MOUNTAINEERS GIVEN PRAISE

LONDON, July 27.—"Mountaineering proper is not necessarily rashness, but is entirely a question of prudence and of courage, of strength nature and her most hidden beauties, which are often awe-inspiring, but for that reason the more sublime and to a contemplative spirit the more suggestive."

Sir Francis Younghusband, speaking before the Royal Geographical Society on the Mount Everest expedition, used the foregoing words to express the sentiment which has animated all those connected with the expedition, and then said they were written 33 years ago by a certain father Ratti, who has now become Pope Pius XI.

After describing what the expedition had accomplished Sir Francis said: "The experience gained this year shows that skilled mountaineers are able to take those unskilled in high mountain craft to the highest altitudes. Geoffrey Bruce had never climbed a snow and ice mountain before. Yet under Finch's skilled leadership he was able to attain a height of 27,300 feet. And the Sherpa porters though they were practically untrained to snow and ice work, were able, under General Bruce's stimulating influence to carry loads up to 25,500 feet, some of them making the journey four times and so earning the unstinted praise of the best mountaineers.

"By careful organization and combination of effort, using experience to guide inexperience, and by the display of indomitable pluck on the part of the highest climbers, the expedition has at a bound brought the record up from 24,600 feet to 27,000 feet and thus left only 1,700 feet to be climbed before the crowning summit is reached.

"The standard of human achievement has thereby been sensibly raised. And many another traveller and many another struggler upward in every walk of life and in every country will be braced and heartened in remembering what Finch and Mallory, Somervell, Norton and Bruce have this year accomplished on Mount Everest. And this, to my mind, is incomparably the most valuable result of the expedition, and a result which makes their efforts in the highest degree worth while."

BUDGET SYSTEM IS SUCCESSFUL

PENDLETON, July 27.—Umatilla county during the first half of its fiscal year, has lived within its budget, according to the semi-annual report of the county clerk, presented to the county court Saturday.

The county's entire budget calls for the expenditure of $592,132.40, and of this, $275,988.54 has been spent.

Roads, including the payment of interest and bonds, have eaten up the larger part of the money paid out thus far. The total charged up to that department aggregates $204,261.27.

Taxes during the first half of the year have been supplemented by $2597.25 in fines, $25,136.57 from scalp bounties and auto licenses, $6436.56 in fees and an additional amount from miscellaneous sources, making up a total of $48,564.18.

Pribiloff Seals to Yield a Large Sum

Thirty thousand fur seal skins valued at $1,500,000 is the kill planned by the government this year in the Pribilof Islands field.

The annual yield from the government harvest of fur seal is one of the important returns of the United States treasury from the territory of Alaska.

The government in 1911 entered actively into the fur seal business on the Pribilof Islands. At that time the herd on these islands was estimated to be about 210,000 animals. The present herd is said to contain 750,000 seals despite the fact that 115,000 have been taken and sold during this period. This herd now has an estimated capital value of $40,000,000.

Until the year 1915 the pelts taken by the government were sold raw on the London market and the United States never realized more than an average of $5 a skin. In 1915 the market of skins was moved from London to the United States and since that time the skins have been sold dressed on the St. Louis market and the net return to the United States government has averaged $50 a skin.

This year twelve highly trained men have been sent to the islands to take proper care of the skins before shipment to the states.

SAFE GAS TANK IS INVENTED

WASHINGTON, July 27.—Scientists at the nation's capital are greatly interested in reports of new devices which reach from the highest altitude of the air to the lowest depths of the ocean. From England comes report of a "crash-proof gasoline tank," which is so constructed that no matter what stresses are applied to it in and airplane descent it will not burst. Many accidents to planes in rough landings result in fatalities, due to fire, because the gasoline tank breaks with the crash and the burning fluid is spattered over the aviator and passengers. The new tank has been carefully tested, and promises immunity from fire after a rough landing.

The United States Air Service has just tested a "fool proof" airplane which can not be made to go into a tail spin. The best military aviators attempted in every known way to make the plane go into a tail spin, which at anything less than a great height is the most dangerous antic an airplane can perform, but without avail.

An American scientist, Dr. Harvey C. Hayes, of the experimental station at Annapolis, has perfected a device for deep-sea sounding, which has been tried out successfully by the navy. The instrument measures depths, not by a material wire or rope, but by reflected sound. In addition to its importance as a discoverer of further secrets of the ocean deeps, it is claimed that this instrument will make possible the mapping of deep sea "tank marks," by means of which ships in a fog or storm will be able to locate themselves without the aid of latitude and longitude observation of heavenly bodies.

Mexican Is Suicide; Killed Under Train

PENDLETON, July 27.—A man who several days ago gave his name to Sheriff Zoeth Houser as E. Gumos, apparently a Mexican, was killed last night about 9:45 in front of the O. W. R. & N. company depot when he was cut in two by a car which was being switched in the local yard. It is believed that he committed suicide.

Railroad men who found the body declared that Gumos crossed in front of the switch engine once and deliberately threw himself under the wheels. They do not believe that he was attempting to steal a ride.

Defendants.

NO. E-8619.

