Bible Thought for Today

SAFETY OF THE PERFECT.
Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will he help the evil doers.—Job 8:20.

THE JOLLY DOKIES AND THEIR SHOW.

La Grande has had many fine events; she has entertained Eastern Oregon people many times; she has gone across the mountains and entertained the prominent people of Pendleton and Portland, but never, yes, we will say never, has La Grande in turn been entertained by the guests she was entertaining as she was last night in the ball park.

It was a grand and glorious feeling to see five thousand people gathered in that park at a night meeting, and bear in mind it was the largest crowd ever assembled there. But even grander, it was, to listen to the program furnished by the Dokies.

Oh, those bands with their classical and their jazz that pulled right up and made you feel like an osteopath had straightened your backbone. And that section from Enterprise, headed by our old friend, J. David Haines. It was hard to realize that to the extent that the Philharmonic orchestra and the Madrigal numbers indicated. Simply great, is the only words worth while in its description.

Hood River with its excellent band, and Dayton with her band of pronounced harmony, while Portland's Dokie band gave the George Baker fun shuffle to every number. Then came our own old sagebrushers who made a band for this temple and it is some band. And last, the Walla Walla drum corps, an organization as unique as it is grand, held the stage in most pleasant entertainment. The vocal selections, the skits, the drill teams, all combined with bands and drum corps to give the large audience a show which money could not buy and nothing but good fellowship could father.

La Grande is strong for the Dokies and no words of welcome suffice since we have seen what they can do. Without words, they can take La Grande any time of the day or night and La Grande will be delighted to be taken.

JUST WHERE TO, MR. DAUGHERTY?

There are sign boards along the industrial highway in the United States—sign boards that point the way to where?

Attorney General Daugherty nailed one up yesterday when he caused injunctions to be issued to numerous labor organizations, as he claimed "to preserve and perpetuate American government" but that sign board is a little mysterious, to say the least.

The charge that big business has us has been made. The present administration, starting as it did to force both railroad companies and employees to agree, backed up and now the charge comes that it has swung completely over to one side, almost adopting the Kansas Industrial court plan of dealing with workers, which means rule by injunction, rule by force.

Let us think your order over, Mr. Daugherty. It is entirely too strong and sweeping to be digested with a moment's deliberation. Let us have time to try and contemplate which path your signboard directs us—whether to freedom of country, free speech, free press, a land of the free and the home of the brave, or whether it directs us into the uncertain avenues which finally lead to the government by injunction, the iron hand of class rule.

Yes, let us all think it over before we speak.

The Sunset Magazine has an article on "Transforming Useless Wood into Pencils." This interests us strangely. We always did wonder what made so many of 'em splinter all the way down and prove useless when we were in a hurry.

Too bad it had to come out that there are official chaperons on Shipping Board liners. Now all American girls will want to cross on foreign ships.

THE OFFICE CAT

—BY JUNIUS—

VACATION TIME.
My motor car, my motor car,
It takes me near, it takes me far,
It takes me to the crystal lake,
And with it in hand I have a stake.
To pitch my tent on shady shore,
To rest and fish and eat some more.

Two weeks before we strike this spot,
With frying pan and coffee pot,
I lay awake and dream of fish,
Until my brain is in a wish,
And how I long to hear again,
The sizzling in the frying pan.

Our motor car, it takes us there,
With camp all set we breathe the air,
And smell the fumes of curling smoke,
From fire of wood, and not fire of coke,
And now we surely have our wish,
For here we see the frying fish.

We eat and sleep, and stroll about,
Then when the sunlight is faded out,
And draws behind the western shore,
We take the cot, and sleep, and more,
And then the skitter, with his will,
Is getting ready to use his bill.

This frying pan and motor car,
They cost me dear, with mind ajar,
But what care I for piffling cent,
With gas burned out and fenders bent,
I had my heart's best wish,
And filled the frying pan with fish.

We spend four billions yearly for fun and still some people never seem to have any.

"When is your daughter thinking of getting married?"
"Constantly."

About Tuesday the Sunday roast beef has lost its appeal.

MONARCHISTS FEARED.

BERLIN, Sept. 2.—Reports from Munich today indicate it is feared in various quarters that the extreme monarchists may attempt a coup d'etat.

Convention Sidelights

Last night, following the street dance, a number of people, particularly Walla Walla county visitors, decided to prolong their dancing and held an impromptu dancing party at the Rex hall commencing at midnight and continuing until the wee small hours.

The ceremonials held at the Rex hall yesterday afternoon was a complete success and the hall was jammed.

Although the ruling concerning no driving within roped limits is in effect, A. V. Andrews on his way to work this morning, evidently forgot all about it because he did his best to drive over the ropes.

A Dokie paraded as a negro paraded the streets of La Grande yesterday afternoon, causing much comment and amusement.

Notwithstanding the number of fine bands that La Grande has in her midst, the Khaled temple organization ranks first in the hearts of the local people. According to one musician, this band is one of the finest in the state of Oregon.

Among many complimentary things said of the visiting delegates is that not a single drunk wearing a fez made his appearance on the street. In view of the hilarity of the occasion and that 1100 roses were in display, this is deemed to be a reflection of the high morale of the institution. For some reason or other the public though that discretion would be thrown to the winds during the convention but it is now evident that it was not their plan to violate the rules of propriety while in the city.

From five o'clock yesterday morning until eleven o'clock in the evening the registration headquarters were never forsaken for a single moment. At eleven o'clock the officials, feeling the need of sustenance, left for a short time and partook of some sandwiches from the nearest hot dog stand. During that time one Dokie arrived and tried to get a room, going away without it. That one instance is the only failure to get a room immediately, and he got his room eventually.

