eugene O'Neill's "Anna Christie" won the $1000 prize for the American play best representing the "educational value and power of the stage in raising the standard of good morals, good taste and good manners."

Best Book on History.
 The $2000 prize for the "best book of the year upon the history of the United States" goes to James Truslow Adams for "The Founding of New England," and the $1000 prize for the "best American biography teaching patriotic and unselfish services to the people, illustrated by an eminent example, excluding as two obvious, the names of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln," to Hamlin Garland for "A Daughter of the Middle Border."

Edwin Arlington Robinson's "Collected Poems" won the $1000 prize for the best volume of verse published during the year.
 Kirke L. Simpson Shines.
 The Arlington ceremonies for America's "unknown soldier" last November provided the material from which were written the prize-winning newspaper stories and the prize-winning newspaper editorial of the year.
 Kirke L. Simpson of the Washington staff of the Associated Press, for his stories on the return of the "unknown soldier," was awarded the $1000 prize for the "best example of a reporter's work during the year."
 Frank M. O'Brien's editorial, "The Unknown Soldier," published in the New York Herald on November 11, was awarded the $500 prize for the "best editorial article written during the year, the test of excellence being clearness of style, moral purpose, sound reasoning and power to influence public opinion in the right direction."

 The prize of $500 for the best newspaper cartoon went to Rollin Kirby of the New York World for his cartoon "On the Road to Moscow," published August 5, 1921.
 The New York World won the gold medal for "the most disinterested and meritorious public service rendered by any newspaper during the year for its expose of the Ku Klux Klan."
Three Scholarships Awarded.
 Three traveling scholarships of $1500 each for graduates of the Columbia school of journalism who have passed their examinations with the highest honors and are otherwise most deserving, went to Robert Arthur Currier of Nassau, Bahama islands; Zilpha Mary Carruthers of Denver and Robert Henry Best of Spartanburg, S. C. The scholarships are awarded to "enable them to spend a year in Europe to study the social, political and moral conditions of the people, and the character and principles of the European press."
 Edith Bell of Des Moines, Iowa, won the $1000 scholarship to the American art student "who shall be certified as the most promising and deserving by the National Academy of Design."

Evils of Constipation.

Perhaps the most serious of the diseases caused by constipation is appendicitis. If you would avoid this dangerous disease, keep your bowels regular. For this purpose Chamberlain's Tablets are excellent, easy to take and mild and gentle in effect.—Adv.

Elm Street near Y. M. C. A. La Grande, Oregon

La Grande, Oregon, May 1st, 1922.

To Our Customers;

After June 1st, we request that all our customers please save their sales slips, as we do not again itemize. We have been for the past three years using a Burroughs Bookkeeping Machine on our Wholesale and General Ledger accounts and have decided to handle all our retail accounts in the same manner. This machine is similar to that used in the banks. We believe this machine will expedite our accounting and make it possible for us to give you the best service in your accounts with absolute accuracy.

However, should you have any missing slips we will gladly furnish you duplicates, as we retain all original sales slips in our files.

Very truly yours,

The use of money is all the advantage there is in having money--Poor Richard.

During the few years just preceding the Revolutionary War while the colonists were heavily burdened with taxation of all kinds, "Poor Richard's" axioms of thrift helped many a man to make ends meet.

Today you can profit by these same worthy axioms because only by thrift can you expect to Solve the Building Problem

We know many people in this community who have been following Ben Franklin's advice and who saved a part of their earnings and are now planning to build homes, barns, stores, etc. You will appreciate the big values we offer in building materials and our complete plan service. Let's work together to make 1922 the biggest building year and the best year our city has ever seen.
