Road Conditions Not Changed By The Rain

The state highway commission reports that the rain the Grande Ronde valley has been experiencing for the past three days has not seriously impaired the condition of the roads. Practically all of the roads are more or less slippery and frequently mudholes are found. The worst section is the hill between La Grande and Pendleton. Unofficial reports are to the effect that the mud is bad but the roads have not been impassable at any time.

RAIN SAVES WHEAT

PENDLETON, Or., June 10.—What farmers and grain men of this county called a "million dollar rain" had just stopped this evening. Over the Umatilla river and out through the rolling wheat lands of this county more than half an inch of precipitation soaked into the grain lands. Everyone was jubilant as it probably assures a good crop.

PONY RACE ENDED

CANYON CITY, June 10.—After plunging along all night over rough roads and through a violent storm, Jack McCarthy of Canyon City, riding a Duysville Steing of relay horses, pulled into Canyon City at 11:52 Friday morning, winning first prize of $100 in the pony express race from The Dalles, 189 miles away. His time was 19 hours and 17 minutes.

HARDING SPEAKS AT UNVEILING

PRINCETON, June 10.—President Harding dedicated a monument to the achievements of George Washington in Princeton Friday and heard himself hailed as a man of "quiet courage" and "immense patience and self-effacing modesty" in his own policies towards current and controversial political issues. The words came from Dean West, who used them in mention of the president's stand against the veterans' bonus and his votes for anti-strike laws in a resolution, as he recited the reasons which induced Princeton university to give the president an honorary degree of doctor of laws.

Official Figures Give Governor Plurality of 521 Over Nearest Competitor

SALEM, June 10.—Secretary of State Keizer announced this morning the totals of the votes obtained by the six candidates for the Republican nomination for governor in the primary election May 29: Louis E. Bean 3,870; Charles Hall 4,511; J. D. Lee 2,969; Ben W. Olett 43,092; I. L. Patterson 13,919; George A. White 10,159. Olett's plurality, 521. These figures will stand as the official count after being checked over again today. Governor Olett, therefore, on the face of the official returns has been renominated by 521 votes.
