MARK TWAIN FILM FOR ARCADE THEATRE

As a special attraction, the Arcade Theatre will show, beginning Thursday, the big, new William Fox film version of Mark Twain's funniest book, "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court."

As readers of Mark Twain will realize, this book offers wonderful scope to a motion picture director, and it is surprising that no producer until now has undertaken to put it on the screen. The Fox production is on a huge scale, bringing out the full force of all the situations invented by Mark Twain's fertile imagination, and translating for the eye all the splendor of medieval court life that Twain had described in words.

It aroused the greatest enthusiasm at a pre-release run in Los Angeles. "A Connecticut Yankee" is more than funny; it conveys an argument of striking force. It sets out to prove the thesis that we are as good as our great-grandfathers. It is the fashion nowadays to talk of the "good old times"; Mark Twain shows us just what the "good old times" really were like. "A Connecticut Yankee" is an amazingly masterful piece of work. It puts a modern, shrewd, up-to-date American against a background of medieval chivalry and the humor is the result of the sharp contrast.

CHINESE FIGHT FEDERAL TROOPS

(By Associated Press) MEXICO CITY, July 12.—Chinese settlers in the state of Sonora have been engaging in a summary warfare for several months and are serious in the situation they have created that a petition has been sent the federal government to order the immediate expulsion of the leaders of the two principal Sino-Chinese factions.

The Chinese National League in Sonora has been at odds for several years with the members of Chinese Free Masonry in that state and numerous murders and other crimes are charged to the activities of these two organizations. State officials believe that a wholesale deportation of agitators will clear the atmosphere.

(By Associated Press) TOKYO, July 12.—The department of commerce has issued a thorough investigation of the operations of Japanese life insurance companies many of which have sprung up in Japan since the new laws made it impossible for foreign companies to do business here. It is reported that a number of these Japanese companies per cent have without assets and that when claims are made they find some way of getting out of paying the bene- ficiaries.

(By Associated Press) GERMANY TO PAY. PARIS, July 12.—Germany will pay $2,000,000 of $5,000,000 gold marks due next Saturday, the reparations commission decided. The balance is to be paid in five and one-half months.

THINK OF IT

In time the oil gums, produces friction and wears the delicate bearings, destroying their high finish and perfect fit, thus ruining an accurate timepiece. An ordinary machine is oiled daily. Your watch should be oiled once a year. Let us examine it. An honest opinion from us will cost you nothing.
