La Grande

One of the big features of the fun and amusement provided was the mock trial of Major Frieberg, who was arrested Saturday afternoon on some pretense and his trial was conducted in the city hall with a big crowd present. He was found guilty as charged and properly punished. H. E. Dixon, president and E. R. Ringo conducted the prosecution.

Miss Margaret Klopfenstein, attaché at the Ad Club offices, stood by the guns until the convention was over, although ill. Though somewhat improved today she is still confined to her home.

All bills outstanding against the entertainment committee should be filed with Wm. Miller, treasurer, post haste.

One Washingtonian, living near Spokane, felt that he had not properly expressed his appreciation of the treatment accorded him and called over long distance yesterday to register his profuse apologies for not having told the committee how well pleased he was.

From an advertising standpoint, La Grande reaped a rich harvest. Not again in many years, if ever, will the city entertain guests from so large a district, and the good things now being said in the press on the return of the various delegations has given the city a standing and a prestige she never enjoyed before.

Otis Dixon was seriously injured during the Dokie parade Saturday night when his mount slipped on the pavement of East Adams avenue. Mr. Dixon was a participant in the La Grande K. of P. float, and was wearing the garb of his office at the time of his injury. He was taking a saddle horse to the barn prior to the parade's start when the accident happened. His knee cap is cracked in a serious manner, necessitating delicate attention. He will be confined to his bed for some weeks.

When it comes to losing things, a Pendleton Dokie takes the whole line of prizes. He started in to play at one of the dances during the celebration and he plays a bass drum. Hardly had he begun to pound away on "The Shiek," or some other weird syncopated dance when a bunch of flappers flapped by him and he forgot what he was doing. Like a typical bug professor, following the butterfly in the flower, he sprang plain, so this Pendleton had followed the flappers. He visited other dances that were in progress, evidently forgetting entirely his first engagement. When he finally came out of it—after the flappers had flapped out of his zone—he missed his big bass drum and had a hard time locating it. "I have heard of men losing their equilibrium," said one big chief Dokie, in commenting upon this Pendleton lad's experience. "I have heard of them losing their watches, their money, their heads, but I'll be blessed if I ever heard of, and I hardly can conceive of a man losing such a thing as a bass drum."

REMNANTS OF DOKIE EVENT

Dokies seem to be a forgetful lot. Soon after the departure of the last caravan of them, telegrams began coming in of forgotten overcoats, cameras, razor straps, safety razors, pajamas and the like. One fellow left his feet. Efforts to find the owner of all unclaimed articles are now being set forth.

Wallawa Lodge Knights of Pythias carried off the $50.00 prize for the best float in Saturday night's parade, which is declared by many who saw it to have been the manner fraternal parade of Eastern Oregon. Several said they had seen longer parades but none that had the richness, the brilliancy and the unique features of the La Grande event.

Enterprise Lodge Knights of Pythias won the best Dokie float in the parade. Judges were Spokane people.

RHEUMATISM

CANNOT EXIST in the human body if you will use Frank's Prescription. It is ridiculous and preposterous, in fact, a pity to suffer with inflammatory, muscular, venous or any form of Rheumatism. Frank's Prescription sells for $1.75. This Prescription DOES NOT ruin the stomach, it DOES NOT depress the heart, but all the most and good food you wish. IT DOES NOT contain mercury, antiseptic soda, oil, wintergreen or narcotics, but it positively overcomes any kind of Rheumatism or Gout on earth. WHAT MORE DO YOU WANT? There is nothing just as good.
