Strawberries Going Through—The spring shipment of fruit has got into full blast. This morning No. 5 carried four cars of strawberries from western Oregon, bound for Omaha, Nebraska, and other eastern points. The congestion of fruit shipping along the line is responsible for much of the lateness of the trains.

New Orchestra Organized—La Grande has another new jazz orchestra. The orchestra will be known as Loney's Novelty orchestra. The members of the orchestra are Andrew Loney, cornet, Abbey Green, piano, Everett Cornetbaum, drums and traps, Kenneth Gekeler, saxophone and clarinet, Dick Lindor, violin and fiddle and J. Harry Snodgrass, saxophone.

Larceny Suspected—Due to the fact that several members of the household of S. A. Wells, 1405 Sixth street, heard sounds during the evening and that $15 was missing in the morning, suspicion points to robbery during Sunday evening. No clues indicating that someone had entered the house were found and the $15 is yet missing.

To Purchase Cars—C. W. Hunting and son, local dealers of the new Maxwell cars, left last evening for Portland to try and purchase a few new cars from that point. Mr. Hunting has sold seven of the new cars in the past week and has other orders that he cannot fill, having sold more cars than the contract with the factory can supply him with.

Desires Game—Rev. Lines, coach of the Imbler Juveniles, has written to the local Y asking that arrangements be made for a game at Imbler either Thursday or Saturday. A heavier team than the La Grande Juniors is desired. Whether the game will be arranged is not known but preparations are being made to that end.

Schaefer Much Better—The Grace Ronde hospital reports that the condition of George Schaefer, who was mysteriously injured in the O-W. yards Friday morning, is much improved. His mother, Mrs. L. H. Schaefer, who was with him Saturday, returned to her home in Woodburn Sunday evening. Schaefer is expected to be able to leave the hospital in about a week's time.
