

THE OLD HOME TOWN

—By Stanley

Local News In Brief

Visiting in La Grande— Mrs. Marie Starnes, of Postoria, Ohio, is visiting at the home of her son W. H. Starnes, for some time.

Here Yesterday— Will H. Clark, connected with the La Grande Impement company, spent yesterday in Summerville on business.

California lady— Mrs. M. J. Travis, who makes her home in Sacramento, California, arrived in La Grande last evening and will be here for some time at the home of Irene Hughes.

Drop in on Friends— Richard Otis, of La Grande, left last evening for home, where he will visit with friends a few days before returning to his home.

Back Home— Mr. V. P. Robertson, of Perry, who has been spending a few days in La Grande on business and pleasure, returned to Perry last evening on No. 23.

Here for Few Days— Mrs. Emma Brown, of Portland, arrived in La Grande yesterday and will be here over the week end visiting with friends.

Expected Back Tomorrow— Mrs. A. E. Ivaboo, who has been visiting in Elgin for the past few days, is expected to return to La Grande Sunday evening.

Back from Hot Lake— Mrs. Elizabeth Bucketta, who has been at Hot Lake for some time, returned to her home recently much improved in health.

Terminates Visit— Mr. and Mrs. George Abegg, of Portland, returned to their home in the city this morning after spending a few days in La Grande at the home of friends.

Firmman Leaves— Mr. C. W. Hixon, a firmman on the C. W. left this morning on No. 17 bound for Pendleton, where he will spend a couple of days attending to some business matters.

Returns from Pendleton— Mrs. Winkler, manager of the Mitey Plaster Shop, returned this morning from Pendleton, where he spent yesterday on business.

Looking After Business— Ralph Butler, is spending the day in the city looking after business interests. Mr. Butler is a ranch owner in the Lada Canyon district.

To See Sister— Mrs. Myrtle Riddle, left last evening on No. 23 for Portland, where she will spend a few days visiting with friends before returning to her home in La Grande.

Terminates Visit— Mrs. C. S. Anderson, returned to her home in Portland last evening after being in La Grande a few days on a trip to the home of her mother, Mrs. B. M. Rogers.

State Aid Man— Dr. Trencher, Jr., superintendent of the Boys and Girls Aid Society of Portland, lives in La Grande yesterday and spent a short time here attending to some business matters.

Visited Here— Mrs. J. A. Spain and daughter, Helen, of Hot Lake, spent yesterday in La Grande, returning to their home in the evening.

Visit in Portland— Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Atkins of La Grande are guests at the Seward while in the city for a few days.— Oregon Journal.

Spends Day on Ranch— Henry Hill returned last evening from his ranch at North Powder, where he spent the day making several improvements about the place.

Leaves on Vacation— Fred Peterson and wife, who are employed at the O. W. office, left last evening for Butte, Montana, to spend their vacation with relatives and friends.

Wallowa Duo— John Landers and Edgar Conner, residents of Wallowa, spent today in La Grande attending to some business matters. They are stopping at the Sago.

Returned to Baker— Mrs. Esther Anderson, a resident of Baker, returned to her home last evening on No. 18 after spending the day in La Grande visiting with friends.

Inspector— A. E. King, a federal engine inspector, was in La Grande yesterday. He was not on a tour of inspection however, but was on his way east to take a much needed vacation.

Will Fish— Jas. B. Brokaw of the E. O. L. and P. Co. and party, composed of James Bug, Charles Runyan, Charles Dargert and Roll Baker, will leave this evening, to spend a few days fishing on the Wallowa river.

Enterprise Man Here— Robert J. Bruck, a well known resident of Enterprise, arrived in La Grande last evening on the branch line train and is here today on business. Mr. Bruck is stopping at the Foley hotel.

Goes to Portland— Fred Kiddis, of Island City, left last evening on No. 23 bound for Portland, where he will be for a few days attending to some business matters and visiting with friends in the Rose City.

Elgin Lady— Mrs. Florence Elliott, of Elgin, arrived in La Grande last evening on the branch line train and is spending a few days here on a shopping tour and attending to some other business matters. She is a guest of the Foley hotel.

Returns to Portland— C. H. Williams, who has been in this section of the state on a business tour, returned to his home this morning, stating that business conditions in this part of the state was much better than other parts.

Motored to Wallowa Lake— Mr. and Mrs. George Cochran and children motored to Wallowa Lake this morning, where they will spend the week end. The object of their trip was both business and pleasure.

