

OUT OUR WAY

BY WILLIAMS

IT ISN'T SAFE TO SIT AROUND THE PARK IN WHITE STOCKINGS WHEN THE OLD NEAR-SIGHTED CUSTODIAN IS PICKING UP PAPER.

Local News In Brief

July 3, 4 and 5—General celebration of Fourth of July at Elgin.

July 4—Old Oregon Trail historical pageant at Baker.

July 21-22—Ahautsauqua at City Park.

Returns to La Grande—
Al Daniels of Portland arrived in La Grande this morning on 24.

Accepts Position With Clothier—
Clark Fitzgerald has accepted a position clerking for "Clint, the Clothier."

Leaves for Baker—
Wm. Carney left last evening for Baker to accept a position with the O-W.

Returns to Seattle—
L. A. McAllister, after spending a week with La Grande friends, returned to Seattle last evening.

Real Estate Man Returns—
L. A. Stoop of C. J. Black and company, returned yesterday morning from Weiser, where he has been attending to some real estate business.

Any La Grande subscriber to the Observer who does not receive his paper by 8 o'clock in the evening, please call Western Union, Main 24, and a special messenger will deliver a copy.

JAZZ

Dance

Saturday Night

Rex Hall

LONEY'S NOVELTY ORCHESTRA

Haines People in City—
Mr. and Mrs. William J. Welch of Haines are in La Grande today attending to business matters.

Will Undergo Operation—
S. D. Crowe, manager of the Home Telephone company, is at Hot Lake, where he will undergo an operation soon.

Journal Boys on Picnic—
The carrier boys of the Journal spent Sunday at Morgan lake, fishing and swimming. The boys were under the care of P. E. Wyrick.

Motors to Baker—
Mrs. Walter Reuter and Mrs. Gus Levy motored to Baker yesterday to spend a few days visiting with friends.

Attends Reunion—
T. K. Bellamy and wife motored to Elgin yesterday to attend the Hug reunion. Mrs. Bellamy was formerly a Hug.

Leaves to Accept Position—
Miss La Rus Hanks left yesterday evening for Walla Walla, to accept a position in the offices of the Standard Oil company.

Home from Portland—
Oscar Johnson, of the O-W, offices returned on No. 24 this morning from a three days' visit in Portland.

Leaves for Beside of Daughter—
Rector McGinnis left last evening for Portland to be at the bedside of his daughter, who is critically ill in that city.

Visiting Sister—
Bessie O'Neil of Portland, formerly Reisel Cleg of this city, is here visiting a few days with her sister, Mrs. Otis Veal.

Down from Baker—
James Wright of Baker, well known in this city, arrived in La Grande this morning and is spending a short time here on business.

Stanfield Man—
L. P. Weimock, who makes his home in Stanfield, arrived in La Grande Sunday and registered at the Foley. He was here on business.

Elgin Man Visitor—
John Hug, a well known farmer of Elgin, is a La Grande visitor today.

New Bishop of Cove Here—
Harry Wetmer, newly installed bishop of the L. D. S. church of Cove, spent Saturday afternoon in La Grande.

Library to Close—
The public library will be closed Tuesday and Wednesday because of interior refinishing that is being done.

Wright in Town—
Johnnie Wright, who has been working on a survey gang out of Baker, is in the city for a few days' visit with friends and relatives.

Dance Soon—
The Black and White orchestra of the University of Idaho, will give a dance Tuesday evening, June 27, at the Rex hall.

Attends Convention—
Judge R. J. Kitchen was among those making the trip to Cove to attend the Old Fellows convention Saturday.

Motors to Elgin—
Mrs. Chris Mays and daughter, Wilma, and Evelyn, motored to Elgin yesterday to spend the day with friends.

Union Visitors—
Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Wilson of Union, were visitor in La Grande this morning attending to some business and doing some shopping.

Lecture-Sermon Tuesday—
Rev. D. Lorie of Cove will deliver a lecture-sermon in the Baptist church here tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Executive Meeting—
The Union County Farm Bureau executive committee will hold its regular monthly meeting Saturday evening in the offices of County Agent H. G. Avery.

