Say what you will about druggists offering something "just as good" because it pays a better profit, the fact still remains that ninety-nine out of a hundred druggists recommend Chamberlains Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy, when the best medicine for diarrhoea is asked for, and do so because they know from what their customers say of it, that it can be depended on.—adv.

The Wrong Foot.

From a telegram recently received by the district superintendent of an Indian railway from a Babu station master: "Coming on duty early in the morning clad in my new and white uniform I perceived a man seated on a box in a naked and aggressive manner. Taking him to be an ordinary passenger, I proceeded to slap him, whereupon he hastily arose, unlocked the said box, clad himself in a policeman's uniform he took thereout and arrested me. The shoe is thus situated on the erroneous peddle. Please arrange."—London Morning Post.

"SATURDAY NIGHT" IS WORTH SEEING ANY NIGHT.

Cecil B. DeMille's big production "Saturday Night," was finished one Wednesday night.

Sounds a bit confusing, doesn't it? But from the time Mr. DeMille announced the title of his latest Paramount picture, confusion was the order of the day around the Lasky studio at Hollywood, Calif.

"What are you doing Friday night?" one actor would ask another.

"I'm working on 'Saturday Night'."

"I don't care what you are doing Saturday night. I am talking about Friday night."

"And I told you in plain English that I am working Friday night on 'Saturday Night,' and I can't accept your invitation."

"You're working Friday night on 'Saturday Night'? Say, are you crazy or am I? Now listen here; quit this nonsense and tell me: are you working on Friday night?"

"I'm not crazy. I told you and I'll tell you again: I'm working Friday night on 'Saturday Night'....."

"Oh.....! Then come over next week."

No matter on what night the public sees "Saturday Night" at the Arcade Theatre next Thursday they will be assured of an enjoyable evening. If you can't see "Saturday Night" on Saturday night, try to be on hand any night during the run.

AT SHERRY'S LAST DAY TODAY.

Getting a parrot to act for the movies is no easy task, especially if the green bird happens to have cold feet, according to Alfred Green, who directed Thomas Meighan in his latest Paramount picture, "The Bachelor Daddy."

The scene was supposed to be aboard a Pullman car. One of the characters plays a saxaphone at night in his berth and an old woman with a parrot remarks that the bird is being kept awake by the noise. Then a close up is shown of the parrot dancing to the music, swaying back and forth and lifting its feet clumsily to the melody.

They worked hard to get the bird to dance. It was in the morning and the set was none too warm despite the heaters.

Meantime, Arthur Freed, composer of "Hindustan," played lustily on the piano, the most enticing and sinuous oriental melodies. But the bird refused to dance. Finally after much coaxing, the parrot said something that sounded like:

"My feet are cold."

A heater was brought closer and presently Polly was literally "dancing her head off."

Also showing "Starland Revue."

ECONOMY WAVE HITS ROYALTY

(By Associated Press)

TOKIO, Aug. 11.—(By Mail)—Even the royal household of Japan is bein gaffected by the wave of economy which is passing over the country as a result of the economical depression. Viscount Makino, minister of the Imperial Household, has decided to reduce the number of ladies-in-waiting, who it its alleged, exceed in number the requirements of the Empress and the Imperial Princesses. The system of court ladies now in vogue was established in the early years of the Meija era, and never has been changed. There are 18 high class ladies, 30 adies of han-nin rank, 10 ladies accorded han-nin privileges, and altogether about 140 employes. These women hank as follows:

The shoki, of the shin-nin rank—Imperial appointment, tenji, gon tenki, shoki, gon shoki, myobu, gon myobu, all of whom are high-class ladies of the Imperial court; the joju and gon joju, who are of the han-nin rank. Each of these ladies has from one to several women employed as servant.

These formidable court ladies have held sway in the section of the Imperial Household where men are not permitted to control. The majority came from the families of titled nobility, the priests of the Kamo, the Sumiyoshi and other notable Shintto shrines or other distinguished families. The ladies above the rank of Myobu were given the names of Genji, while ladies coming rofm titled nobility were given the names of two characters and those from the samurai families names of one character. The salary of the first class teni is 5,000 yen a year and that of the second class 4,000 yen, which is larger than many officials of the Imeprial Household department.

As the Prince Regent aims at economy of his household, the minister of the Imperial House is reported to have drafted a new system of court ladies. It is understtood that the number of ladies will be limited to 5 or 6. The choice of the ladies to serve the Imperial court has been entrusted to Baron Omori and Count Chinda, the two chief attendants on the Empress and the Prince Regent, respectively.

Marriage in Poland.

The average man isn't overjoyed to learn that with his wife he is acquiring a large following of in-laws. But in Poland it is different. In the marriage contract the man does not inquire what a girl's portion is, but how many relatives she has, as each one is relied upon for a gift. It is not unusual for the woman to propose a match, through her parents.

THE KEY THAT UNLOCKS THE DOOR TO LONG LIVING.

The men of eighty-five and ninety years of age are not the rotund, well-fed, but thin, spare men, who live on a slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age will occasionally eat too much or of some article of food not suited to his constitution, causing indigestion or constipation and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets to move his bowels and invigorate his stomach. When this is done, there is no reason why the average man should not live to a ripe old age.—Adv.