The officers of the Ad Club and the Dokies in general are high in praise of the diligence of Mrs. F. L. Barrie, the Hoyt twins, Effie Ainsworth and Margaret Klopferstein, for the courtesy shown visiting guests. An expression of appreciation was shown when the Fili Island quartet returned to headquarters following the stunt show at the ball park and gave an impromptu program in their honor.

Delegation after delegation has formally appeared at headquarters to express their favorable opinion of the wonderful co-operation of the business men in La Grande and the courtesy shown the visitors. The street decorations, courtesy cars, free messengers, and the information bureau all resulted in a lasting impression being made on the Dokies.

Both in and out of Dokie circles the wonderful program presented by Enterprise last evening at the ball park is the subject of favorable comment.

Don't forget the fraternal parade to be held at 7:30 o'clock this evening, starting at Washington and Ninth—and don't forget the parking rules.

Lawrence Voberg and H. K. Branch of Cranbrook, B. C., are in attendance. Branch is a railroad and Voberg is a merchant and they report a great deal of interest in the Dokie lodge in Canada and are impressed with the Grande Rondo valley.

FARM LOANS

This Bank is pleased to announce that it has formed a connection by stock ownership through its officers with the Pacific Coast Joint Stock Land Banks of Portland, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Salt Lake City, forming the Association of Pacific Coast Joint Stock Land Banks.

These institutions are organized for the purpose of promoting the general welfare of the Pacific Slope and providing capital for the development of its agricultural resources.

The Land Banks are allied with strong commercial banking institutions in the four cities. The Portland Bank, to which applications will be sent through this bank from southwestern Oregon, is headed by A. L. Mills, President of the First National Bank of Portland.

First mortgage loans will be made on farm lands in amounts up to $40,000.00 to any one borrower for long terms of years at low rates of interest, the present rate being 6 per cent.

All mortgages will be made on the amortization plan, which means that the loan is paid off by equal semi-annual installments of a fixed amount, which includes interest and a sufficient amount of the principal so that at the end of the term the entire debt, principal and interest, will be wiped out. For example, on a loan of $1000.00 made for a period of 33 years at 6 per cent the payment of a semi-annual installment of $35.00 will cover interest charges and completely liquidate the loan at the end of the period. Any amount may be figured on the same basis.

Under this plan the borrower escapes the annoyance, expense and dangers of short term mortgage loans which do not provide for reduction of the principal, for if the covenants of the mortgage are observed and the payments promptly met, the question of renewals or possible foreclosure is eliminated.

Privilege of pre-payment of principal is granted after five years. The proceeds of a loan may be used for any agricultural development, purposes such as paying off mortgages on farm lands, improvements, purchase of land, equipment, livestock, etc., but not for speculation in enterprises clearly outside of the realm of agriculture.

All loans are made direct to the borrower and no commissions can be charged against him by joint stock land banks, any agent or representative. Borrower must bear the expense of appraisal of his property and the determination of title. This expense will be relatively small. It is not a continuing charge, but once paid is good for the term of the loan.

The borrower is not required to purchase stock in the Land Bank, to join an association, nor incur any other obligation beyond that to the Joint Stock Land Bank making his loan. It is not required that he live on or personally operate the property mortgaged.

On approved farm and ranch property the Land Bank will loan 50 per cent of the land value plus 20 per cent of the value of the insured improvements, such value to be determined by Federal appraisers and the Loan Committee of the Land Bank.

As the purpose of these banks is to take care of loans not available from the Federal Farm Loan Banks and the State School Funds, applications will not be received for the present for loans of less than $5000.00.

Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $20.00 as evidence of good faith. If the loan is not considered, fee will be returned to applicant. If, after appraisal is made, the application is rejected, the fee will be retained to apply on the expense of the appraisal. If the loan is made the fee will be credited to the applicant as part payment of the loan expense.

Application blanks and further information will be gladly furnished by the La Grande National Bank of La Grande, Oregon, which is authorized to receive applications from Union and Walla Walla counties.

YOU SHOULD HAVE 160,000 HAIRS IN YOUR HEAD

How many have you lost? You may keep what you have by observing the following rules and using MEXUTOL SHAMPOO LIQUID.

RULES FOR CARE OF THE HAIR

1. Promote circulation of the blood, in order to keep the scalp in a healthy condition. Massage the scalp daily with a stiff brush, vigorously, but not violently.
2. Avoid nervous and exhausting by tight bathbands. Give the hair rest and sunlight. And do not unnecessarily expose to the direct rays of the sun, as each prolonged exposure will cause the hair to fall out and become streaked.
3. Avoid churning the head by cold douches. Do not wet the hair every time you brush it.
4. Use a soft brush in arranging the hair. Shampoo at regular intervals. Always explore the natural oil, removed by the shampoo, with some substance such as sweet almond oil or yellow vasoline.
5. Avoid cutting the hair too close to the scalp. Women should not have their hair cut too frequently. Discontinue styling by fire.
6. Don't fuss with your scalp unnecessarily. Rough usage and too frequent wetting predispose to dandruff.
7. Watch the scalp to determine whether it is too dry or too oily. Either condition means that you must take measures to make the oil glands function properly.
8. Itching is a sign of trouble. Even though the itching is slight, the danger may be great.
9. Avoid alkaline substances on a dry scalp, and avoid the use of washes containing rosin or oily scents.
10. Look after your general health. Eat properly; aid digestion by active exercise and the right amount of sleep.
