More and more of the members of the upper set in La Grande are entertaining at the Country Club, dinners and luncheons following each other in rapid succession. Mrs. Burbridge, the hostess, announces that she commenced serving last Wednesday and since then over 150 have been at the Country Club, which is rated as one of the most beautiful structures in this section of the state.

Mrs. R. J. Green was hostess to 24 ladies on Friday evening, a delicious luncheon being served with the remainder of the evening devoted to social entertainment.

Charles Reynolds entertained nine prominent citizens of La Grande the latter part of the week, a very pleasant evening being spent.

And on Sunday thirty people, forming different parties, were seated. A. T. Hill and a party of ten composed one section, Chase Bohnenkamp and a number of friends formed another party, and Mr. and Mrs. Hal Bohnenkamp, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reuter, Dr. and Mrs. Ray Murphy and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Dixon completed a party of eight. Mrs. Burbridge expects the summer social season at the Country Club to be one of much activity.

A birthday party of interest was given in honor of Martin V. Bradshaw's 80th birthday. Mr. Bradshaw lives on the corner of Cove Avenue and Portland street with Mrs. Bradshaw and is a member of the G. A. R. He enlisted in the service of the United States in 1862, in Co. H, 30th Infantry, Iowa Volunteers, and served until the close of the Civil War.

The Bradshaw home was decorated with sweet peas, roses, petunias and chrysanthemums for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw have been married 56 years and have seven children living, 27 grandchildren and 36 great-grandchildren.

Those present to make the occasion a pleasant one were: Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Bradshaw and children of Sumner, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bradshaw, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Bradshaw and son Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gooderhouse and son, Wayne.

The afternoon was spent in visiting and picture-taking, after which a delicious two-course luncheon was served. The guests departed wishing Grandpa Bradshaw many more birthdays.

The Episcopal parish picnic, held at the city park yesterday afternoon, proved to be a decided success, all uniting in having a good old fashioned good time. About one hundred were present, arriving on the scene between one and two o'clock, being driven out to the park by autos.

The afternoon was spent pleasantly in social conversation and the younger members took advantage of the swimming facilities. Preceding the supper a program of races was held for the youngsters, appropriate prizes being presented to the winners. All told, the youngsters enjoyed such a day as is read about.

At the close of the afternoon the entire assemblage gathered about one big table and were treated to a wonderful dinner. The menu was too large to attempt to enumerate but it contained practically every kind of salad, deserts, sandwiches, hot and cold drinks. Following the supper, which was the scene of an impromptu program and informal speeches, the party returned home.

Those in charge of the picnic may be congratulated on their able management and all who were there are eagerly looking forward to the next picnic to be held.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Price and their daughters, Hazel Mary, and Betty, returned to their home in Portland early this week, accompanied by Miss Hannah Lewis, also of Portland. They have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Hill, the latter being Mr. Price's sister. Mr. Price is prominent in business circles, being vice-president of the Northwestern National Bank of Portland and also administrator of the Pittock estate.

While in La Grande the party attended many social affairs and they all expressed sorrow at leaving, stating that they liked the people of La Grande and the town very much, classing it as an ideal place in which to make one's home.

The Epworth League was entertained at the home of Lotis Pierson Friday evening, about forty members being present. The home was delightfully arranged for the occasion with Miss Pierson, Miss Fern Wells and Messrs. Sheldon Brownson and Everett Bennett acting as hosts and hostesses, representing the fourth department of the Epworth League.

The evening was pleasantly spent playing games, the social hour being followed by the serving of some delicious ice cream and cake, after which the party reluctantly took their departure unanimously proclaiming the evening very well spent.

The Eastern Star Social Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. O. L. Price yesterday afternoon in the final meeting of the season. The next meeting will be held early in September.

Quite a number was present, the majority of them spending the afternoon at cards, with Mrs. Peter McDonald emerging with high honors. Following the cards a delicious luncheon which was served, ending to a very pleasant meeting.

A large crowd gathered Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Henderson's home near Alice and enjoyed a picnic dinner that was given in honor of Mrs. W. E. Vaughn, who are taking their departure for their home in West Grove, Oregon, soon.

The table was laid under the large shady willow trees and a banquet was in store for those present. After the dinner music and social conversation was enjoyed until evening.

Mrs. Vaughn was formerly Miss Lilian McDonald and is well and favorably known here.

Ray H. Snider and Miss Marian Fay Bellus were united in marriage Monday evening at the Methodist parsonage by Rev. George H. Quigley. Mr. Snider is an employe of the O. W. and his bride is a resident of Union, where she was prominent socially. Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Bellus, father and mother of the bride, were present at the wedding along with several friends.
