Charming in its simplicity was the wedding of Miss Leta Dee Kiddle, who became the bride of Mr. Robert W. Earl of Eugene Wednesday evening at eight o'clock. The ceremony was performed in the presence of relatives and immediate friends by the Rev. James Leitch at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. E. Kiddie, of Island City.

The wedding procession was led by two dainty little flower girls, Mary Helen and Myrtle Jean Watkins, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Watkins, Misses Eileen and Mildred Kiddie, nieces of the bride, acted as her attendants, and following them came the bride on the arm of her brother, Fred Kiddie. The bride was pretty in her gown of white chiffon and lace over white satin. The veil was arranged in a frilly coronet fashion and she carried a beautiful showery bouquet of Ophelia roses, orchids and lilies of the valley. She wore a necklace of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Eileen Kiddie was attractive in pink organdie, Miss Mildred Kiddie in green, and the two flower girls were also in organdies of pastel shades. Mary Helen Watkins wearing pink and Myrtle Jean Watkins yellow. Kenneth Robinson of Portland, fraternity brother of the groom, acted as best man. Little Miss Maravene Kiddie, dressed in pink organdie, and Robert Edward Eakin, nephew of the bride, formed an aisle with pink tulle for the bridal procession.

Proceeding the ceremony, Miss Genevieve Clancy of Portland sang "Because," by Hardieol, and "At Dawning," by Cozman. She was accompanied by Robert S. Eakin, who also played Mendelssohn's "Wedding March."

Following the ceremony, an informal reception was held in the dining room. Mrs. H. H. Bissell cut tea, while Mrs. Albert Hunter poured. They were assisted by the Misses Wynell Wade, Iris Bryant, Katherine Bryant, Genevieve Clancy, Katherine Wilson, Dorothy Dixon and Helen McDonald. The Misses Eileen and Mildred Kiddie presided at the punch bowl.

The gracious rooms of the Kiddie residence were most attractive with a profusion of dainty flowers. The wedding vows were exchanged before a bank of greenery daintily etched with syringa. Bowls of pink roses formed a pretty decoration in the dining room.

Preceding her marriage, Mrs. Earl was the merest delightful social affairs. Both she and Mr. Earl are graduates of the University of Oregon in the class of 1921. The bride is a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority. Mr. Earl is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity and during the World War spent twelve months overseas in the ordinance department. Mr. and Mrs. Earl left Wednesday evening for a short wedding trip up the McKenzie River, after which they will make their home in Eugene, where Mr. Earl is engaged in business.

Miss Virginia Bryant caught the bride's bouquet. Mrs. Fred Kiddie and Miss Wynell Wade received the gifts.

Among the out-of-town guests attending the wedding were four sorority sisters of the bride, the Misses Dorothy Dixon of Eugene, Genevieve Clancy, Katherine Wilson and Frances Manry of Portland; and Miss Gertrude Eakin of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bater of Elgin, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bidwell of North Portland, and the Messrs. Kenneth Robinson of Portland, Harold Eakin of Salem and Wesley Shattuck of Vancouver, Washington.

A pretty wedding, at which Bishop Walter Taylor Sumner of Portland officiated, took place in St. Paul's Episcopal church at Oregon City, June 15, when Miss Genevieve Jones, daughter of Mrs. J. S. Jones, became the bride of R. C. Crowell, of Portland. Rev. Mr. E. E. Cleland of St. Paul's Episcopal church assisted in performing the double ring ceremony. G. Hallowell sang "At Dawning" and Mrs. N. Roberts played the wedding march from Lehengrin.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, N. Reed of Portland. Miss Helenann Jones, sister of the bride, attended her. William Grieve of Spokane, Wash., cousin of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

The bride was attractively gowned in white corded taffeta. A wreath of orange blossoms held her silk net veil in place. She carried a showery bouquet of lilies of the valley, bride-roses and sweet peas. The bridesmaid wore a dress of green organdie and carried a bouquet of sweet peas and roses.

Mrs. Crowell is a graduate of the Oregon City high school. She attended the University of Southern California and also the Oregon Agricultural college, where she received a degree in home economics. She is a member of Alpha Chi Omega and Delta Psi Kappa honorary physical education sorority. Last year she was supervisor of physical education in the La Grande schools.

