A GIGANTIC COTERIE OF NOVEL- TIES UNSURPASSED

Are to Be Seen on the Vaudeville Bill at the Arcade Theatre
Sunday

Headlining "The Five Musical Keys" in a musical melange from classic to popular songs using eight different musical instruments. There is a dash to each number of the program. The feature, Phyllis Kaye, is the youngest marimba soloist in vaudeville. She is a born artist and will be appreciated by lovers of music.

Blair and Donovan, a happy pair of comedy producers in their hilarious skit called "The Radio Bug," Miss Donovan, a comely young woman, instructs Mr. Blair, a capable comedian, in the art of radio contraction, with many amusing "nations and comedy song hits."

Lorraine and Hazelle, two pretty and snappy young females in "Story Book Town." A unique and novel way of showing their ability in singing and dancing numbers in which they excel.
They are a popular duo of feminine jovialness.

Ardo, the loose legged juggler and versatile talker and contortionist. A juggler who can bend, and a bender who can juggle. Just think of it and smile.

A special feature picture will be added to this novel program.

LYTEL IN TRIPLE ROLE ON THE SCREEN - PLAYS GRANDFATHER FATHER AND SON IN "OLD RICH"

Best Lytel, in his newest Metro starling vehicle "The Old Rich," adapted by Jane Mathis from the Saturday Evening Post story by Kenneth Harris, plays three roles representing three generations of the Weatherbee family of California - grandfather, father and son.

"It's a dizzy arrangement, but I've enjoyed it more than anything I've done in many a day," said Mr. Lytel.
"I like particularly to get logged out in the light, gaudy trappings, figure-fitting frock coat, frilled shirt, frill collar and beaver hat of the early days of the settlement of the Golden West. I liked to trace the different periods in the manners of the three generations, the family resemblances and the individual marks of distinction in the three men. I tried to realize for spectators an impression of the changes that time has brought about; these truly representative of each period."

"The Californians, through these generations, seem to be to be the most truly representative Americans; at any rate they are the most interesting people to me. Mr. Harris wrote a story about them that must have been intended for the screen. It is fairly crowded with the kind of action that can be photographed. I think this production, as a result, stands out as one of the 'different' pictures for which we are all striving."

Also showing "Fresh Air," a two reel comedy at Therry's.

HEROINE OR THIEF? MYSTERY IN ARREST.

"Look, sheriff!"
"With a mocking smile, she held up a watch."
"I took that off you as slick as anything when you passed the coffee. It was like taking candy from a baby."

Anger at her nerve and charm that had been so neatly tricked left him silent.

"It's not altogether a habit," she continued in mock apology. "It's a gift."

This is the beginning of one of the fascinating scenes of "Penny of Top Hill Trail," the Bessie Love picture released by Federated, which will make its bow at the Sherry Theatre today only. Bessie Love takes the part of the girl - wholly charming, amazingly brave and resourceful, and the audience will discover - altogether different from what she appears to be.

Is Penny of Top Hill Trail a thief?
That is the question - which agitates the Western hill country into which that bundle of energy and attractiveness suddenly appears. Not one, but two romances hang on the answer, and ever-thine comes out right at the end, after a sparkling drama of wholesome comedy and thrills is unfolded.

Arthur Berthelet directed the production, which was from the novel of the same name by Belle Kanaris Man-gates.

Also showing "Movie Chats" and
"Mutt & Jeff."

BIG YUKON SPECTACLE OF THE GREAT OUTDOORS FULL OF AC-TION, THRILLS AND PATHOS

Jane Novak in "Belle of Alaska," directed by Chester Bennett and distributed by American Releasing Corporation, which will show at the Star Theatre today and Sunday is a plumb fall of thrills, action and pathos.

One of the mighty thrills, showing a Yukon steamer crashing against an iceberg off the Pacific coast, is said to be the most effective shipwreck scene ever devised for a motion picture entertainment. Half dressed, undressed, half dazed from sleep, passengers are shown in a mad fight for safety. The ship is seen sinking slowly as the steamer's searchlight plays upon the surface of the water.
Scores of desperate passengers can be seen struggling in the water to climb upon life rafts, life preservers or any litter from the ship floating about in the water. Miss Novak's adaptation seems to afford the spectator some of the most thrilling incidents ever depicted. A mad swim for the deck by Miss Novak will make your hair stand on end while the passengers aboard the ship become panic stricken at the sight of the girl in the water after her mysterious leap.

Miss Novak illustrates her ability as an emotional actress in this heart-rending and action drama of the roaring Yukon.

"Horse Tears," a two reel comedy is also being shown.

"THE OFFICE BOY" A SUCCESS.

(By The Gardas Publicity Agent) Despite the fact that the inclement weather would tend to keep the people away from The Garden last evening, a fair crowd was attracted to the first presentation of "The Office Boy." Seated under the big canvas roof they were sheltered from the rain-stage manager and theatre owner attempting to get a "roup of first class actors and singers together and his difficulties in getting what he wanted kept the audience rocking with laughter. Eddie Mar, as the office boy, a negro part, had his first real chance to show his ability in a leading part.
The same bill will be presented tonight.

Here She Is--Good As New

"With cylinders REGROUND, AND FITTED WITH McQuay-Norris Piston Rings, Pistons and Pins, your motor is practically as good as new," says the cylinder grinder.

Motorists are just beginning to realize how much added life, and mileage, can be given their cars by having cylinders reground, and new rings, pistons and pins installed. When these three vital units are renewed in a reground cylinder block, the result is practically a new motor.

In every section of the country are shops which specialize in regrounding - equipped with special tools and machinery for this work.

Your repairman can tell you whether new piston rings alone are all your motor needs to bring back its lost power, or whether the cylinders of your motor need regrounding and complete new ring, piston and pin equipment.

There is a McQuay-Norris Ring - made from Electric Iron - for every purpose and price; specially designed and manufactured for replacement purposes - each type designed for the particular motor it fits. All standard sizes and over-sized. - An extract from McQuay-Norris, Saturday Evening Post.
