were due to larceny, trouble with the Chinese element, slackers, forgers and a few murder cases. The cases today consist mostly of larceny and handling or manufacture of illicit liquor.

SEWER SURVEY IS COMPLETED

City Manager O. A. Kratz, announced this morning that a survey has been made of the sewerage system in La Grande and that all people who live within 175 feet of the system who are not taking advantage of it are being notified to connect with the sewer. Those who have not started construction within 30 days will be prosecuted. A survey will also be made of the wooden sidewalks in the city limits and those that are found in a dangerous condition must be replaced by cement sidewalks or repaired.
