THEATRES

AT SHERRY'S, TODAY AND TOMORROW, "THE GLORIOUS FOOL"

A delightful Goldwyn comedy from the pen of Mary Roberts Rinehart, "The Glorious Fool," will be presented at the Sherry Theatre for two days, beginning today. The story takes place in a hospital. The hero, a sympathetic Probationer who insists upon marrying his nurse and leaving all his wealth to her. But he doesn't die. Upon his recovery, he assigns himself the arduous task of working his wife. Given Richard Dix as the man who does the wooing and Helene Chadwick as the girl who is wooed, one may expect a delightful combination of comedy and pathos. Both Miss Chadwick and Mr. Dix have appeared together in a number of pictures and each understands the other's method of acting so well that their scenes which are one of the most perfect things leading players of the screen.

Another player of distinction, in "The Girl from Porcupine," which comes to the Star Theatre Friday, Saturday and Sunday, will be seen one of the most remarkable animal actors ever appearing on the screen. This dog, Lassie by name, is said by Mr. Henderson, who directed the picture, to be the most intelligent animal he has ever encountered in his years of picture making.

Also showing "Miracle of the Juggles," only one more episode, don't miss them.

LASSIE IS A WONDERFUL CANINE ACTRESS

In "The Girl from Porcupine," which comes to the Star Theatre Friday, Saturday and Sunday, will be seen one of the most remarkable animal actors ever appearing on the screen.

This dog, Lassie by name, is said by Mr. Henderson, who directed the picture, to be the most intelligent animal he has ever encountered in his years of picture making.

In the scenes of this picture, which were written by the eminent author, James Oliver Curwood, the action calls for a dog mourning over the death of her master and so intelligently did Lassie play her part that it would seem she must be imbued with human intelligence.

We have all seen the dog lying on the grave, but to see a dog go out into the fields and sniff in her mouth a bunch of wild flowers and carry them back and place them on the grave; then, kneeling with her feet on the head stone, raising her head against the simple slab, and with actual tears in her eyes, is something that in the knowledge of the writer of this article, has never before been seen in pictures.

FINE CAST CHOSEN FOR "LADIES MUST LIVE"

Practically an all star cast was chosen by George Loane Tucker for "Ladies Must Live," a superb production which proved to be Mr. Tucker's final achievement. Betty Compson, now a Paramount star, is the featured player in the production which will be shown at the Arcade theatre Friday and Saturday.

Besides Miss Compson, the cast includes such well known screen favorites as Beatrice Joy, Lucille Hutton, Marena Alanson, Lule Warrenton, Cleo Madison, Robert Ellis, Mahlon Hamilton, Jack Gilbert, Saitz Edwards, Arnold Greig, Jack McDonald, William Moore and Gibson Gowland.

"Ladies Must Live" is presented by Mayflower as a Paramount special. The story is adapted from Alice Duer Miller's novel which appeared originally in serial form in the Saturday Evening Post. The theme centers around one of the most widely discussed problems of the day and vitally concerns every American woman.

Betty Compson has a part in "Ladies Must Live" equally prominent with that played by her in "The Miracle Man." Robert Ellis is leading man.
