COLFAX, Wash., June 17.—Beautiful in every detail was the wedding of Miss Beulah Pearl Aeschliman and Mr. Lynn Calder Wright, of La Grande, Oregon, on Wednesday afternoon, June 14, at the M. E. Church near Colfax.

Preceding the ceremony a quartette sang "On, Perfect Love," by Fairly. To the strains of "Grande Marche Nuptiale," by Ronk, the bride escorted by her father, she was beautifully gowned in white satin and lace and her veil was held in place by a coronation of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of orange blossoms and roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Ernest E. Vehr, of Elgin, Oregon, the sister of the groom, acted as matron of honor and wore a gown and hat of rose-colored organdie and carried a bouquet of roses and carnations. Miss Eulalie Byrne, of Boise, Idaho, a college friend of the bride while attending the University of Idaho, and Miss Pearl Rubin, of Colfax, were the bridesmaids. Miss Byrne wore a gown and hat of orchid organdie and Miss Beulah a gown and hat of pale green organdie. Both wore corsage bouquets of lavender and pink sweet peas and carried shepherd's crooks tied with organdie bows to match their gowns.

Beulah Aeschliman, small cousin of the bride, was flower girl and wore a dainty frock of white organdie. She carried a pretty basket of wild roses which she scattered along the path of the bride.

Little Bernice Reuben, preceded the bride bearing the ring in the petals of a rose. Rupert Aeschliman, brother of the bride, attended the groom as best man, while Leslie Reuben and John Aeschliman, cousins of the bride, acted as ring bearers.

Rev. P. R. Aeschliman, father of the bride, performed the beautiful wedding ceremony, during which Mrs. Dowell's "To a Wild Rose" was softly played, after which the bride and groom marched out to the strains of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March."

The church was artistically decorated with pink and white pennies and ferns. A latticed fence, with gates ajar, entwined with peach blossoms formed the picturesque entrance to an altar banked with ferns.

Miss Aeschliman is the charming daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Paul Aeschliman. From childhood she has lived near Almota and has been most popular and prominent in musical and dramatic circles. She attended Bethel College at Newton, Kansas, University of Idaho, and Whitman College where she specialized in piano and dramatic art.

Mr. Wright is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Wright, who lived in La Grande from childhood, where his father has been a prominent business man. He is a graduate of O. A. C. School of Pharmacy and has been a member of the firm of the Silver Thorne Drug Co. for a number of years.

One hundred and fifty guests were in attendance at the wedding. Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Wright, of La Grande, Oregon; Mrs. Ernest E. Vehr, of Elgin, Oregon; Mrs. Arthur Henry, of Albany, Oregon; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wexler, of Pullman, and Miss Eulalie Byrne, of Boise, Idaho.

The gifts to the young couple were unusually beautiful and numerous, and showed the esteem and love which they are held by their many friends. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents at which the most intimate friends and relatives gathered the happy young couple with good wishes.

Mrs. John Aeschliman and Mrs. Rubin presided at the tea table, where ices, cakes and coffee were served. The bride and groom then departed for an extended trip to the coast cities and beaches.

Miss Ruth Quigley held a delightful recital of some of her piano and violin pupils at the M. E. parsonage yesterday afternoon. Those of Miss Quigley's pupils taking part were Ava Williams, Edith Brunson, Charlotte Walker, Helen Brunson, Isabelle Symons, Louise Wetzel and Virginia Wetzel.

The program was as follows:

1. Piano—"Evening Hymn," and "Song Without Words," Virgil, by Ava Williams.
2. Violin—"Bo-Peep," Brown, by Edith Brunson.
3. Piano—"Sing, Robin, Sing," and "March of the Sages" Spaulding, by Charlotte Walker.
4. Violin—"Minuet in F," Kuenzel, by Helen Brunson.
5. Piano—"Dreaming Poppies," and "Just a Bunch of Daisies," Spaulding, by Isabelle Symons.
6. Violin—"Song Without Words," and "Valse in G," Kuenzel, by Edith Brunson.
7. Piano—"Lightly Row," Lawson, by Louise Wetzel.
8. Violin—"Berceuse," Phelps, by Helen Brunson.
9. Piano—"Four Leaf Clover," Engelman, and "Pixies Good Night Song," Brown, by Virginia Wetzel.

A beautiful wedding took place at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. C. W. Lewis, a sister of the bride, in Hood River, Wednesday morning, June 13, when Faye Milligan was united in marriage to J. Guy Miller of Ladd Canyon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jas. E. Milligan, brother of the bride, of St. Paul's Methodist Church, Tacoma, Washington.