Returned from Visit— Mr. and Mrs. George Carpy, returned to La Grande this morning on No. 24 after spending several days in Spokane, Wash. visiting with their son, Kenneth Carpy and wife.

Back to Washington— Mr. H. F. Cook, who has been visiting in La Grande for several days at the home of his daughter, Mrs. G. W. Hamell, left last evening for her home in Spokane, Washington.

En Route to Portland— Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Hollenberg of Enterprise, arrived in La Grande last evening on the branch line train and left on No. 23 bound for Portland, where they will spend some time before returning to their home in Wallowa county.

Back to Sampo— Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hollenberg of Sampo, spent last evening in La Grande on their way home from Portland, where they have been on a business trip. They left La Grande on No. 21.

Leaves for Portland— Mrs. W. H. Hollenberg and Mrs. Floyd Hurras and son, Howard, who make their home in Sampo, Oregon, are visiting with relatives in La Grande, left this morning on No. 23 bound for Portland, where they will be for a few days.

Going Home— C. H. Byers and wife, of York, Penna., are spending a few days here at the home of their son, R. E. Byers. Mrs. Byers will accompany her mother and father to Wallowa lake Sunday, showing them some of the scenic beauties of Oregon.

Meeting Postponed— The meeting of the Grande Ronde Charbonnages board which was scheduled for Friday evening, has been postponed to 1:30 Monday evening. Chairman of soliciting committees are especially urged to be present.

Visited in Cherry City— Mrs. P. F. Walgreen returned to her home in Pendleton last evening on No. 23 after visiting at the home of Albert Baker of Cove. She arrived in La Grande yesterday afternoon and spent a few hours here before returning to her home.

Arrives this Evening— Mrs. Dexter Melroy, who has been visiting with her brother-in-law, T. H. Melroy at Milton for the past few days, returned to La Grande last evening. She reports a very pleasant visit.

Goes to Wallowa— Miss Pearl Rupp and Mrs. Joe Rounsavell, both residents of Wallowa, returned to their home this morning on the branch line train. They have been visiting in La Grande for some time with friends.

Still in Hospital— James Fisher, who was seriously injured in the wreck near Vincent Wednesday night, is still in the hospital here. His condition is reported as satisfactory. The other victims of the wreck have been sent to their homes.

Little Tot Leaves— Little Miss Lucille Garrison, who has been visiting in La Grande for a few days at the home of R. M. Healey, left last evening for Baker, where she will be with her grandmother, Mrs. G. W. Connor, for a few days.

Local Girls to Elgin— Misses Ruby Day and Edna Graham, of La Grande, left this morning on the branch line train to spend a few days in Elgin, before returning to their home. They will visit with friends and relatives.

Doggy, Be covering— Mr. Earl Carpenter, who has been ill with diphtheria, is rapidly recovering. His little son, Earl, Jr., arrived June 2 in the city and is now at the home of Mrs. D. B. Reed, who is visiting here to spend the week end.

Moves Today— Mr. and Mrs. George H. Henry, moved into their new home, which was only completed a few days ago today, and are now located at 234 1/2 North Main. The new home has been built by Mr. Henry with the aid of the soldiers fund, the contribution amounting to about $3500.

Receives letter— Mr. Smider, now in charge of the Shannon Harrow shop, received a letter from Mrs. Shannon, who is now in Portland, just stating that she was very sorry that her remembrance sister in some respects.

A Fine Ten Acre Tract Sold— Joseph L. Smith has bought from Henry L. Stein one of the best ten acre tracts in Fruitdale, just across the road from the county poor farm. Mr. Stein will leave for California some time this fall. The tract was owned by E. N. Ford of the Pyramid Land company.

Sage Hen Season Opens— The open season on sage hens in Union county began this morning and it is found many a hunter out in the open attempting to get his limit. The season will close on July 13, and will last only 10 days, instead of 15 as was the case last year. It opened two weeks later in 1921.

Committee Meeting— Committee chairman who are directing the affairs of the Home convention to be held here September 1st and 2nd, have been called to meet at the Sommer house at 1 o'clock Tuesday noon at which time many important matters pertaining to the convention will come up.

Ladies from Portland— Mrs. E. W. Boyce and Mrs. A. Bukowski, both residents of Portland, arrived in La Grande last evening on No. 18 and after spending the evening here left this morning on the branch line train bound for Wallowa, where they will be for some time visiting with friends and relatives.

