JAMES OLIVER CURWOOD PROVIDES SCREEN ANOTHER BIG OUTDOOR PRODUCTION

James Oliver Curwood, who has provided such well known stories for screen presentation as "The River's End," "Back to God's Country," "Flower of the North," etc., is the author of a splendid production, "Jan of the Big Snows," which will be the feature attraction at the Star Theatre Saturday and Sunday. In "Jan of the Big Snows" Mr. Curwood has again chosen the Hudson Bay country as his locale and his "true to life" characters were selected after the usual Curwood research work far north from civilization's rim. Director Charles M. Sway achieves another success in his work with this Curwood story and with the combination of a great author, a great director and a great cast, a production has been provided that is packed tight with thrills and verities.

All the action takes place at an isolated trading post where Fred Cummings returns, with his bride. The entire population consists of seventeen men, including Jan, who has never had a love affair in his entire life till he meets Cummings' wife. The "honor of the big snows" demands protection for the weak—a man must suffer, starve or die before he will take what belongs to another man. Blindina, a New Yorker, arrives at the post, and his attentions forced upon Nancy causes Jan and his comrades to teach him to observe the "honors of the big snows." A two reel comedy will also be shown.

ALICE LAKE PICTURE THRILLS AUDIENCE—AT SHERRY'S LAST DAY

An eye for an eye; a tooth for a tooth—the old Mosaic code of ethics was called into play yesterday in the Wesley Ruggles' production "Over the Wire," in which Alice Lake stars, and thrilled the full-house audience which witnessed the first performance of this Metro picture at the Sherry Theatre. But more—as they followed with bated breath the dramatic movements of the picture the audience was treated to an unexpected climax as was ever unfolded. For the action moved resolutely towards the gaining of vengeance by a young woman whose brother's death had been brought about by a financier; vengeance was almost consummated when suddenly a flower of love sprang up from the bosom of hate in a masterly situation, but then the creator of it was Arthur Somers Roche, the fictionist whose work in the magazines and between book covers ranks him among the best short story writers of the country. As Kathleen Decker, Alice Lake gave a performance of surpassing skill and beauty. Her acting has finish and spontaneity; it sparkles brilliantly like diamond facets, leaving nothing to be desired. Miss Lake's supporting cast includes Albert Roscoe, George Stewart and Alan Hale.

NORMA TALMADGE AS ISLAND WAIF IN "LOVE'S REDEMPTION"

Norma Talmadge shows how a strikingly handsome brunette can be transformed into an olive-complexioned daughter of the tropics in "Love's Redemption," her latest First National attraction, which is showing at the Arcade Theatre today and Saturday. Miss Talmadge has a difficult part in the role of Ginger, the young girl of Jamaica, who is the heroine of the story; but her effective portrayal of the character places it as one of her best screen accomplishments. It is Ginger's quaint lack of convention and strength of principle that provides the incentive for saving the life of a beach-combing English youth of good antecedents. The story ex-appeals in which the contrast between the warmth of the West Indies and the frigidity of English social life is strongly drawn.

An interesting news reel is also being shown.

TEXAS PRIMARY NEXT SATURDAY

Ku Klux, Federal Reserve Banking System, Volstead Act, Transportation Difficulties All Issues in Primary Election.

(By Associated Press) DALLAS, Texas, Aug. 20.—The Ku Klux Klan, Federal Reserve Banking System, the Volstead Act, transportation problems and rates, and to a lesser degree attitude towards organized labor and farmers clearly have become issues in the democratic campaign for the nomination for United States senator from Texas. The second primary to finally name the party's nominee will be held next Saturday, August 26.

James E. Ferguson, former governor has made known his friendliness to legalizing light wines and beer. He also has declared opposition to the Ku Klux Klan. Among his pleas for support is that he is a friend of organized labor and the farmers. He attacks his opponent Earle B. Mayfield, a state railroad commissioner, charging that Mr. Mayfield is a Klansman, and has the support of the members of that order. Mr. Mayfield maintains the Klan is not an issue.

Mr. Ferguson is antagonistic to the Federal Reserve Banking System, and frequently, in his addresses, blames it for financial difficulties. Mr. Mayfield has been stressing the transportation problems and rates as needing more attention from congress than the Federal Reserve System. He declares the rates are too high, and that the rate-making powers should be restored to the states.

Opening the campaign after the July 22 primary Mr. Ferguson continued his remarks concerning the Ku Klux Klan almost entirely toward Mr. Mayfield. Later in his campaign, however, he asserted candidates seeking nomination for certain state offices had the support of the Klan, and suggested that voters opposed to the Klan should cast their ballots against the men he named. Among those thus attacked by Mr. Ferguson was Ed. R. Bentley, a candidate for the nomination for superintendent of public schools.
