Lumbago.

This is a rheumatism of the muscles of the back. It comes on suddenly and is quite painful. Every movement aggravates the disease. Go to bed, keep quite and have Chamberlain's Liniment applied and a quick recovery may be expected. Mrs. E. J. Dann, Brookport, N. Y., writes: "I can honestly say that Chamberlain's Liniment cured me of lumbago a year ago last summer. When I began using it, I was flat on my back in bed and could not turn to the left or right. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment in the house and this was applied to my back. It promptly drove away the pains and aches."

ODD SMALL-TOWN CHARACTERS IN "GET-RICH-QUICK WALLINGFORD."

Bringing into bold review quaint small-town character types familiar to residents of interior towns throughout the country, "Get-Rich-Quick Wallingford," a Cosmopolitan production released by Paramount, and a picturization of George M. Cohan's celebrated stage success, will be the feature at the Arcade Theatre for three days beginning Thursday. The numerous and naive qualities of country folk are disclosed with great skill, yet without occasioning the slightest offense.

The spectator is delighted with the innocence and at the same time the hospitality of these people of Battlesburg. How this kindly innocence leads them to prosperity in spite of the first intentions of J. Rufus Wallingford, a crook, and "Blackie" Daw, his confederate, makes a story of great human interest.

From the hotel proprietor to the town mayor, including the judge and reporter on the "Battlesburg Blade," every character is perfect. All the actors play their parts with a natural ease which is possible because of the great care Mr. Borzage used to choose the best suited in every detail for the parts. This picture makes a small town live in the mind of the spectator as no photoplay ever did before. Sam Hardy, Norman Kerry, Doris Kenyon and Diana Allen, all players of reputation, appear in the principal roles.

PRISCILLA DEAN COMING HERE IN NEW PHOTO-THRILLER.

Priscilla Dean soon will be seen here in "Wild Honey," a Universal picture adapted from Cynthia Stockley's popular novel of that name. It is said to be the most thrilling melodrama Miss Dean has ever made for the screen. Those who remember her in "Outside the Law," "Reputation," and "Conflict" realize that "Wild Honey" has to be considerable of a "thriller" to outdo her previous photodramas. It will be shown at the Star Theatre Saturday and Sunday.

AT SHERRY'S LAST DAY.

A story that bristles with thrilling incident and glows with the warmth of romance gives Pauline Frederick an splendid vehicle in "Two Kinds of Women," her current R-C production. "Two Kinds of Woman," based upon Jackson Gregory's novel, "Judith of Blue Lake Ranch," is a Western story and one of the most engrossing that ever flowed from the facile pen of Mr. Gregory, who has to his credit a long list of notable stories laid in Western settings.

Through the story of adventure that moves swiftly from the outset is woven a romance that does much to
