One of the most beautiful church weddings La Grande has ever witnessed was held last evening in Our Lady of the Valley church at seven o'clock, when Father A. F. Lomas united John O'Connell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. O'Connell, and Miss Dorothy Gholson. The ring ceremony was used.

The bride and groom left on the evening train last night for Los Angeles and San Francisco, where they will spend a couple of weeks on their wedding trip, after which they will return to La Grande, where they will make their home.

The bride was dressed in crepe de chine with a white georgette overdress with a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a beautiful bouquet of bride's roses. The bridesmaid was dressed in silver cloth with an orchid overdress and carried pink roses.

Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played by Mrs. Paul Massee, organist, and Mrs. A. L. Richardson sang Gounod's "Ave Marie" in Latin, with L. J. Lindsay playing the violin obligato.

The ushers were: Fred Spoth, Frank Pearson and W. M. Peave. Many beautiful presents were received by the happy couple.

Reception at Home.

Following the services at the church about two hundred passed through the reception, which was held at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. O'Connell. After congratulating the bride and groom the guests were served in the dining room, where Mrs. H. E. Coulidge was mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. Wm. Ash and Mrs. F. L. Meyers cut the cake. Mrs. W. H. Casey poured coffee, and Miss Dorothy Meyers, Minna Ash, Dorothy and Harriet Casey, Beulah Newlin and Adelaide Clarke served.

A bridal shower was given in honor of Miss Dorothy Gholson at the home of Mrs. H. G. Avery Friday evening with Mrs. Avery as hostess. Five tables of "200" were in action with Miss Wilma Osterling winning high honors and Miss Lena Robertson receiving consolation. Following the card session a delicious two-course luncheon was served.

Many beautiful and useful presents were presented to Miss Gholson at this time and the entire number present acclaimed the party as being the "best time possible."

Those present were Misses Minna Ash, Dorothy Meyers, Edith Bragan, Delores Pearson, Zelma Plaza, Lena Robertson, Wilma Osterling, Harriet and Dorothy Casey, Dorothy Gholson, Zola Toland, Louise O'Connell, and Miss Melvin Larson. Mrs. Dan Melick lan, Mrs. H. Flora, Mrs. Chester Thompson, Mrs. J. F. O'Connell, Mrs. Paul Massee and Mrs. H. G. Avery.

Announcement has just been made of a series of dances and parties which will be given at the Country Club during the fall and winter season. A plan, which has long been used in eastern parts of the country, has been adopted by the La Grande Country Club and is expected to prove highly successful.

The plan is, in brief, that the entire membership who wish to take part, are divided into a number of groups and each group will serve as hosts during the month. It is their duty to give a dance or party during this period, and all other members are, of course, invited.

Invitations to all the members are now going out and it is hoped that it will be possible to hold the first party the latter part of this month. It is thought that enough members will be interested so that one large party can be given each month until May.

The Eastern Star Social Club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Helen R. Eberhard. Five tables of "200" were arranged and at the conclusion of the play, Mrs. Robert Eberhard held high score. Refreshments of sherbet, cake and coffee were served.

The next meeting will be held two weeks from Tuesday at the country home of Mrs. L. M. Hoyt.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Bohnenkamp drove to Portland this morning accompanied by Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp and Miss Marjorie Silverthorne, who is an assistant librarian at Reed College, and has spent her vacation in La Grande at her parents' country home. Mr. Bohnenkamp will be there for a few days and his wife will remain in the Rose City for three weeks before returning to her home.

Mrs. Harry Cleaver, assisted by Mrs. L. B. Moe, Mrs. L. Dunn and Mrs. J. K. Wright, will entertain the Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church at Mrs. Cleaver's home Friday afternoon beginning at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. E. Jacobson and her daughter, Roma, left for Portland last evening. Mrs. Jacobson will stop in the Rose City and her daughter will go on to Corvallis, where she is employed by the Oregon Agricultural College as stenographer.

The Ladies' Aid of the Zion English Lutheran church will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. Hestadt, 1909 Oak street, at 2:30 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all who wish to attend.

Miss Neva Snider and Miss Vera Crawford have just returned home from a visit in California.

Mrs. A. K. Parker, of Enterprise, returned to her home after undergoing a minor operation in La Grande Tuesday.

Mrs. Anna Schell of Wallawa is in La Grande this week visiting with friends and relatives.

La Grande's Hospitality Is Praised by Pendleton People Who Were Present

(Pendleton East Oregonian)

Their praise of La Grande's hospi-

ality is given by Pendleton Dokes who attended the Dokes convention in the neighboring city Saturday and Sunday, when Knights of Khorassan from nearly every city in the Northwest gathered together.

The register showed delegates from Huntington, Pendleton, La Grande, Bend, Butte, Sunnyside, Salt Lake, Seattle, Pocatello, Hood River, Baker, Boise, Newport, Spokane, Enterprise, Union, Elgin, Joseph, Imbler, Baker, Sampter, Cove, Wallawa and Island City.

Among the members of the local patrol team, Khaleh Temple, No. 179, who attended were Johnson, Berg, Allison, Parr, Frankum and Purdum. Bob Fletcher was a visitor and played in the band.
