THEATRES

AT SHERRY'S TODAY AND TOMORROW.

Will Rogers, Goldwyn star, will be seen in one of the best character parts he has ever played in "Boys Will Be Boys," a picture taken from the story by Irvin S. Cobb, which comes to the Sherry Theatre for two days.

Rogers has the part of "Peep O'Day," and it is about the adventures that befall him before and after he falls heir to a fortune that the story is based. The action occurs in a little Kentucky village and the main characters are Peep O'Day, Judge Priest, Lucy the school teacher, Mrs. Hunter, the willing widow, Sublette, a crooked lawyer, Breck the sheriff, and Kittle the impostor.

The character of Peep O'Day gives Rogers an opportunity to display his peculiar and personal humor in several new directions.

Also showing "Miracles of the Jungle."

WALLACE REID HAS SENSATIONAL FIGHT IN PHOTOPLAY.

Wallace Reid, Paramount star, has had some thrilling and hard battles in his numerous Paramount and Arctcraft pictures, but what is conceded to be one of the most sensational fights ever staged in a screen production, is shown with vivid realism in "The Valley of the Giants," which will be shown at the Star Theatre next Friday only.

Colonel Pennington, a scheming and unscrupulous politician in the town of Sequoia, in the heart of the Big Redwood Forests of California, has bribed the mayor of the town to vacate a franchise which he had previously granted to Bryce Carigan, which part is played by the star, to build a railroad leading out of the Valley of the Giants.

"THE INVISIBLE FEAR" PACKED WITH MYSTERY.

How a society girl is haunted by the belief that she has killed a man, and the latter's sudden reappearance and strange power over the girl, form the nucleus of some unusual situations in the Louis B. Mayer-First National attraction, "The Invisible Fear," which will be shown at the Arcade Theatre Friday and Saturday. Anita Stewart, in the star role, is not seen as just an ordinary murderess. She commits the act of violence in self-defense, but nevertheless is tortured by recollections because circumstances prevent her unburdening her mind without laying herself open to vicious accusation.

Important to Every Housewife—
Some New Uses of the "Old Standby" Kingsford's Corn Starch

If your recipe calls for four eggs to one quart of milk, use three eggs and the egg omitted use one-half tablespoonful of Kingsford's Corn Starch. For smoother, glossier gravies and sauces use a dessert spoonful of Kingsford's instead of a tablespoonful of wheat flour. For lighter, flakier biscuits, pie crusts and muffins, make your pastry flour with one-fourth cup of Kingsford's and three-fourths cup wheat flour. A little Kingsford's Corn Starch dusted on top of cakes before icing prevents the frosting from running off. A quarter teaspoonful of Kingsford's Corn Starch put into each of your salt-shakers will keep the salt from caking.

FREE! Ask your grocer or write Johnson-Lieber Company, Portland, Oregon, for beautiful folder of the new Kingsford's Corn Starch recipes.
