WEATHER FAIR
AT STARKEY

(Special to The Observer)
STARKEY, Aug. 22.—The weather is cool and cloudy with fair weather promised. A light rain Friday night and Saturday benefited the country and crops to some extent.
Miss Vada Higgins of La Grande and Alvin Thorsen of Starkey were married last Thursday in La Grande. They left here on Sunday, being their Starkey friends the air was too light for Miss Vada, causing her to have fainting spells. Starkey is pleased with the marriage and wishes them all kinds of luck and happiness.
Mrs. R. L. Sullivan returned from La Grande, where she had her little son, Eddie's travels resumed last Thursday. He returned safely.
Miss Hazel and Gladys Cook left for La Grande Sunday morning. They have been visiting for the past two weeks with the family of J. S. Rainey. They will visit with their cousins in La Grande, Glenn Rainey and Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Thompson.
Lee Kahl, old line stock man of the Kamsel county, was over for a week from his home in Oregon, and is now in town.
Mrs. Lee Ingraham is on, Ernest Papp of Mendocino, who is visiting his mother, had a very much needed haircut.

Starkey's shoe call to him came in reporting a fire in his district.
Little Lena Rose fell and almost broke her arm Tuesday evening while at play. She suffered quite badly the first night and day and can not use her arm much as yet but is getting better.
Miss John Wells of Starkey has put in an application to teach the Starkey school this term.
Mr. White, a timber cruiser, and Mr. Averill were down to the store for supplies and mail. They will move to Ft. Valley Sunday.
Mrs. Blanche Hamilton, who has been at Starkey for a month returned to her home in New Plymouth, Idaho.
Mr. Frank Pele, a Pendleton tax driver and his friend, Mr. Ship, arrived the 19th to be ready for the opening of deer season.
The owner and the manager of the People's Warehouse of Pendleton were in Starkey Sunday.
Little Lena Rose left Saturday morning for Pendleton to visit friends. She will stay a week with Misses Hans and Gladys Cook and have some dental work done before school commences.
Smythe Brothers are preparing to separate the lambs from the sheep and trail the lambs out to Meacham, where they will ship them east.
Jack Starkey is rounding up the lake cattle for beef this week.
Elmer Briggs went to La Grande Thursday.
Mrs. Elsie Smith is enjoying a visit from her sister and husband from Washington.

Harvest is started in this vicinity. Fred Houlika vaccinated his calves this week.
Mrs. M. W. Evans of La Grande, mother of Mrs. Wm. Briggs, has been visiting her this week. She has returned to her home in the valley.
Antonio Vay, Sr., came through Starkey Tuesday on the way to Sheno Ranch. He came with his son, Antonio Vay, Jr., and wife. He will spend a month there.
Mr. Nate Rainey of Pendleton stopped with the J. S. Rainey family while going over Saturday country looking for beef cattle. Beef cattle are very scarce here.
Little Donald McHugh of La Grande is visiting his aunt, Mrs. R. L. Sullivan. He will stay until school starts in La Grande. The little lad likes Starkey very.
Antonio Vay, Jr. and two riders took four carloads of fat cattle to Hilgard Friday to ship to Seattle, Wash. One carload very-four head of cattle made up the shipment.
George Crosby, forest ranger at Lake Umbagog station, repaired the telephone wire from the sheep ranch.

WOOD PULP IN AUSTRALIA

(By Associated Press.)
MELBOURNE, July 17.—(By Mail)—Timber for the manufacture of paper, a long-felt want in Australia, has finally been discovered in Tasmania.
Three important timbers from that territory have been converted into excellent wood pulp in the Perth laboratories, according to an announcement by G. H. Knibba, Director of the Commonwealth Institute of Science and Industry.
A fair state of preservation is believed, erected in 1855 and still in a fair state of preservation, is being torn down to make room for a business structure.
