BROKER FACES GIRL'S CHARGES

CHICAGO, June 12.—William T. Pursell, wealthy broker, faced charges Thursday of attacking a 17-year-old high school girl, who applied for a position at his office Wednesday. Pursell was released under bond and permitted to spend the night at his home. "I have no sympathy for my husband," said the broker's wife when she learned of his arrest. "This is not the first time he has been in trouble of this kind. The story is true. There is no use denying it."

OLD MINE IS LEASED AGAIN

BAKER, June 12.—P. J. Jennings and son, George H. Jennings, announced they have signed a contract for the lease and purchase of the Balseley-Elkhorn mine near the headwaters of Rock creek west of Baker. The contract was made with William Pollman, of this place. P. J. Jennings stated this morning that they have taken possession of the property and today sent men out to work on the road to open it so supplies can be taken in and that active work on the mine will be started at once. The present plans for operat-

NEWSPAPERMEN ARE RECOGNIZED

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 12.—Taking notice of the recent awards of the Pulitzer prizes in newspaper work, Stephen Panaretoff, the Bulgarian minister in Washington, called attention today to the fact that his native country had been one of the foremost in formal recognition of the services of a newspaperman. Lying before him on his desk was the incoming mail from Sofia and several of the letters bore a beautifully executed portrait of L. D. Boulcher, in the shape of a postage stamp.

MUSIC HOUSE IS RENOVATED

The Eastern Oregon Music Company is undergoing a complete renovation which, Mr. Kincaid states, "will make it the finest music store in the state of Oregon." Carpenters have been working on the building for the past week and the progress indicates that the work will be completed some time Friday. Saturday afternoon and evening has been set as the opening day and the management promises that his guests will be treated to a vocal and instrumental concert at both times. The change in the interior includes the installation of seven new demonstrating booths, the moving of the phonograph and record department upstairs. The offices are in the rear with the piano section on the ground floor. The interior is mostly finished in pearly gray.

Lass Offers Drink To Deputy Sheriff And Is Fined $50
Union county has a deputy sheriff that won't take liquor for drinking purposes—even from a lady. And Miss Ray Furth now knows better than to flash a bottle of "moonshine" in a crowd. On Friday Miss Furth entered the auto stage, bound for Union, and after everyone was seated she produced a bottle of liquor and invited those present to have a drink. She didn't know that John Striker, deputy sheriff, was one of the occupants of the car but John introduced himself and they went for a little walk up to the courthouse. The case was heard Saturday and she plead guilty, being fined $50.