RESTRAINING ORDER.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, to each of the above named defendants, respectively, and to all other persons members of the aforesaid Federated Shop Crafts, or otherwise affiliated, combining, conspring, agreeing or arranging with them:

WHEREAS, it has been made to appear on the verified Bill of Complaint filed on the 25th day of July, 1922, presented to the Honorable Charles E. Wolverton, Judge of the United States District Court for the District of Oregon, that a restraining order, preliminary to hearing upon a preliminary injunction, is necessary and proper, and that prima facie the plaintiff is entitled to such order restraining the defendants herein and all those affiliated, confederating, combining and conspiring with them and each of them from doing the acts complained of and threatened to be committed.

AND IT APPEARING TO THE COURT that the injuries threatened are great loss and destruction to plaintiff's property, wrongful and unlawful interruption of and interference with the conduct of plaintiff's business as a common carrier and carrier of the United States mails, preventing the plaintiff from performing its duties under the Act to Regulate Commerce, the Transportation Act of 1920 and other acts of Congress applicable to railroad companies, and threatened intimidation of and personal injury to plaintiff's employes and those desiring to enter its employment.

AND IT FURTHER APPEARING TO THE COURT that immediate and irreparable injury, loss and damage will result to plaintiff before notice can be served and hearing had thereon for the reason that it appears that acts of violence have occurred and are being threatened by the above named defendants and other persons combining, conspiring and arranging with them, and that such persons have congregated in large and threatening groups about plaintiff's premises, its line of railroad, depots, platforms, yards, shops and other premises at Albina, Portland, The Dalles, Umatilla, Rieth, La Grande, and Huntington, and have threatened the employes of plaintiff in various ways, so that such employes are being hindered, molested, intimidated and prevented from performing their regular work in connection with the maintenance and repair of plaintiff's motive power and equipment, so that there is imminent and immediate danger that the train service of the plaintiff will be further interfered with, delayed and interrupted.

AND IT FURTHER APPEARING TO THE COURT that said injuries will be irreparable, for the reason that the defendants and each of them are impecunious and financially irresponsible and that adequate judgments for damages could not be collected from them and that the acts complained of are so numerous and committed at such various places and circumstances that many of the persons and individuals guilty thereof cannot be apprehended, and that said wrongful acts are of such a character that compensation in damages cannot be made, and that other acts will be committed before hearing unless a restraining order pending said hearing is issued immediately.

Now, THEREFORE, in consideration thereof and of the particular matters in said Bill of Complaint set forth and on motion of plaintiff, IT IS ORDERED that the defendants, and each of them, appear before the District Court of the United States for the District of Oregon at a session to be held in the City of Portland in said District on Monday, the 31st day of July, 1922, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, and there show cause, if any there be, why the preliminary injunction prayed for in said Bill of Complaint should not issue; and it appearing to the Court that there is danger of immediate and irreparable injury being caused to plaintiff before the hearing of said application for a preliminary injunction can be heard unless said defendants are, pending such hearing, restrained, as hereinafter set forth, and said plaintiff's application for such restraining order having been granted by the Court in the penal sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5000.00) securing the defendants against all loss or damage which may result from the issuance of said restraining order should be finally determined that the same was improperly issued or that may be awarded to them by reason of the granting of said order.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, in consideration hereof and of the particular matters in said Bill of Complaint set forth, that the above named defendants, and each of them, and all other persons in active concert, combination or participation with them, and all other persons, associated or acting with or members of the above named Federated Shop Crafts, to-wit: International Association of Machinists, International Brotherhood of Boilermakers, Iron Ship Builders and Helpers of America, International Brotherhood of Blacksmiths, Drop Forgers and Helpers, Amalgamated Sheet Metal Workers' International Alliance, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Brotherhood Railway Carmen of America, International Brotherhood of Firemen and Oilers, and all other persons who are within the District of Oregon having notice of this order, pending the further order of this court, shall absolutely desist, cease, and refrain from in any manner [illegible]

AND IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that each single representative of the defendants is hereby enjoined from making communications to persons entering or leaving the property of plaintiff [illegible]

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this order shall be served by delivering a copy thereof, at the earliest convenience of the United States Marshal, to the defendants, D. F. PHELAN, FRED ROSS and CHARLES E. KNIGHT, and upon the remaining defendants as soon as may be, and to all other unknown and unnamed persons alleged to act in concert, combination and conspiracy with said defendants, said order shall be and become effective upon notice of its publication in The Morning Oregonian, the Evening Telegram, the Evening Journal and the Daily News, each being a daily newspaper printed and published at Portland, Oregon, and the Evening Observer, a daily newspaper printed and published at La Grande, Oregon, in said district, for two (2) consecutive issues thereof, and by posting a copy thereof in one or more of the plaintiff's shops or round houses in said district, and the Marshal of this court is directed immediately to publish and post such copies.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that plaintiff having given a bond in the penal sum of Five Thousand ($5,000) Dollars, conditioned according to law, which bond is hereby approved; this order is hereby made immediately effective.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this order shall remain in effect until the 31st day of July, 1922, and until such further date as the court may hereafter order in the manner provided by law, of which notice must be taken.

Done in open court this 25th day of July, 1922.

Filed July 25th, 1922.

G. H. MARSH, Clerk.

CHAS. E. WOLVERTON, District Judge.

The foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of the original order made on the 25th day of July, 1922.

WITNESS my hand and official seal this 25th day of July, 1922.
