

THE OLD HOME TOWN

By Stanley

Local News In Brief

over yesterday spending a few hours in the city transacting business, returning home in the evening.

Joe Jones Ouite Ill—Joe Jones, one of La Grande's old pioneers, is in a rather grave condition, having been ill for some time at the Grande Ronde hospital.

Left for Union—John Turner, a resident of Union, returned to his home this morning after a day in La Grande on business.

Spends Day in Baker—O. H. Kincaid, of the Eastern Oregon Music company, motored to Baker this morning and will spend the day visiting with friends.

Stockman Here—Hal Rees, who makes his home in Union, but also has a large stock ranch in High valley, spent yesterday afternoon in La Grande.

Goes to Union—Mrs. John McNeely left this morning for Union, where she will spend the day visiting with her sister, Mrs. W. M. Wilkinson. She will return to La Grande tomorrow morning.

To Visit in Pendleton—Mrs. A. E. McLaughlin of La Grande, left this morning for Pendleton, where she will visit Mrs. Fred Senn the latter part of the week.

Imbler Man Was Here—"Krip" Larson, well known resident of Imbler, spent yesterday in the city transacting business that needed his attention.

Mother and Son in City—Mrs. J. J. Bauer and her son, who spent the evening in La Grande as guests of the Sommer, returned to their home in Enterprise this morning.

Union Lady—Miss Maud Bull, who makes her home at Union, spent yesterday in La Grande on a shopping tour and visiting with friends. She returned to her home this morning.

To Catherine Creek—Don Robbin and Floyd Smith left today by car, bound for Catherine creek, where they will spend the week fishing and enjoying the pleasures of camping.

To Visit Daughter—Mrs. J. W. Knowles of this city, left this morning on the branch line train for Enterprise, where she will remain for a few days, visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. G. Brown.

Was on Wrecked Train—Clinton Texter of Portland, spent a few hours in La Grande this morning en route to Denver. Mr. Texter was a passenger on No. 1 this morning but was not among the injured.

Back from Newberg—W. S. Parker returned to La Grande this morning after spending a week in Newberg, on the sad mission of attending the funeral of his father, L. S. Parker. A. F. Hill accompanied Mr. Parker back from Newberg.

Out After Huckleberries—Miss Mary Burdett and her brother, Virgil, are spending a few days on Rock creek after huckleberries. They are expected to return the latter part of the week.

Marriage License—Oscar F. Ackley and Miss Ethel E. Mason, both of La Grande, were issued a marriage license Saturday evening by the county clerk, C. E. McDonald.

Returned to Elgin—Ray Williamson and A. J. Orr, who were visitors in La Grande overnight, returned to their home in Elgin this morning. While in the city they were at the Foley.

Five Men Buying Good—Wm. Silverthorne, Ed. Mobery, Ernest Bell, Charles McNeil and Lane Bell, all employed on the Silverthorne ranch this side of Cove, were in the city yesterday afternoon making a few purchases before starting the harvest. They returned home last evening.

Go to Hood River—C. S. Russell, who has been in Elgin for some time, left this morning for Hood River, where he will spend a few hours between trains.

Charge of Assault and Battery—Mrs. Group of Wallowa, The assault occurred on July 25. Martinson paid his fine and left town.

Left for Meacham—Mrs. Ralph Byers and Mrs. Paul Pock left this morning for Meacham, where they will spend the day picking huckleberries. They will return to La Grande this evening.

Business at Corvallis—C. S. McGaughey boarded No. 17 this morning, bound for Corvallis, where he will be for a few days on business.

Swimming Classes—The interest in swimming is gradually growing in La Grande and many more are enrolling in the various classes held at the Y. M. C. A. Three classes of beginners, two meeting today and one tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, are being rapidly filled and a full schedule of classes will also meet tomorrow, composed of the grade school girls' class at 10 o'clock, and the prep, the grade school boys, the Scouts and the women at 1, 2, 3, and 4 o'clock, respectively.

her way back to her home in Hood River.