To Visit Mother—
Mrs. Irwin Nies, of this city, left this morning on No. 17, bound for Hood River, where she will be with her mother, Mrs. George Ferguson for some time.

To Pendleton in High Gear—
O. E. Kincaid of the Eastern Oregon Music company, drove to Pendleton yesterday in his new Max-well. Mr. Kincaid made the trip all the way in high gear.

Mr. Grandy Returns to Granger—
Ben M. Grandy of Granger, Ida., who has been here visiting William D. Grandy and other relatives for several days, returned home last evening.

Rev. Lines Here—
Rev. N. Lines, of Imbler, is a La Grande visitor today. Rev. Lines is coach of the well known Imbler Juvenile baseball team that played for the northwest championship last year.

Elgin Doctor—
Dr. H. R. Smith, a prominent physician of Elgin, arrived in La Grande a short time ago and is spending a few days here on business as a guest of the Foley.

Minam Couple—
Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Warnstoff, residents of Minam, arrived in La Grande Saturday evening on the branch line train and spent Sunday in La Grande as guests of the Savoy.

Left by Auto—
Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Palmer, of Enterprise, drove into La Grande yesterday and registered at the Sommer. They left this morning, bound for the coast.

Arrives from Gooding—
Miss Josephine Bliss, of Gooding, Idaho, arrived in La Grande this morning on No. 17. She will be here about ten days, visiting at the home of Mrs. C. G. Hicks.

Passes Through—
Miss Lillie Lewin of Union, passed through La Grande this morning on No. 24, bound for her home where she will spend the summer. Miss Lewin has been in California parts the past few months.

Enterprise Ladies—
Miss Maudie Childers and Mrs. Bert Thompson, two Enterprise ladies, are spending a short time in La Grande as guests of the Savoy. They are here doing some shopping and attending to some other business matters.

Home from Enterprise—
Harold Short, who has been spending the past few days in Walla Walla county enjoying the scenery, fishing and all the sports which that Switzerland of America furnishes at this time of the year, arrived home yesterday.

Returns to La Grande—
Mr. and Mrs. Lynn C. Wright, who were married on June 17, in Colfax, Washington, returned to La Grande this morning on No. 24 after spending about ten days on a wedding trip on the coast.

Left for Yellowstone—
Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hill, of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Price, of Portland, left yesterday by car, bound for the Yellowstone National park. The party will be gone for about three weeks.

From Portland—
Frank Hilton, formerly owner of the Hilton garage of this city, arrived in La Grande this morning from Portland and will spend a few days here on business and visiting with friends.

Leaves for Portland—
Miss Emma Harkett, who makes her home in Joseph, spent the past two days in La Grande visiting with friends and left this morning on No. 17, bound for Portland, where she will spend about a month's time before returning to her home.

To Hot Lake—
J. W. Mahoney, who makes his home in Payette, Idaho, has been spending some time in La Grande visiting with friends. He left this morning on No. 24, bound for Hot Lake, where he will spend the day.

Huckleberries to be Plentiful—
Mr. McRae, driver for the Express company, reports that there will be more huckleberries this year than for many years. They will be ripe in parts of the hills by the middle of July.

Family Reunion—
The Hulise family are preparing for their annual reunion. It will be held the first four days of July at Shadow Point Farm, the home of J. E. Hulise. Visitors are welcome any day.

To Enterprise—
Miss Mertie Miles, of Union, left La Grande this morning on the branch line train, bound for Enterprise, where she will spend a few days with friends. While there she will attend the Epworth League conference.

Alfalfa Sample—
J. T. Woodell, a farmer near Imbler, was in La Grande recently and left a sample of alfalfa grown on land treated with land plaster. The sample of alfalfa was of exceptional quality and much larger than the ordinary yield.

Many Dogs Poisoned—
Many dogs have been poisoned the last month, according to Dr. Kelly's statement. Last week a valuable hunting dog belonging to Mr. McMillan of the La Grande Grocery company and a pea dog belonging to May Desilet were poisoned.

