Klamath Fair is to Have Good Buildings
Klamath Falls, Ore., Aug. 3.—Permanent fair grounds and buildings for this county seem to be destined to become a reality, according to a statement by A. M. Collier, member of the citizen's committee which has the matter in hand. Other members of the committee are R. E. Wright and J. E. Swanson, the latter being named to take the place of H. N. Moe, who is in the east at the present. This committee is working jointly with the county court to put the proposition over, and besides popular subscription it is planned to levy a small tax to add to the funds.
Petitions for this tax are now being circulated.
