The Screen

A COTERIE OF SELECTED NOVELTIES.

Will be Presented on the New Bill at the Arcade Theatre on Monday.

The Three Bohemians & Nobby, will be the feature offering on this well arranged program in a "Quaint Specialty." They are expert boomerang throwers, but instead of using boomerangs they use a large and varied assortment of bats and at times all six of their hands keep a quantity of bats flying through the air in an endless chain.

Dunne & Daye, an act with a plot dealing with kid days, called "Freckles and His Pal." They are both young and excellent types for the characters they portray with catchy songs and comedy galore.

Patrick and Madeline, who are musically inclined, have a number that includes instrumental whistling and harmony singing with a bright line of comedy patter which never fails to amuse and satisfy.

Al & Flo Cooper, a clever pair of novelty entertainers with songs in harmony, also lighting cartoons in variegated colors and costumes to match start this well presented bill.

A new and pleasing feature picture goes with this mammoth bill.

As commanding in the open wastes of the Transvaal as in the drawing room of an English manor, Priscilla Dean surpasses her own former screen selves in her latest impersonation as Lady Vivienne in the Universal-Jewel attraction, "Wild Honey," based on the popular novel by Cynthia Stockley.

The plot's action ranges through two main locales, aristocratic English neighborhoods and the wilder spaces of South Africa. Lady Vivienne goes to the Transvaal to find out the true value of land in which her father sank his entire fortune before he died. Coming into contact with the fierce venom of unrestrained and brutal nature, the rough characters of the country and the bitter reality of having worthless land a sheer only wealth, Lady Vivienne is brought down to a realization of what is worth while. And that, naturally, gives the cue to an uncommonly interesting love story. There are numerous melodramatic thrills in the picture; the finale is a flood and rescue scene, which is startlingly realistic.

"Wild Honey" is the attraction at the Star Theatre today and Sunday.

AT SHERIDAN'S—TODAY ONLY

Bristling with dramatic incident, sparkling with delightful humor and rich in romance and adventure, "The Duke of Chimney Butte," in which Fred Stone will appear at the Sherry Theatre today only, is a typical Fred Stone vehicle, rollicking fun, clean cut, wholesome and one any member of the family may see and enjoy without blushing. It's an R-C picture.

Fred Stone has built his tremendous reputation as the greatest entertainer in the world upon a foundation of cleanliness. He will tolerate no suggestive saying or idea in any of his musical productions. The result is that his personal following far surpasses that of any other artist in the country.

In "The Duke of Chimney Butte," Fred Stone has a role to which he can give the full scope of his extraordinary talents. He displays his remarkable horsemanship, his skill at shooting and roping and at the same time does some mighty clever acting. The narrative is from the pen of George Washington Ogden and was directed by Frank Borzage, whose supervision of the making of "Humoresque" established him in the very front rank of screen directors.

Also showing Movie Chats and Mutt and Jeff.

AT SHERIDAN'S, SUNDAY, MONDAY DOROTHY DALTON AND RUDOLPH VALENTINO

This is a dramatic story of the sea, with scenes along the coast of Norway, in Manhattan Bay, Mexico, and along the waterfront of San Francisco. The principal action takes place aboard two sailing vessels, one a trader and the other a smuggling ship, commanded by Captain Kitchell, a mysterious, cynical seaman. Eleanor Lamore, played by Rudolph Valentino, is a society man, who has been shipwrecked, and forced to join Kitchell's crew. On the other vessel, which becomes a destroyer, is Moran, a girl of the sturdy, rough, sporting type. Kitchell finds the destroyer, Moran is carried aboard by Lamore, and from then on ensues a series of highly dramatic complications which makes the average spectator wish his seat and lose himself in the realism of the picture.

Dorothy Dalton is excellent in the role of Moran, while Mr. Valentino gives a powerful portrayal of Lamore. The support generally, is the best.

A two-reel comedy also showing.