Married Saturday—
Arthur F. Furman, of Imbler, was married to Miss Velma W. Burroughs, who lives a short distance from La Grande, Saturday afternoon at about 1:30 o'clock at the courthouse by Judge U. G. Couch. The county clerk issued them a marriage license earlier in the day.

Mrs. Belle Huntley Improving—
Although reported at the time that Mrs. Belle Huntley, due to trouble, had probably attempted to take her own life, it is now known to her attending physician that such was not the case and that her illness was not due to any such cause. Mrs. Huntley is improving rapidly.

Over from Union—
M. W. Huffman, accompanied by Eldridge and Leonard Huffman and Mrs. R. A. Wilkerson, motored over to La Grande Saturday and spent the afternoon attending to some business interests. Miss Vina Kennedy of Medical Springs, was also with the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Maloney Home—
Arriving home this morning, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Maloney announced they had finished their journey and would now be residents of La Grande. Mr. Maloney is secretary of the White Pine Box and Lumber company. The couple was recently married in Portland.

Spent Summer at Cove—
Loxro and Rolex Prillman, accompanied by Steve Selak, all students in the University of Oregon, arrived in La Grande this morning on their way to Cove, where they will spend the summer. They will visit at their former home during the summer and will return to Eugene in the fall, where the two Prillman brothers are making their home.

Boyd Boys Arrive from East—
Robert and Billy Boyd arrived this morning from Northampton, Mass., where with their mother and brothers and sisters they have been spending the school year. They were met here by their father, Daniel Boyd of Enterprise. Mrs. Boyd and the other children will arrive in a short time and all will spend the summer at their home in Walla Walla county.

He Likes Eastern Oregon—
W. N. Fisher of Council Bluffs, Iowa, who is here visiting L. D. Moo and family, says he likes eastern Oregon more and more each day the summer progresses. He is perfectly willing to raise the hot weather of the middle states and insists that one should be happy out in this country regardless of what happens so long as he can enjoy the excellent weather and climate.

To Wrestle in Alaska—
Ad Gustavo, local wrestler, left last evening for Ketchikan, Alaska, to meet "Tina" Walker, wrestler of Seattle. Walker is a good man having wrestled with Samson for three hours to a draw. Samson and Walker were to meet the Fourth of July at Ketchikan for the title of Alaska but Samson left Alaska on the first boat after the match. Gustavo and Walker are both experienced men and have met on the mat several times before.

La Grande Girl Visits—
Miss Lota Pierson of La Grande is visiting her former classmate, Miss Birdan Feese, Miss Pierson was the editor of the last number of the La Grande high school annual, the Mimir, which number is regarded as one of the best of the annuals published in the state. She will also attend the Epworth League institute at Wallawa lake as a delegate from La Grande.—Walla Walla Sun.

Union Man Here—
Amos Davis, a Union farmer, is spending the day in La Grande attending to some business affairs.

Cars Crush—
Two cars, a bug and a light touring car, partially collided at the intersection of Depot and Adams this noon. No damage was done to either car owing to the fact that the cars slowed up and were nearly at a standstill when they touched each other. Not even a headlight was broken.

Comes Home on High—
Charles McCrary, who is one of the pioneer automobile men of La Grande and who sticks to the Haynes car year in and year out, arrived home yesterday in a new Haynes Fifty-five from Portland. "I came home on high, never shifted a gear and I want to say I came too." He was accompanied by Boris Welch, who had been in Portland on business. Mr. McCrary says the roads are all right between La Grande and Pendleton but advises everyone to take the old road from Kamela to La Grande and not to use the new highway.

NEW TODAY

FOR SALE—Cheap, twin reed carriage. Hood on either end. Phone 347-M. 6-26-22

FOR SALE—Barn. 1712 Walnut. 6-26-22

LOST—Tire and rim between Wallawa and Elgin. Finder please return or notify Observer office. 6-26-22

FOR SALE—Hay, near town in May Park; three stacks at $10 per ton. Ed Adler, phone 457-M. 6-26-22

FOR SALE—Reed buggy. 1308 N Ave. 6-26-22

FOR SALE—Free sewing machine. A-1 condition. 1607 7th St. 6-26-22

LOST—Purse containing currency and silver. Liberal reward, return to Observer office. 6-26-22

WANTED—Wood choppers. $2.00

Silk Hosiery

in an extensive assortment of all colors and prices, in both glove and tread silk. When you need hosiery try us.

