HORSE OWNS LIBERTY BONDS

(By Associated Press.)

HAVRE, Mont., Sept. 1.—"Charley Anderson" of Havre claims the distinction of being the only horse in the United States who subscribed for a Liberty bond during the war.

"Charley" is an employe of the Great Northern railway and has been on the company payroll for several years. His job is general work around the yards. He gets his board and a man to take care of him, besides overtime, the same as any other regular employe.

But "Charley" is getting old and lazy. Every day at time to go to work he is missing. He is found every morning in the same place, behind the tallest weeds along the right of way. He sometimes becomes dissatisfied with his regular fare and goes out and rustles his own food. Then his employers look him up at the city pound, and make arrangements so that he can be hailed out and put to work again.

Evidently "Charley" appreciates the rights that should be his as a coupon clipper. He realizes that like many another bond holder he is a privileged character.

DAIRY EXPORT TRADE INCREASE

(By Associated Press.)

MONTREAL, P. Q., Sept. 1.—Canada's export dairy trade has made important advances this year. The increase to the British Isles has been especially large, more than 100,000 packages of butter having been shipped from Montreal up to August 1, compared with 10,000 for the same period last year.

During the month ending July 15, forty-five carloads of butter from Manitoba were exported. Thirty carloads of Saskatchewan butter will reach British markets before the end of the year.

THEATRES

AT SHERRYS—LAST DAY "GRAND LARCENY"

"Grand Larceny," the new photoplay at the Sherry Theatre is a Goldwyn offering that presents a phase of modern life that many are all too familiar with. It tells the story of a social parasite who carries on his depredations outside the pale of the law. The robber of property can be put in prison, and the man he has injured can obtain some legal satisfaction. But what balm is there for the man who has been robbed of his wife's love?

That is the situation raised in "Grand Larceny," and superbly presented by an excellent cast of Goldwyn players. Claire Windsor, a newcomer to Goldwyn pictures, is the woman who is made a plaything of two men. The role of her husband is played by Elliott Dexter, who also appears for the first time in a Goldwyn picture.

Albert Payson Terhune, the author of "Grand Larceny," has developed his story to an unusual denouement in which both men discover that their prey is not a piece of property that may be bought and sold, but a woman who emerges from her ordeal the mistress of her own soul.

Wallace Worsley directed the picture with much insight for the emotional values to be brought out. The many exquisite interior scenes were made from designs by Cedric Gibbons, the Goldwyn art director.

Also showing Irving Cummings in "Cameron of the Mounted."

PROHIBITION ISSUE DROPPED

(By Associated Press.)

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 1.—The wet and dry issue has been dropped in the congressional contests thus far in Minnesota, for the November election, because of an absence of wet candidates.

All incumbents, including Andrew J Volstead, have been renominated on the republican ticket and all are avowedly dry. In no case where a close race is expected between republican and democratic nominees was the issue raised.

The republican nominees are: First district, Sydney Anderson; Second district, Frank Clague; Third district, Charles R. Davis; Fourth district, Oscar E. Keller; Fifth district, Andrew J. Volstead; Eighth district, Oscar J. Larson; Ninth district, Halbor Steenerson; Tenth district, Thomas H. Schall.

The sharpest conflict is expected in the seventh district, where the Rev. O. J. Kvale, democrat off Benson, probably will oppose Congressman Volstead. Both are dry. In the third district, Mrs. Lillien Cox Gault is a democratic candidate to oppose Charles R. Davis, republican nominee. Mrs. Gault also is dry.

There are democratic candidates in only three other districts and they have not announced a position on the wet and dry issue.

Classy Dressers In 1776.

The following was the uniform for the officers of the corps, by order of the "Marine Committee," dated September 5, 1776: "A green coat faced with white, round cuff, slashed sleeves and pockets, with buttons round the cuff, skirts turned back, buttons to suit the facings; white waistcoat and breeches edged with green, black gaiters and garters." The order also stated that green shirts were ordered for the men "if they can be procured."

THE KEY THAT UNLOCKS THE DOOR TO LONG LIVING.

The men of eighty-five and ninety years of age are not the rotund, well-fed, but thin, spare men, who live on a slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age will occasionally eat too much or of some article of food not suited to his constitution, causing indigestion or constipation and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets to move his bowels and invigorate his stomach. When this is done, there is no reason why the average man should not live to a ripe old age.—Adv.

DOCTORS MAY JOIN HANDS

(By Associated Press)

SPOKANE, Wash., Sept. 1.—All drugless and sanipractic physicians of Washington may be united into one joint organization during a triple convention to be held here from September 4 to 5.

Meeting together the combined membership of the three organizations will vote to act as a committee of the whole for the purpose of adopting or repecting the amalgamation plan, according to Dr. Henry F. "All the drugless physicians of the state have been invited to attend the convention," said Doctor Herwig. "All our organizations operate along the same lines and we are going to consider uniting into one body for the purpose of unity and strength."

The triple convention program includes an address of welcome by Mayor Charles A. Fleming, addresses by organization leaders miscellaneous business and educational lectures. On the evening of September 5, the physicians will attend the Spokane Interstate fair. The convention will be closed with a banquet and entertainment features.
