THEATRES

"SOUTH OF SEVA" IS A VIVID SOUTH SEA DRAMA

"South of Seva," the latest release of Mary Miles Minter, now showing at the Arcas Theatre, concerns a bride who comes to the South Seas to join her husband only to find that he has fallen under baneful tropic influences.

Before the girl works her way out to happiness there are some extremely gripping scenes, which include a native attack on a lagoon, their dispersal by dynamite, a real Fiji Island cannibalistic dance—all worked cleverly into the warp and woof of a most colorful story.

The accuracy of the picture is guaranteed by its author, who spent five years in the South Seas as the assistant manager of a 12,000 acre coconut plantation.

"THE LITTLE MINISTER," LAST DAY AT SHERRYS Betty Compton, the new Paramount star, was seen to fine advantage in "The Little Minister," a splendid Paramount picture produced by Penrhyn Stanlaws, on its first presentation at the Sherry Theatre last night.

Miss Compton was ably supported by George Hackathorne as Gavin, the little minister and Nigel Barrie a spite haterial Captain Halliwell. The entire cast indeed was beyond criticism and the settings showing the Thurns village, the manse, kirk and so on, were admirably executed.

Much credit is due the producer, Penrhyn Stanlaws, for a well sustained and artfully presented screen version of this famous story.

Also showing a two reel comedy.

FREE ADMISSION TO THE GARDENS. The Gardens has announced that strikers will be admitted free, the members of the striking shopcrafts being asked to present their cards at the gate. Manager Davis invites all members of the crafts to accept his offer.

SEES BUT TWO DRUNKS ON TOUR NEW YORK, July 24.—Dr. Robert Herrod of Switzerland, director of the International Temperance bureau, who has been in the United States investigating conditions under the prohibition law saw only two "drunks" during a tour of the nation, he declares yesterday, before sailing for home.

One of these was in New York and the other in Butte, Mont.

Dr. Herrod, who will report to the governments of Norway, Sweden, Finland, Denmark, Jugoslavia, Bulgaria and other countries, declared that on the whole he had found social and street life in America "a hundred times cleaner and more decent than in Europe."

"I leave the United States," he concluded, "with the renewed impression that America has taken the leadership in prohibition as in other fields."

GANDHI DAY IS BEING OBSERVED

(By Associated Press.) CALCUTTA, July 24.—The working committee of the Indian National Congress has asked Indian nationalists to continue to observe the 18th day of each month as "Gandhi Day," as they have done for the past two months.

It was on March 18th that Gandhi was convicted of sedition and sentenced to imprisonment. On April 18 and again on May 18, nationalists in all part of India suspended business to take part in political demonstrations. Henceforth, these are to be held regularly each month.

In a public address on "The Great Souled Gandhi," delivered on the last Gandhi Day, T. L. Vaswani said: "History will salute him as a prophet of freedom, an idealist of action, a political mystic."

At the height of his history, the bureaucracy stands impeached for having jalled this patriot of humanity.

"One is easily impressed with Mahatma Gandhi's ascetic life and his democratic social gospel. He is a lover of the poor. I hold that Swaraj will arrive in the day we lift the ban which has rested upon millions of Indians."

I called Gandhi an ascetic, in his heart, burst a flame. How many sleepless hours has he not spent thinking of the deep tragedy of India? The tragedy of a nation once mighty, now in poverty and political subjection, has entered as iron into his soul.

There is a sadness in his beautiful smile. As he went from place to place preaching his gospel, I thought of "The Man with a Lantern" in the story. The man went from place to place, lighting up dark corners, and saying to everyone, "Art thou?" And as they heard his voice, one by one, they answered, "I am here" and, one by one, they rose to follow the light.

As Mahatma moved from place to place, many "paths" from their wear and indifference had followed the light. It is no wonder thousands have gone to jail in willing obedience to his call and his message.

"In the day we have, in our hearts the humility and love which may make us true brothers of the poor—in that day may India achieve her freedom. The coming religion is worship of the poor. Mahatma Gandhi is a witness to that religion; therefore God has given him the great leadership of the people. The very prison which holds his feeble body is to many today a temple."
