Runaway Team Caught In Heart of Town

Considerable excitement occurred this morning about nine o'clock when a team of horses, one gray and one white, that were tied to a post in front of 2907 North Third street, were frightened and broke loose, running over the viaduct and up Spring street until they were stopped at the intersection of Seventh, Washington and Spring streets.

The team was not hurt nor was the buggy, but the harness was torn to some extent. They are owned by Robert Luton, and Mr. Luton and his niece were just preparing to drive up town when the runaway occurred.

Highest price paid for clean, large-sized cotton rags.

KNOWS HOW TO HANDLE RAZOR

The art of handling an old fashioned razor as a weapon seems to have at least one exponent among the "colored" population of a Grande. Lula Barnett, if reports that have been turned in by some of the other negro residents are true, wields a wicked "razzuh."

Last night, so the report goes, Ed McClellan, colored, and Lula's sweetheart arrived at her place in company with another colored lady and requested that Lula vacate the premises. But—Lula thought different. Producing a razor she made a pass at McClellan, who promptly took his departure, without saying so much as good-bye. A policeman saw Ed breaking all world sprint records, headed towards the race track, and after looking into the case, a complaint was filed against the colored lady and the trial was set for 8:00 o'clock this evening. The trial will be held in the municipal court.

lazed condition for a few seconds. Al Fisher, director of the arena, was kicked and unable to attend the remainder of the show.

The afternoon was finished off by auto races. Three cars were entered—an Essex, a Hudson and a Studebaker Special. This was for the entertainment of the crowd. The Hudson won, with the Essex taking second place.

The directors of the Stampede association are C. W. Wright, president; J. T. Henner, vice president; W. A. Pratt, Louis De Line, manager; E. W. Hearing, secretary, and A. L. Fisher, arena director, assisted by Bob Hall of La Grande. Due to the board of directors' untiring efforts the show has attained great success.

Judges for the entire three days of the Stampede are Homer Bidwell, formerly of La Grande but more recently of North Powder; Dr. Ragie of Baker, and S. P. Anderson, also of Baker, while Jim Blakely of Bridgeport, acts as timekeeper and field judge.

Band music was furnished by a pick-up band from North Powder, Haines and Baker combined.