The bride and groom were dressed in traveling suits and the bride wore a corsage of beautiful flowers. Little Virginia Marker was ring bearer. After the ceremony the guests were taken to a beautifully decorated dining room where covers were laid for a lovely wedding breakfast served by Mrs. Lewis. The out-of-town guests were Miss Dorothy Smith of Walla Walla, Washington, niece of the bride; Miss Amy C. Miller of Portland, sister of the groom; and Rev. Milligan's wife and two children.

Mr. Miller is a rancher in Ladd Canyon neighborhood and is connected with his father, D. W. Miller, in the sheep business.

A wedding of interest was held Tuesday when Miss Helen McGowan became the bride of Mr. H. M. Maloney at the Catholic church in Ontario. Mr. and Mrs. Maloney after taking a short wedding trip returned to La Grande to make their home. Mr. Maloney is a very well known and prominent business man and at the present time secretary and treasurer of the White Pine Box and Lumber Co. His bride is a charming Ontario girl and was a nurse in the hospital there. Their many friends extend to them congratulations and best wishes for their future.

The Lucky Thirteen Club was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. A. L. Richardson Thursday afternoon. Mrs. W. G. Sawyer received high honors at bridge and Mrs. Ear Stoddard the guest prize. Mrs. Richardson's home was artistically decorated in a profusion of pink and white roses as the color scheme throughout was pink and white. The dining table centerpiece was a large basket of roses and a lovely Ophelia rose marked each guest's place. Lighter pink and white candles were on the table. A delicious luncheon was served of frozen fruit salad, cream straws, blanched almonds, candy, wafers and coffee.

A lovely party was given by Miss Harriet Casey Thursday evening in honor of Miss Ruth Larsen, who is leaving for Eugene soon. There were three tables set for five hundred and the first prize was awarded to Miss Jean Stearns and Harry Clark and the consolation to Miss Bernice Baker and Emerson Haggerty. Delightful refreshments of brick ice cream, cake and coffee were served at a late hour. Among the young people invited were the Misses Jean Stearns, Ruth Larsen, Dorothy Casey, Vernice Baker of Portland, and Aadelene Barbo, and the Messrs. Stewart Bennett, Bertie Camberg of Union, Harry Clark, William Casey, Helen Stearns, Emerson Haggerty, and the hostess.

Wednesday evening about twenty-two couples motored to Union to a large dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Putnam and Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Landis honoring Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Darby of Portland at the Union Hotel. In the dining room the seating arrangements of the guests was very unique, red sweet peas marking the places of the gentlemen and white sweet peas the places of the ladies. Large baskets of deep red and white peonies were on the tables. The sumptuous four-course dinner was served. After the dinner hour dancing was enjoyed in the parlors of the hotel, punch being served during the evening.

Mrs. L. Stilwell and Mrs. Arthur Simmons entertained the Parkville Club on Flag Day. The Stilwell home was decorated in keeping with the day. A patriotic program was rendered. Mrs. B. Oldenburg, Mrs. L. B. Pierce and Mrs. C. M. Riddle gave readings. At the close of the afternoon the hostesses served a two-course luncheon. A feature of which was a large birthday cake in honor of the flag. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. R. F. Overly. Mrs. E. L. Holley will be joint hostess.

A clever surprise shower for Miss Mildred Oliver, bride-elect, was given Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jack Oliver by Mrs. O. A. Gaudmer, Mrs. J. Miller, Mrs. Henry Council, Mrs. Ira Rowell. The shower presents were placed in a large pink and white cake and given to Miss Oliver. She received many beautiful and useful gifts. Delicious refreshments of brick ice cream cake and coffee were served by the hostesses.

The silver tea given by the Ladies-Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church Friday afternoon, at Mrs. Murphy's lovely new home proved a success socially, as well as financially. Mrs. Murphy's home was artistically decorated with all the lovely flowers of the season. The charming hostesses for the afternoon were Mr. Ray Murphy, Mrs. C. M. Humphreys, Mrs. A. T. Hill, Mrs. Lena Bohnerkamp and Mrs. Picken.

Miss Hazel Stone and Mr. Ray Rex were quietly united in marriage Wednesday noon by Rev. Ross of the Presbyterian church. Mrs. Rex has been prominent in a musical way in La Grande. Mr. Rex is employed in the capital at Salem. The young couple will make their home in La Grande for an indefinite time.
