THIS YOUNG LADY, we're sorry to say, is not a musician as far as we know. She's just in the picture to show, by comparison, how big a 6-foot bassoon is. It's an especially big bassoon, possibly the one the song was written about.

HOME SWEET HOME is fairly sweet. But the one made of candy by a Cincinnati candymaker, is sweeter. No playroom is complete without one.

CARL IS GETTING TO BE A BIG BOY NOW, so his father, Anton Linder, 89, plans to let him take a whack at managing the farm near Iowa City, Ia. With just a little supervision from his dad he thinks he'll be able to get along all right even though he's only had 64 years' training, man and boy, for his new job.

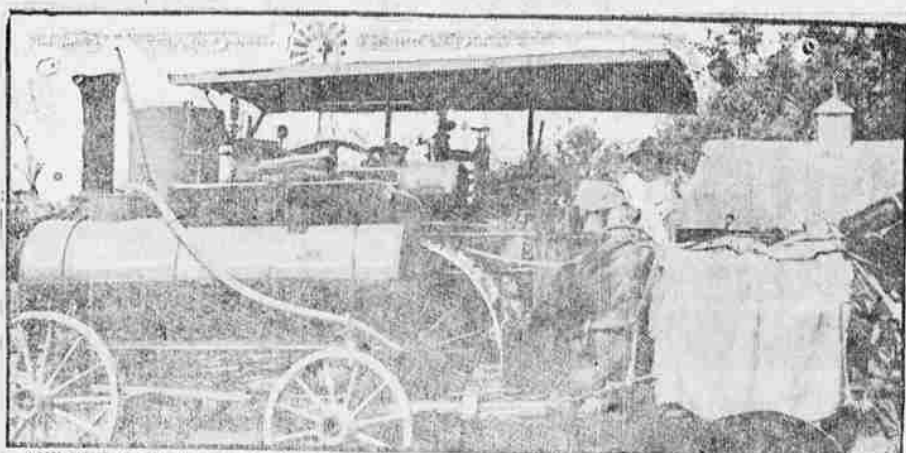

HE WON'T DARE THROW STONES: Not a glass house exactly, but the owner of this building managed to get 17 windows on one side of it. There are no windows on the opposite side, as the adjoining building shuts off the light.

THE AMBASSADOR TO FRANCE, Myron T. Herrick, and his 12-year old grandson, Parmsty W. Herrick Jr., are hunting woodchucks, loafing and otherwise resting up after a strenuous year in Paris. The vacationing is being done at Mr. Herrick's country home in Chagrin Falls, O. The ambassador and his young assistant will go back to Paris early in the fall.

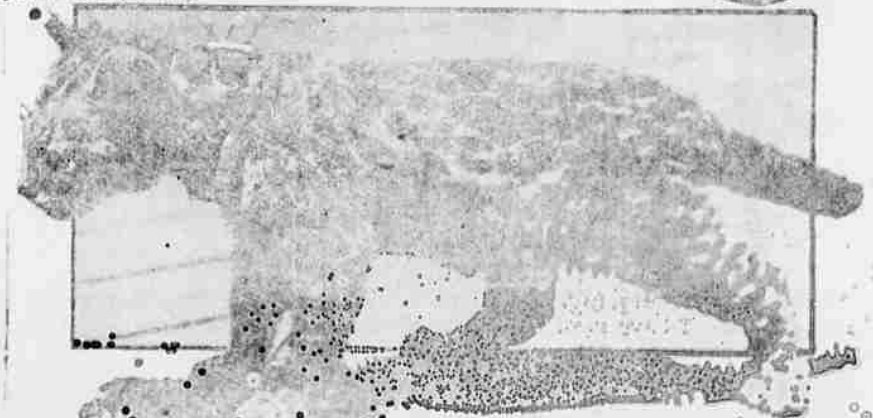

IF YOU LOVE YOUR WIFE, make her one of these clothes line reels. Then she can do 100 feet of washing and it won't tire her a bit—to wind up the line.

ANY GIRL CAN GO TO COLLEGE by a little spare-time work. Ethel Means, 20-year-old Kansas girl, offers one of our best testimonials. All she does is run a gang plow. A tractor, or a breeding engine during the summer days on Sedgewick county farms. For this she gets $19 a day, or close to $1000 for the summer's work. Of course, the hot Kansas sun is hard on the complexion, but a thousand dollars is nine months in college.

BLUE? NOT THIS BUNCH of Piqua, O., baseball fans (even if it was "Blue Sunday") as the result of a battle over the opening of picture shows and other places of amusement on Sunday. They were in good company, for a minister is among the crowd. The game was played outside the city limits and drew 55 per cent more half dollars than the semi-pro contests pull on ordinary Sundays.

"TNT" IS A GOOD WILDCAT NOW, BUT IN A FEW YEARS HE'LL BE A GOOD WILDCAT NO MORE.
