

Local News In Brief

July 21-27—Chautauqua at City Park.

Report Nearly Finished—The school superintendents' yearly report is nearly finished.

The "Y" Closed—The Y. M. C. A. building will be closed all day in observance of the Fourth of July.

Visitor Here—Francis Dohbin of Union, who lately returned from the O. A. C., where he is a student, was a La Grande visitor Sunday.

Any La Grande subscriber to the Observer who does not receive his paper by 8 o'clock in the evening, please call Western Union, Main 24, and a special messenger will deliver a copy.

In Portland—C. H. Finn and Robert Newlin are in Portland, where they were called by the death of Mrs. Finn, who passed on in Portland Sunday morning.

In Minam Today—Ed Wright, district prosecuting attorney is spending his Fourth of July vacation at Minam. He is expected to return to La Grande about the middle of the week.

To Union—Miss Lucille Taylor, of this city, left last evening on No. 18 for Union, where she is spending the day with friends and relatives. She will return to La Grande this evening.

Enterprise Attorney—D. W. Sheahan, one of Enterprise's prominent attorneys, arrived in La Grande last evening and registered at the Sommer. He is spending a short time here on business.

Huron Family—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dillon, who make their home in Huron, Oregon, arrived in La Grande yesterday and registered at the Savoy. They will be here for a short time on business.

Returns to La Grande—Douglas Kline returned to his home in La Grande Saturday evening from Pleasant Valley, where he has been employed on the railroad for the past few weeks.

Out On Bonds—George Francis was arrested yesterday on the charge of being intoxicated on the streets. He pleaded not guilty at a hearing trial held yesterday and was released until the date set for his trial on $10 bonds.

Down from Wallowa—Charles R. Goebel of Wallowa, accompanied by Miss Mildred Boston, arrived in La Grande last evening on the branch line train and registered at the Foley Hotel.

Two Marriage Licenses—The county clerk issued two marriage licenses over the week-end. The recipients were James Matney and Miss Mable Trester, of Alici, and Charles E. O'Neal and Edith Patten, of La Grande.

Enterprise Lady—Mrs. George H. Holmes, the wife of one of Wallowa county's farmers, is spending a short time in La Grande as a guest of the Sommer hotel. She arrived in town last evening on the branch line train.

Mrs. Chambers Here—Mrs. P. Chambers, who makes her home in Enterprise, arrived in La Grande last evening on the branch line train and registered at the Foley Hotel. She will spend the evening here.

Enterprise Duo—W. C. Jackson and R. L. Lilly, two well known residents of Enterprise, are stopping in La Grande today as guests of the Sommer. They arrived in La Grande last evening on the branch line train.

To Hike and Swim—The La Grande scouts, who are not out of the city attending celebrations in adjacent communities, will leave tomorrow for a short hike, returning via the Country Club where they will stop for a dip in the tank.

Purchased the Harding Home—E. O. Payton and family have moved into the home at 1910 Cedar street which Mr. Payton purchased from Mrs. Harding recently. He is now connected with the Eastern Oregon Music company having resigned his position some time ago at assistant postmaster.

To Attend Family Reunion—Herbert Hanna returned from Enterprise Sunday, where he had been attending the Wallowa county term of circuit court, and in company with Mrs. Hanna and family, left yesterday by motor for Eugene, where they will attend a family reunion to be held this week.

Expected Back Soon—Mrs. E. P. Mossman accompanied by Miss Adeline Clark, who makes her home in Los Angeles, where Mrs. Mossman has been on the past few months, are expected to return to La Grande about tomorrow. Miss Clark is a niece of Mrs. A. L. Richardson, with whom she will visit while in La Grande.

New Swimming Class—The swimming class for boys who desire to learn to swim, set for Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock is the third beginners' class that was necessitated when the Y. M. C. A. decided that all boys in the city who didn't know how to swim could learn free of charge. The other two classes are held on Thursday. All who wish to enroll in the new class should be at the "Y" promptly at 9 o'clock.

Troop Two Up River—Troop No. 2, of the local Boy Scouts, left last evening for a short hike up the Grande Ronde river. They stopped a few miles from town and enjoyed an outdoor supper and a dip in the river, in connection with a business meeting. They returned in the evening well satisfied. G. B. Hogan, scoutmaster, was in charge.

"Hetter Here," Says Judge—Judge and Mrs. J. W. Knowles, accompanied by their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Brown, and their daughter, Betty, arrived in La Grande Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Brown are residents of Enterprise and will visit here over the Fourth of July. "The weather seems somewhat cooler in Enterprise than here," remarked the Judge. He and his wife are now living in their new bungalow, situated about two miles from town on his ranch.

Business Good—Business men in La Grande are not complaining about any falling off in business because of the railroad strike. Westenhaver and Gilbert were forced to put on two extra clerks Monday to take care of the unusual rush of business, in addition to the regular force. Other stores also kept their clerks, and extra ones in a number of instances "on their toes" to wait on the heavy trade that seemed to have sprung up with the warm spell.

Prep Hike—The prep boys' gymnasium class held an overnight hike the latter part of last week, going about six miles up over Fox Hill on the first day, where they made their camp and continuing on to the top of Mt. Emily on the following day, then returning home. On the way they were fortunate enough to catch a glimpse of a two point buck deer. They pronounced the hike a grand success but were just a little foot weary when they returned.