In Salt Lake City

J. D. Lynch, a coal dealer of La Grande, is in Salt Lake City this week reviewing the coal situation pertaining to arrangements for procuring an extensive fall stock of coal.

Boys Home

J. R. Davy, a brakeman on the O.-W., purchased a home at 1601 Oak street yesterday from W. A. Watkins, the sale being made by the George H. Carey Real Estate agency.

Passes Through City

Miss Mae Peterson, Wallowa county health nurse, passed through the city last evening on her way to La Crosse, Wisconsin, where she will spend the remainder of the summer with relatives.

Returns to Nampa

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McDonald of Nampa, Idaho, returned home last evening after a few weeks' visit at the home of Mrs. Sam Andrews. Mrs. McDonald was formerly Miss Ora Abbott of this city.

Nurse on Vacation

Miss Emma Muller, railroad nurse for the O.-W., left last evening for her vacation. Miss Muller went to Portland, where she will spend a few days and then go to Seattle, Tacoma and other Washington points before returning home.

Visiting in City

Miss Nell Forsythe of Union, arrived in the city last evening to spend a few days visiting. While in La Grande Miss Forsythe will be the guest of Mrs. E. W. Hackman.

North Powder Teacher in City

Miss Retta Allen, of North Powder, is in the city a few days, visiting at the home of Mrs. M. A. Adams. Miss Allen is a teacher and has been teaching for the past two years, and has accepted the North Powder school for this coming term.

Stopped in La Grande

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Banks, of Omeiga, Kansas, were visitors in La Grande at the home of her brother, John Lane, on their way to Portland. They were here for a couple of days going on to the Rose City this morning.

Prof. Snow is Home

Prof. C. C. Snow, who has taught at the local high school for the past two years, has returned from the summer school at Corvallis. Mr. Snow has toured through Washington in the last month and reports conditions up there very good.

Drives Over from Union

John Scarborough, who makes his home in Union, drove over to La Grande yesterday afternoon and spent a few hours here attending to some business matters. He returns to Union this morning.

Spending Day at Hot Lake

Mrs. Clyde Zimmerman and Mrs. Harley Smith of this city left this morning for Hot Lake, where they will visit friends during the day. The ladies will return to their home this evening.

Left for Baker

Mrs. Fannie Fisher, Cora Premo and Caroline Schlund, all passengers on the wrecked eastbound train, spent the morning in La Grande going on to Baker, where they will visit with friends. All three ladies escaped injury.

Imbler Man in City

Waide Brooks, who hails from Imbler, is stopping in La Grande for a few days and is at the Foley.

Milling Man from Wallowa

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Kiddle, of Wallowa, are in La Grande today, having arrived in the city last evening and registered at the Sommer. Mr. Kiddle is connected with the Wallowa Milling company.

Elgin Visitor

Fred DeBole, who makes his home in Elgin, was a visitor in La Grande last evening and afternoon, returning to his home this morning on the branch line train. While in the city he was a guest at the Foley hotel.

Meeting Tonight

A number of the first class Boy Scouts of La Grande will meet at the Y. M. C. A. this evening at 7 o'clock for the purpose of forming an inner council which will complete the organization prepared for the coming summer camp.

Returns from Long Trip

Jerry Tuttle and family have returned from a long motor trip through Washington and Oregon. They report a very delightful time but are glad to get back to La Grande.

Over from Summerville

John Schleppey of Summerville, was a visitor in La Grande today attending to business. Mr. Schleppey is a well known rancher of the Summerville district and reports that he will commence harvesting in a couple of days.

Back Home

G. S. Anderson and A. Hokenson, both residents of Enterprise, returned to their home this morning on the branch line train after spending the evening in La Grande on business. They were guests at the Foley during their visit.

Red Cross Report

The monthly report of the local Red Cross office was completed today and shows an increase of business this month over that of last month. The Red Cross gave services to 134 families, those services including 185 visits, 193 telephone calls, 9 outgoing telegrams, 241 outgoing letters and 265 personal calls to the office. The amount for relief expenditures amounted to $120.48.

