GRANGE WILL HAVE EXHIBIT

The Blue Mountain Grange, at a meeting held last evening, voted to hold a community exhibit at the Elgin fair this fall. In addition to the grange fair, this makes three fairs that the grangers are entering with exhibits. Exhibits are being arranged for the Grange fair at Wallowa and at North Powder. W. R. Gekeler, Harry C. Avery, county agent, F. M. Huffin, Mrs. Bert Hug and Mrs. Grace Grant have charge of the work. Mrs. Mable Anson, secretary of the Blue Mountain Grange far, read the list on new committees and the report of the work to date. E. L. Bekley, chairman of the dairy co-operation committee gave a report of life progress being made and a report was also received from the grange co-operative creamery at Albany which is the oldest and one of the strongest co-operative granges in the northwest.

PREPARE FOR WINTER WEEK
September 9th to 16th

September 9th to 16th is National Prepare-for-Winter Week. See full page announcement in September 9th issue of the Saturday Evening Post.
On these dates dealers throughout the United States and Canada will demonstrate the advantages of the Caloric System of Circulating Heat—show how this scientific system distributes its warmth uniformly to every nook and corner of the house—how it cuts fuel consumption 35 to 50 per cent.
As CALORIC representatives in this territory, we invite you to this unique and interesting demonstration. Come and learn how you can have a better heated home this winter with just about one-half the fuel you usually use. Demonstrations daily at our store. Come.
