One hundred ten members of the Elgin family were present at the reunion which was held in the City Park at Elgin last Sunday, June 25. Together with friends, there were over 100 present. One family, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Nieser and their children, Homer, Charlotte and Eileen, of Portland, Oregon, drove over in their cars. Of the one hundred seventeen absent members, over eighty are scattered from Los Angeles to Medical Lake, Washington, and from Pocatello on down through Utah and Nevada. Many of these plan to arrange their business so that they can be present next year. Aunt Ann Hug, who is now in her eighty-eighth year, is the only surviving member of the family who crossed the ocean over sixty years ago. Two others, John Niederer, in 1874, and Conrad Niederer, his brother, in 1881, also crossed the ocean, coming from Switzerland. The place of meeting next year was left to Aunt Ann, who wants it to be Elgin, her home town. So Elgin it will be on the last Sunday in June, 1923. The reunion was pronounced a success, having been a most enjoyable and long, several fine recollections by the younger folks, and excellent music by the Elgin Band, as well as many amusing and interesting incidents of the past retold.

A quiet and attractive wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hopper, when their daughter, Ruth, became the bride of Chas. Smuts, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Smuts, at 10:30 o'clock Sunday, June 25. The home was beautifully decorated with roses. The bride was daintily dressed in white crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations. They were attended by Dorothy and D. Smuts, sister and brother of the groom. Rev. D. D. Randall performed the impressive rite ceremony. A two-course dinner was served, after which the young couple immediately departed for Portland and the coast. They left in a highly decorated car and showers of rice and old shoes. Hosts of friends unite in wishing them happiness and prosperity.

A quiet wedding took place at Vancouver, Washington, recently when Samuel James Espago and Miss Ethel Stinson were united in marriage at the First Presbyterian church, the pastor of the church officiating. A few friends and relatives were in attendance. Both the bride and groom were attired in gray, the bride wearing a gray beaded voile dress touched with a spray of orange blossoms from California and carried a beautiful bouquet of roses. Mrs. Walter Phelps was best man, and George Kew was best man. Little Miss Barbara Kew proved to be a charming flower girl. The happy couple spent their wedding trip in Seaside at their summer cottage and are now at home in Oswego.

Sunday was a day in the woods for everyone who could get there. With the fast automobile every wooded spot that was inviting from Baker county to Starkey and from the Country Club to Imnaha was invaded by La Grande people who sought the joy of the out of doors. Some chose to break the Sabbath day by attempting to fish, while others took their delight in bathing suits.

In every instance the land of plenty reflected itself in the good things to eat that were conveyed to picnic grounds, showing plainly that the richness of the country still exists and that regardless of the busy and busy about conditions most everyone is still eating three squares a day and having a pretty good time.

Mrs. Wm. Siegert charmingly acted as hostess at a delightful bridge luncheon Tuesday afternoon at on thirty at the Country Club. Covers were laid for sixteen. Miss Hazel Magnuson, who has charge of the club, served a delicious luncheon of fried chicken, new potatoes, clover leaf rolls, gooseberry conserve, stuffed tomatoes and cucumber salad, strawberry Bavarian cream and cake. The table was prettily decorated with lovely roses and little nut baskets were placed on the table. About the rooms were large baskets of yellow flowers. High honors were given to Mrs. T. G. Scroggin, Miss G. L. Larson and Mrs. Chas. Bohnenkamp.

The annual picnic of the Lucky Thirteen card club was held Saturday evening at the city park, and, as usual, was a social event of extraordinary importance. Thirty-two persons enjoyed the exquisite picnic dinner which included about everything that was ever known in the way of good eats. The club's members celebrated many little memories of his year's program and the guests present were given some insight into the mysteries of a card club which proceeds with regularity throughout the winter season and closes the year with a delightful event such as was the Saturday evening picnic.

Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp delightedly entertained Monday afternoon bonnet party at her home at 10:30. Mrs. C. W. Siegert. There were five tables of bridge and those receiving prizes were Mrs. C. Scroggin and the guests. Prizes were given to Mrs. McAllister and Mrs. Stewart. Mrs. Bohnenkamp's lovely home was artistically decorated with roses. Delicious refreshments of sherbet, cake and coffee were served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hampton and small daughter, La Grande, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Rice. Mr. and Mrs. Hampton formerly resided here where Mr. Hampton was city school superintendent, which position he now holds in La Grande. Mrs. Hampton is a sister of James Howler of this city.—Pendleton East Oregonian.

Mrs. Jessie Nelson and daughter, Bertha, left Sunday night for New York to attend the G. A. E. and W. R. C. Department convention. Mrs. Nelson is Senior Vice President of the state, while Miss Bertha is the baby

Homesick for God's Country—A traveling man, who is a frequent visitor in La Grande, writes from Fresno, Cal., that he is experiencing the hottest weather of his life and when the perspiration trickles down his spinal column he wishes of the cold and cooling water which is so dear to his people and which he was used to in God's country in summer.

Warm for Canadians—"We find this country rather warm, at least it seems so to us," said G. E. Dorrance, of Saskatchewan, Canada, who spent last night in La Grande in company with his wife and niece, Effie Dorrance, en route to Enterprise, where they will spend about a month visiting with his brother, W. O. Dorrance. "Coming through Walla Walla we found the temperature about 104 degrees in the shade, and that is hot weather for us." In regards to the business conditions in Canada, Mr. Dorrance states that everything is looking fine and that the general wave of the return to normalcy is hitting Canada the same as elsewhere. Crops are doing well in the upper country, too.

Asbestos Shoes. Asbestos shoes are made for workers in steel mills where the molten metal is being handled.

Local News in Brief

Back on Job—Clint Hayes, who has been putting in some hard work on the Beaver creek intake for the past month, returned to La Grande the former part of the week wearing a month's beard and looking much slimmer of build and healthier than before he left. He says the vacation if you could call it that, was fine excepting the mosquitoes were very numerous. He is back on the job as policeman this morning.

WHO ARE YOU?

NINETY-NINE chances out of a hundred you are the man whose second finger on the right hand is expert in pressing electric buttons.

An electric button is a pretty smart thing. By it we make elevators ring and call for us, we give orders, we summon employees, we start big machinery whirring, we turn the light on and off, we could go on indefinitely. But remember, it is not the half-inch button that does all this.

There is the tremendous power behind the button; the huge dams and water turbines (in case of water power) or the enormous boilers, turbines, engines and generators (in steam plants); the wires of high tension transmission lines, and the innumerable smaller wires stretching like a web from your very bedside out over the whole country.

1,400,000 people have invested their earnings in the securities of the electric light and power industry. Bolder these foresighted citizens there are the investments of insurance companies and the loans made by banks.

They make possible "the button" that your finger presses morning, noon and night. Thirty-five million others enjoy the same instantaneous service.

There are still 14,000,000 houses in the United States remaining to be wired. 14,000,000 unwired homes mean that millions of people are without the benefit of electric light and power in their residences.

Gradually most of these residents will demand electric service, and the electrical industry with the support of the public, will find the means to extend this service to these prospective patrons, so they, too, will be able to press that half-inch button.