Carl Evans, Jr. Arrives— Word was received here this morning of the arrival of a baby boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Evans in Portland. The young man made his appearance early today and has been named Carl Cunningham Evans, Jr. Mrs. Evans will be numbered here as Mrs. Ruth Evans Hill.

In Upper Country— Misses Rex and Lucille Hackett of Leman, West Virginia, returned to their home last evening on No. 23. They will go by way of the Canadian Rockies, but had to expect to find many of a much higher quality at the same time as they found a country where they stayed a few days. The area of Wallowa for several weeks.

Went to school with him— Yesterday Rev. Mr. C. G. of the Episcopal church, had the pleasure of seeing Tasaku Harada, 27, of Japan, who was going through La Grande and had stayed at the hotel. The young man is attending college in Seattle and the meeting was a very pleasant one for the old and new acquaintances.

Food Inspector Left— L. L. Leach, federal food inspector, left last evening after spending a couple of days in town inspecting the conditions in the local market. Conditions are very satisfactory, although some cases were found that require attention. He will be in Pendleton for a few hours on his way to Portland.

Red Cross Busy— The report of the Red Cross for the past month was typed in this morning by Mrs. Fay Caffin, secretary. The report states that 131 families were helped after 21,223 was expended for relief. 72 fruits were made. 126 telephone calls were made. 16 outgoing telegrams were received. 215 letters were sent out and 275 office consultations were held.

Services at Park— The Ministerial Union of La Grande will designate a pastor to take charge of the services at the park a week from Sunday. This is being done to provide religious services at 11 o'clock for those who are engaged on the grounds and those who might care to attend.

Have You Bought That Summer Dress?

Don't delay if you want to take advantage of our Clearance Sale of Sport Suits and Summer Dresses. They are truly wonderful bargains.

FRENCH & GREENE

Ready to Wear and Made

OLD TIME DANCE Every Thursday Night Zuber Hall P. J. Powers

MUST SWEAR TO TELL THE TRUTH

Inspection of the Department of Justice, Washington, D. C., July 15.— Japanese "picture brides" arriving in Honolulu hereafter must swear to the truth of their engagements to their fiances before they will be permitted to land. It has been announced by H. I. Hales, inspector of immigration, that the picture brides must swear to the truth of their engagements to their fiances before they will be permitted to land. It has been announced by H. I. Hales, inspector of immigration, that the picture brides must swear to the truth of their engagements to their fiances before they will be permitted to land. It has been announced by H. I. Hales, inspector of immigration, that the picture brides must swear to the truth of their engagements to their fiances before they will be permitted to land.

TAXI CALL MAIN 44

Ford & George MAIN 44

A.R.C.A.D.E SUNDAY ONLY

Try the Matinee VAUDEVILLE

FITZROY GIRLS Novelty Entertainers. COOPER & VALLI in 'Big Sing Song'. ALBINO & GAZEL in 'Summer to Winter'. Bill and Estelle Carr in Musical Oddity.

ALSO FEATURE PICTURE 'THE HUNTING OF THE HAWK' A Pleasing Mystery Story TONIGHT—LAST TIME A CONNECTICUT YANKEE

CARR'S

For Credit No Interest

HOT WEATHER SUITS and Clothes GABARDINE SUITS, TWEED SUITS AND OLIVE DRAB SERGE SUITS WHITE TROUSERS FOXGEE SILK SHIRTS, CREPE DE CHINE SILK SHIRTS STRAW HATS AND OXFORDS The Clothes that Keep You Cool. SPECIAL—KNIT TIES See Our Window Display. Jantzen Swimming Suits for the Whole Family. CLINT'S CLOTHIERY The Store With a Conscience

COUGAR AFRAID OF A SHERIFF

VANCOUVER, Wash., July 15.—A special investigation here today has long ago which a cougar will deliberately attack a human being. The weight of opinion is in favor of the contention that the wild animal will run from a man unless it is cornered and forced to fight. Sheriff W. A. Thompson of Clark county, however, who knows the majority of hunters are wrong. The sheriff while walking down the trail near Lake Merrill recently met a cougar forty feet away. The animal at once crouched toward the sheriff and prepared to leap upon him. An actual attack was only prevented by a shot from the sheriff's pistol. The cougar weighed 80 pounds and was 5 feet 10 inches long. He was very thin and it is believed lack of food led him to attack the man.

MARRIED MEN IN BIG DEMAND

WASHINGTON, July 15.—If you want a job on a farm your chances are getting slightly better than you expect if you are married, and