EXCELLENT PLAYERS IN "LOVE'S BOOMERANG"

One of the best casts ever assembled in any Paramount picture, is that assembled by John S. Robertson, producer, in "Love's Boomerang," a delightful photoplay of circus life which will be shown at the Arcade theatre tonight only. The featured players are Ann Forrest and David Powell, both well known to American picture fans.

Miss Forrest is seen in the parts of "Perpetua" and David Powell appears opposite her in the role of her "adopted father," the artist, Brian. Another important member of the cast is John Milern, a well known American actor, who appeared in several George Fitzmaurice screen productions. Mr. Milern's role is that of Russell Felton. Perpetua's real and rather unpleasant parent.

John Diamond, Brian's lawyer friend, is portrayed by Dick Webb, a well-known screen actor, who in a comparatively short time has risen from "extra" to leading man. He made his first hit when he appeared opposite Malvina Longellow in "The Story of the Rosary."

The principal characters in the circus episodes of the story are played by Roy Byford and Florence Wryod, both popular players who are seen as the circus proprietor and his wife, Monsieur and Madame Lambelle. The role of Jane Egg, a bare-back rider, is in the hands of Amy Willard. Tom Yolbeque appears in the congenial part of Aguste the Clown.

The Robertson producing forces went to France for some of the scenes and worked in conjunction with LeCrique Pinder during their stay at Le Havre.

In addition to this delightful photoplay, four pleasing acts of vaudeville, will also be presented.

AT SHERRYS—LAST DAY

"Moran of the Lady Letty" His few stronger sea stories ever have been screened than "Moran of the Lady Letty," a Paramount picture of Frank Norris' famous novel, which was shown to delighted audiences at the Sherry Theatre yesterday. Dorothy Dalton is the featured player in this excellent George Melford production, while the leading man is Rudolph Valentino.

The leading characters of this powerful picture are strikingly portrayed by these clever artists. Moran is a girl of the sea, and in physical strength, courage and the ability to fight is decidedly masculine. But when she is conquered in a desperate fight by Ramon, he becomes her idol. Other characters are splendidly interpreted by Walter Long, who plays one of the meanest villains of his screen career.

Whooping cough.

This is a very dangerous disease, particularly to children under five years of age, but when no paragonic, codone or other opiate is given, is easily cured by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Most people believe that it must run its course, not knowing that the time is very much shortened, and that there is little danger from the disease when this remedy is given. It has been used in many epidemics of whooping cough, with pronounced success. It is safe and pleasant to take.—Adv.

Fixing the Machine.

When your machine runs hard oil it generously with kerosene; run it rapidly for a few minutes, then oil again with machine oil. Kerosene cuts the old gummed oil and makes the machine act like new.