Mr. Crowell was graduated from the Washington high school, and after completing a course in mining engineering at the Oregon Agricultural college he received a bachelor of science degree. He is a member of Sigma Chi and Sigma Tau, national honorary engineering fraternity.

The young couple will make their home in southern Oregon, where Mr. Crowell has mining interests.

A quiet and attractive wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Wade near Hilgard, when their daughter, Wilma, became the bride of Cameron Callihan at high noon Tuesday, June 27th. Proceeding the impressive ring ceremony, which was performed by Rev. James Leitch of Island City, Mrs. W. B. Parkinson sang, "O, Promise Me," "The string of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," the bridal party entered the room, the bride escorted by her father. She was daintily dressed in white crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of pink roses and was attended by her sister, Georgia, and cousin, Roberts Smith. Both wore corsage bou-

July 4th 1776-1922

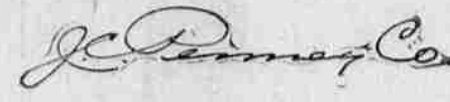

The 146th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence—next Tuesday—will find all J. C. Penney Company stores closed for the day.

Every patriotic son and daughter of this great "Land of the Free" and "Home of the Brave" should join in fittingly celebrating the occasion.

It is the greatest of all landmarks in the progress of our own beloved United States of America and the entire world.

May the "Spirit of 1776" be the "Spirit of 1922" on this year's birthday of our Country's freedom.

This store will be open for business Wednesday morning, July 5th.

There in cars. The young folks spent a good time roasting weenies and marshmallows and playing games. Later around the bright camp-fire they sang songs until a late hour.

In compliment of Miss Leta Kiddie, a bride of this week, Miss Helen McDonald entertained the members of the Gamma Phi Beta sorority and their mothers Saturday of last week. At the close of the afternoon a delicious two-course luncheon was served by the hostess and her mother, Mrs. F. A. McDonald. Miss Dorothy Dixon of Eugene and Miss Genevieve Clancy of Portland were out-of-town Gamma Phi present.

About seventy children who took part in the play, "Strange Visitors," last week were delightfully entertained by a group of ladies in charge at the home of Mrs. George Stoddard, Friday afternoon, June 30. A most enjoyable time was spent in playing games and telling stories. Delicious refreshments of ice cream, cookies and candies were served by those who acted as hostesses.

The Wing, Fin and Fleetfoot Club announced that their annual Fish Feed, an affair of much importance, will be held about July 18. July 18 has not been set as the definite date yet, but it is very likely that this day will be observed with the gathering of the club around a table heavily laden with fish.

After attending the Kiddie-Earl nuptial on Wednesday evening, the Misses Katherine Wilson and Frances Manry of Portland, accompanied by Wesley Shattuck of Vancouver, Wash., started overland for their respective homes on Thursday morning.

Miss Genevieve Clancy of Portland, who arrived in La Grande last Saturday and was a guest at the home of Mrs. E. E. Kiddie, of Island City, returned to her home Wednesday evening, following the wedding of Miss Leta Kiddie to Mr. Robert W. Earl.

William Siegrist and family and Master Egn Siegrist will leave tomorrow in an automobile for Seaside, Oregon, where they will spend several weeks enjoying the summer-time at the beaches.

Miss Dorothy Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dixon of Eugene, returned to her home Wednesday evening, after spending the past ten days as the house guest of Miss Leta Kiddie, now Mrs. Robert Earl.

Mrs. F. L. Meyers, Miss Margaret Newlin, Mrs. Chester Newlin and Mrs. DeLelle Green were hostesses for two beautifully appointed bridge parties at the home of the former Wednesday and Thursday afternoons. Baskets of roses were used about the rooms. At the close of both afternoons a delicious two-course luncheon was served. Those receiving prizes on the first day were Mrs. F. L. Halston, Mrs. Gilbert Hunter, Mrs. Ed Ward and Mrs. Harold Levy consolation. Those receiving prizes on the second day were Mrs. W. G. Sawyer, Mrs. Lou Given, Mrs. Norman Frees and Mrs. F. L. Lilly consolation.
