

The Hat for Fall

WHEN you consider buying a new hat—you will do yourself a favor if you select it here.

Our hatiers have cleverly combined all the desirable features that emphasize the London and New York styles in men's Fall hats.

Their roll brims and rakish blocking are bound to be popular. The prices, of course, are right.

At the Country Club there was much laughter and merriment when fifteen of Miss Ann Stange's friends arrived to celebrate her thirteenth birthday Saturday evening. After an evening at the theatre the young people were taken to the Club house, where they played games, danced and sang. A lovely dinner of fruit salad, meat loaf, potatoes and gravy, creamed corn, hot rolls, cantaloupe, sundaes and all that goes with them made a feast royal for those present. The big feature of the evening was the large birthday cake which held thirteen lighted candles. Cakes and nuts were also served. The tables were artistically decorated with large baskets of asters. The young people invited were: Edith Ebell, Jane Stange, Kenneth Seigrist, Gertrude Scranon, Eleanor Cleaver, Olive Beck, Marjorie Reynolds, Lawrence Ray, Marguerite Zweifel, Dorothy Ann Warnick, Margaret Meyers, Grace Cullen, Jean Williams and the hostess.

A most delightful little party was given Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bowman by their daughter, Marie, honoring her cousin, Miss Leona Bowman of Pendleton. Each of the guests on arrival was presented with dainty orange bouquets of sweet peas. One of the amusing stunts of the evening was to model parafine into various shapes. The evening was spent in "500", with Miss Louise O'Connell receiving high honors and Miss Edris Maguire the consolation prize. A delicious two-course luncheon of dainty sandwiches, coffee, birch ice cream and wafers was served. Clever little surprise favors were given each girl. Those invited for the evening were the Misses Leona Bowman and Fernale Perrin, of Pendleton; Dorothy Casey, Mildred Hoyt, Myrtle Hoyt, Roberta Smith, Beth Reese, Louise O'Connell, Miss Guy, Avis Maguire and Edris Maguire.

The Country Club was the scene of a charmingly appointed luncheon on Monday at one o'clock, when the P. E. O. ladies entertained in honor of Mrs. F. S. Whiting, who recently returned from a nine months' trip abroad. Places were laid for fifteen, and a delicious luncheon was served. After luncheon the ladies gathered about the big fireplace, where a cheery fire added to the pleasure of the occasion, and Mrs. Whiting related many interesting experiences of her trip, which included England, Scotland, France and Belgium. The party was in the nature of a farewell, as Dr. and Mrs. Whiting left for Portland, where they will make their home in the future.

Word was received several days ago of the announcement of the engagement of Miss Virginia Blatz Gillessey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Gillessey of Louisville, Ky., to Lieut. Ellis Vern Williamson, 11th Field Artillery, stationed at Camp Bragg, N. C. The wedding will take place at Miss Gillessey's home in Louisville, September 16. Lieut. Williamson is a former La Grande boy and the son of Mrs. J. T. Williamson of La Grande.

The Women of Moscoheart Legion will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. C. S. Shultz, 1904 East N avenue. Mrs. P. E. Wyrick, Mrs. Fred Smith and Mrs. L. A. Stoop will assist as joint hostesses. All Mosco children are invited. This is a business meeting as well as a social gathering and therefore all members are requested to be present.

Miss Dorothy Krause, Mrs. A. N. Krause, Harold Howard, Miss May Dunn and Happy Dunn motored to Baker Sunday accompanying Harold Howard that far, as he is on his way to Sumpter, Oregon, after spending several days visiting with friends in La Grande.

Mrs. Fred Arnett was pleasantly surprised Monday afternoon when a number of her friends called and spent a delightful social afternoon. Dainty refreshments were served by those who acted as hostesses.

The executive officers of the Presbyterian societies of neighboring towns and La Grande are holding an all-day executive meeting and luncheon at the lovely home of Mrs. A. T. Hill today.

The Mission Band of the First Presbyterian Church will be entertained at the home of Katharine Humphries, 1108 O Ave., at 2:30 Thursday afternoon. All members and friends are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ball of La Grande entertained for dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Watkins at Alice Sunday. Mr. Watkins is postmaster in Alice.

Seventeen golf enthusiasts took breakfast at the Country Club Sunday morning, and there were also nineteen guests for Sunday dinner at the Club.

Tuesday evening the directors of the Country Club and their wives took dinner at the Club and a business meeting was held later in the evening.

The Royal Neighbors Circle will be entertained next Friday evening at the home of Mrs. H. E. Bates, 2702 N. Fir street.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fries and three guests and Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Crowe and family dined at the Country Club Saturday.

Daytime Protection

The wise woman supplements the night-time treatment with daytime care. She takes special precaution to prevent the inroads of burning sun and harsh winds. Unlike the softening night cream daytime cream should be protective and disappearing, with no oily base. Discriminating women prefer the delicately perfumed, all-vanishing McK & R Daytime Cream.

Do not face the winds and dust and sun of the hot summer without such protection. Otherwise your skin sets up its own protection in the form of a coarsened rough skin.

You will find that the McK & R Daytime Cream makes an unusually fine base for your powder and presents a soft delicate peachblow skin.

Gleaming Hair

Keep the life of your hair. Soaps, too strong, deaden the natural gloss and leave your hair stringy and lifeless. McK & R Coconut Oil Shampoo brings out the silky sheen of the hair and all the lovely high lights. It leaves the scalp delightfully clean and clear, without taking the vigor and life from the roots of the hair.

The McK & R oval label is your assurance of the purity and high quality of this shampoo.

Summer Night-time Treatment

The effects of summer neglect of the skin can never be entirely eradicated. Sun and wind demand their toll. Enjoy the summer days as much as you please, but every summer night before retiring soothe and soften your skin in the following way. Dab the skin with McK & R Perfected Cold Cream—gently rubbing it in, upwards and outwards. To soften the hands apply the cream freely and wear a pair of loose-fitting gloves over night.

Nightly treatment with this exquisite refined and perfected cold cream through the summer brings you to the fall season with a clear unblemished skin.

The Perfect Laxative

"Just like candy" is what the children say when you give them Analax. This delicious, fruity laxative is highly efficient and so easy to take. It doesn't in the least suggest medicine, and the enticing appearance and fragrant taste appeal to grown-ups as well as to children. Analax acts mildly and easily. It causes no uneasiness or pain. This introduction of fruit acids into a laxative is Nature's way. Analax should be in every medicine chest. For constipation, sick headache, sour stomach, indigestion, piles or bad breath, Analax is invaluable. Keep Analax always on hand. It comes in candy form—one or two pieces for grown-ups. For children, 1/2 or one piece according to age.

The condition of John Carson, who is in the Grande Ronde hospital suffering from injuries received in an accident, is considerably improved and an early recovery is hoped for.