FRENCH & GREENE

Ready-to-Wear and Shoes

per cord. Call at 1403 N Ave. or phone 434-A. 6-26-22

CREDITORS' FIRST MEETING.
In the District Court of the United States for the District of Oregon. In the Matter of Elgin Warehouse Co., Bankrupt. In Bankruptcy No. B. 6343.
To the Creditors of Elgin Warehouse Co., of Elgin, Union County, in said District, a Bankrupt.
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that on the 19th day of June, 1922, the said Elgin Warehouse Co. was duly adjudicated bankrupt, and the first meeting of its creditors will be held at the City Hall at Elgin, Oregon, on Friday, July 7th, 1922 at 4 o'clock p. m., at which time the said creditors may attend, prove their claims, appoint a Trustee, examine the Bankrupt and transact such other business as may properly come before the said meeting.

H. E. DIXON, Referee in Bankruptcy. (All claims must be sworn to on bankruptcy blanks before filing.) 6-26-22

A.R.C.A.D.E

TONIGHT

LESIE GIRLS in Singing and Musical Revue	BAYLE & PATSY in "ATTA-BOY"
Marie Corralia & Co. An Athletic Surprise	Dixie Boy Morris Singing and Dancing

ON THE SAME PROGRAM

Herbert Rawlinson

In

"THE BLACK BAG"

A Smashing Melodrama from Louis Vance's Novel

TUESDAY ONLY

MARY MILES MINTER AND THE LEATHER PUSHERS—Round Three

CARR'S

For Credit - No Interest

Ready for the Fourth?

It will be hot, so make your preparations accordingly.

We've things to wear that will add a great deal to your comfort and your appearance as well.

Our Adler's Collegian Clothes have all the snap of Summer Style.

$25.00 to $47.50

SUMMER FURNISHINGS

Shirts in Oxford Madras and soisette, fancy hosiery, underwear in Zephyr weights, belts, neckwear and all other summer wearables.

ASH BROS.

"The store that keeps faith with the people."

No. 4 Combination Last

Blucher Style Of Dark Brown or Glazed Kid

Nettleton

Shoes of Worth

Always Worth What You Pay For Them

The superior shoemanship of Nettleton shows the refinement of line and finish which makes for distinctiveness and exclusiveness. It shows in a sturdiness of character and quality which demonstrates itself in wear, service and satisfaction.

The above model is only one of many splendid Nettletons to be had at our store.

ONE PRICE ON NETTLETON SHOES

of $12.00 per Pair any Style—any Leather

Representatives for NETTLETON'S Men's Shoes—The World's Finest

Clint's Clothiery

The Store With a Conscience

"Mt. Emily" Products

Is your assurance that you are getting the Best in Cured Meats

The Grande Ronde Meat Co.

For Sale

5-room modern bungalow, fireplace, furnace, built-in kitchen, full basement, garage, good lawn. Price $4000. Terms.

5-room modern house, just refinished inside and out. One-half basement with concrete floor, built-in kitchen. Price $3000. Terms $400 cash and $35 per month, including interest.

4-room modern house on 2 acre, good lot 45x110, concrete sidewalk. Price $1800. Terms $400 cash and balance at $30 per month, including interest.

20 acres on the new highway at Alice, 5 acres in Delicious apples with an excellent crop this year. 5-room house on the place with electric lights.

Modern 10-room home well located on a paved street. This is one of La Grande's best residences and if you are looking for a real home it will pay you to investigate this.

Apartment house, furnished, in nice location. Rentals make investment in addition to providing a modern home for owner. Let me give you the details of this property.

Geo. H. Currey

Real Estate Insurance