Mrs. Robert Cotner Very Ill

Telegraphic information was received here yesterday from Robert J. Cotner of Eugene stating that his wife was very ill and her condition is considered quite serious. Mrs. Cotner was a La Grande girl and is well known to many people here.

Back to Weiser

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Evans, who have been at Wallowa Lake and Joseph for the past few days, spent last evening in La Grande, preparatory to returning to their home in Weiser. They left today, accompanied by their three children, Owen, Ruth and Catherine. "We spent a wonderful week on the shores of Wallowa Lake and there is nothing that we can say to describe the beautiful scenery—it is past description," they stated.

Fined for Striking Woman

J. S. Martinson, a guard who had been deputized to guard the O.-W. property, was fined $10 and costs this morning by Justice Arthur G. Williams when he pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and battery against Mrs. Group of Wallowa. The assault occurred on July 25. Martinson paid his fine and left town.

Left for Meacham

Mrs. Ralph Byers and Mrs. Paul Pock left this morning for Meacham, where they will spend the day picking huckleberries. They will return to La Grande this evening.

Business at Corvallis

C. S. McGaughey boarded No. 17 this morning, bound for Corvallis, where he will be for a few days on business.

Swimming Classes

The interest in swimming is gradually growing in La Grande and many more are enrolling in the various classes held at the Y. M. C. A. Three classes of beginners, two meeting today and one tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock, are being rapidly filled and a full schedule of classes will also meet tomorrow, composed of the grade school girls' class at 10 o'clock, and the prep, the grade school boys, the Scouts and the women at 1, 2, 3, and 4 o'clock, respectively.

For Sale

5 room modern home, basement, lawn, trees, fireplace, heating plant, garage, one-acre tract with good barn, chicken house and fruit trees. This place is just six blocks from the postoffice. Price $4500. Terms $1000 cash, balance on easy payments.

7 room house, modern, good barn and woodshed, 4 lots. Price $2500.

6 room modern bungalow, cement sidewalk, basement. This is a well built home and the price is right at $3000.

5 room modern home, good location, large lot 50x104. Price $3300.

I have several modern homes on paved streets from 4 to 10 rooms.

Geo. H. Currey
Real Estate Insurance

New Wool Slip-on Sweaters

Just received in all the wanted shades such as jockey red, Harding blue, tomato, henna jade, etc. Just the thing for now.

Priced at $3.25 and $3.75

FRENCH & GREENE

Ready-to-Wear and Shoes

For Sale or Trade

Established Tire and Vulcanizing Business

Phone 369-W or write P. O. Box 228

P. J. Powers

TOURING

Why not be comfortable? Use Stoll equipment. See our window.

W. H. Bohnenkamp Co.

A.R.C.A.D.E

TODAY AND THURSDAY

Elaine Hammerstein

(The Girl without a Failure.)

in

"EVIDENCE"

A Good Story, Well Acted and Equipped with a "Surprise Finish."

ALSO SHOWING A COMEDY

CARR'S

For Credit - No Interest

Only a Few Days More

OF OUR

Forced Out Removal Sale

ASH BROS.

"Place the faith with the people."

Dance

Wednesday Night

Rex Hall

Admission 75c

Loney's Novelty Orchestra

Tom Sawyer

"WASH WEAR" SUITS

For Little Boys

Age 3 years to 8 years

at

25% off

To clean up our Line

See Windows

We have Agency for

XTRAGOOD SUITS

For Boys

Clothes of Merit

Clint's Clothery

"The Store With a Conscience"

1101 Adams St.

$885

The insistently growing demand for the good Maxwell is indicative of the public appreciation of its really remarkable value.

People continue to marvel that a motor car so beautiful and so well made can be produced at such a reasonable price.

C. W. Bunting & Son

The Good

MAXWELL

Good tires, non-skid front and rear, five speed wheels, automatic shift at one end of hub, drum type lamps, Alameda light cases, power driven electric horn, unusually long spring. Power F. O. B. Dealer, revenue tax to be added. Touring Car, $885, Roadster, $995, Coupe, $1195, Sedan, $1495