Society

During the warm summer months La Grande's social functions have turned to a round of delightful Country club parties, picnics, outdoor sports and motor trips.

One of the most attractive affairs of the season was given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. A. J. Stange at the Country Club. The day was an ideal one for a summer festivity and about fifty-five ladies were invited for the afternoon. In the reception hall were fifteen tables, each artistically decorated with a large cut glass basket of sweet peas. The handle of each basket was tied with a bow of the different pastel shades. Larger baskets of roses were placed about the room.

The arrangement of the guests at the tables was a very unique one. At the door each lady was given a card tied with a ribbon corresponding to a colored bow on a basket.

At 1:30 a delicious luncheon was served. Following is the menu. Fruit cocktail, veal bird, creamed new potatoes, pickled pineapple, olives, parker house rolls, salad and brick ice cream and cookies.

Cards furnished the delightful entertainment for the afternoon, one prize being awarded at each table. The head prize was awarded to Mrs. Chase Bohnenkamp.

Those assisting, Miss Hazel Magnuson, who had charge of the luncheon, were the Misses Evelyn Cullen, Helen and Grace Lewis and Dorothy McGulley.

groom, acted as bridesmaid and Clyde Webb as best man.

After the ceremony a delicious wedding breakfast was served to the immediate families.

Miss Essie Johnson is the daughter of Mrs. L. Johnson, 1914 Third street, and has for several years been holding a very prominent position in the La Grande Investment Co. Mr. Thompson was active during the war and at the present time is connected with the United States National Bank. The young couple left on No. 17 for Portland, where they intend to remain indefinitely, but on their return will make their home in La Grande.

Aldon Parsons and Miss Amanda V. Hagen, both of Elgin, were married at the home of Oscar Ferguson Saturday by Justice of the Peace Arthur Williams. They will make their home in Elgin.

Tuesday evening of next week has been set as the date of the big mid-year banquet given by the Aid-Club members for their wives. The dinner will be served at the Eagles' Hall with the Women of Woodcraft serving the dinner. These ladies are preparing a home-cooked dinner with many novelties.

Mrs. O. E. Moran will entertain the Ladies Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church Friday afternoon at her home at 308 Third street, at 2:30 o'clock.

About twenty-five couples motored to the dance at the Country Club Monday evening. Delightful music was furnished by Lindsay's Orchestra. During the evening punch was served by Miss Hazel Magnuson, who charmingly acts as hostess at the Country Club.

Tonight the Epworth League of the First M. E. Church will hold their regular business meeting by going on a picnic. All wishing to go will meet at the church at six o'clock.

A lovely June shower was given Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Clyde Kiddle in honor of Miss Leta Kiddle, a bride-to-be. Fifteen of Miss Kiddle's friends spent the afternoon in playing games and having a social time. The prize was received by Miss Ina Bryant.

Later in the afternoon the guests were seated at a table artistically decorated in pink and white with a miniature bride and groom as a center ornament. Ice cream and surprise cake were served.

Miss Bertha Schwebel assisted Mrs. Kiddle. Miss Leta Kiddle received many beautiful and useful gifts.

Guests for dinner at the Country Club Sunday were Mr. Elmer Stoddard and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chase Bohnenkamp, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reuter, Mr. and Mrs. Larison and son and Mr. Joe Carr.

Mr. and Miss Fred Jensen, of Portland, will drive from Portland to La Grande the last of the week to visit their sister, Mrs. Fritz Jensen, of the Eastern Oregon Music company.

Word was received from Dr. and Mrs. Whiting, formerly of La Grande, who are at the present time touring Belgium. In speaking of their visit in Brussels they said: "We visited the beautiful gardens here. All the wonderful bronze figures, etc., were taken by the Germans and used for shells, likely to shoot the Belgians. They didn't destroy the buildings much, as they expected to own them at some time." The doctor and his wife expect to return to the United States about September 10.

Finished the Job.
"Strange she should leave her husband after he had given up all his bad habits and settled down." "Well, she married him to reform him, and I suppose when she had completed the contract there was nothing else to do." Boston Transcript.

THINK OF IT

In time the oil gums, produces friction and wears the delicate bearings, destroying their high finish and perfect fit, thus ruining an accurate timepiece. An ordinary machine is oiled daily. Your watch should be oiled once a year. Let us examine it. An honest opinion from us will cost you nothing.

Mrs. D. R. Gillette and daughter, Luelle, arrived in La Grande the first part of the week and are spending several days visiting at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. C. Tuckey. Mrs. Gillette and her daughter make their home in St. Paul, Minn.

Mrs. Bertha Levy and Mrs. I. W. Goldstone and children, who have been guests at the home of Mrs. William Ash for the past two weeks, have left for San Francisco. Before leaving the ladies were entertained by a number of friends.

A birthday party was given in honor of Miss Barbara Leslie Goldstone at the city park Friday afternoon in honor of her eleventh birthday, by Mrs. William Ash. The afternoon was pleasantly spent playing games, followed by delicious refreshments.

Those present were: Barbara Leslie Goldstone, Marjorie and Dorothy Wardick, Jane and Ann Stange, Barbara Coalidge, Sally Siegrist and Margaret Meyer.

Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Richardson are expected to return from Portland this evening. Mrs. Richardson left about two weeks ago to attend the State Federation of Clubs at Tillamook and returned to Portland, where she was joined by her husband.

Henry Wasley and Miss Leona R. Tuckey were united in marriage by Justice of Peace Arthur Williams Sunday. The young couple left for Elgin, where they will make their home.

Mrs. Bart Owsley and Mrs. George Rynearson entertained the ladies of the Parkdale Club Wednesday, May 31, at the home of the former. Lilacs were the decorations, which gave a very pleasant appearance to the home.

A short program was planned and was greatly appreciated by those present. Those assisting on the program were the Misses Emma Chandler, Genevieve Audler, Bernice Thompson and Mrs. George Rynearson. The next regular meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Len Stillwell, assisted by Mrs. George Simmons. The program for that day will be in honor of Flag Day.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Knapper, of Joseph, are guests at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Colon R. Eberhard, this week. They were accompanied by their granddaughters, Misses Lucille Knapper, Frances and Irene Schaupp.

Mrs. E. E. Kiddle gave a lovely birthday dinner at the city park Monday afternoon at 6:30, in honor of her daughter, Miss Leta Kiddle. Nineteen of the immediate Kiddle family were there.

The wedding of Miss Esther Shirley and Frank La Frienter took place at 12 o'clock Sunday. After the ceremony a delicious dinner was served. The immediate families were the only ones present. The young couple will make their home in La Grande, where the bridegroom is employed in the Eastern Oregon Light Co.

Lawrence Bay took about twelve of his boy friends in cars up to Ladd Canyon Tuesday afternoon to celebrate his eleventh birthday. Mrs. H. Bay and Mrs. A. W. Nelson chaperoned the boys. Good eats and a good time were had by all.

The Mission Band of the Presbyterian Church will be entertained by Miss Tillie Olson at the home of Mrs. Wallace, 2108 Oak St., on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

Miss Essie Johnson and Mr. Chester Thompson, one of La Grande's most popular young couples, were united in marriage Monday morning at 7:30 by Rev. Ross of the Presbyterian church, at the home of the bride. Miss Bertha Thompson, sister of the bride-
