A PRONOUNCED SUCCESS.

The uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the relief and cure of bowel complaints, both for children and adults, has brought it into almost universal use, so that it is practically without a rival and as everyone who has used it knows, it is without an equal.—adv.

THEATRES

"THE FAITH HEALER" SCORES A TRIUMPH—AT SHERRY'S FOR LAST DAY.

"The Faith Healer" is here! This new George Melford Paramount production has scored a triumph this week.

The theme of the picture is stupendous and startling. It has a beautiful love story and represents the best historic ability of some of the screen's greatest artists, such as Milton Sills, who plays the title role, Ann Forrest, Fontaine La Rue, Frederick Vroom, Loyola O'Connor, May Graef, John Curry, Adolph Menjou and others of note.

The story concerns a young shepherd, who goes forth to heal the sick. At his greatest hour of triumph he falls in love with a beautiful girl but as he yields to his passion he feels a loss of his spiritual powers. After many dramatic incidents, the healer recognizes that God does not deny spiritual love to men and instantly his power is restored. Paul Perry is responsible for the excellent photography and beautiful lightings.

Also showing a two-reel comedy.

THIS ITEM APPROVED BY SHERRY'S THEATRE.

"Some people consider it 'small town' to applaud motion pictures, but that notion is passing away," says Paul Bern, former Goldwyn director, now Goldwyn editor-in-chief, who guided "The Man With Two Mothers," which will be seen at the Sherry Theatre for two days, commencing Thursday.

The director points out that applause is now the accepted thing in the Capital, Rivoli, Strand and the other leading cinema houses of New York City. A picture of unusual merit will nearly always "get a hand."

"Applause at motion picture theatres should be encouraged," says Mr. Bern. "Although the actors cannot hear it, the theatre manager does and he gets a better idea of what the public likes. All of this reacts to the benefit of the actor whose work has aroused your enthusiasm. If you like the picture, don't be afraid to clap. It's being done in the best circles."

DICK BARTRUM'S "A SAILOR IN 'THE SEVENTH DAY'"

Richard Barthelmess in his second starring venture to be distributed by Associated First National Pictures, Inc., "The Seventh Day," will be the attraction at the Arcade Theatre today. The young star has an entirely different role from his part in "Foliable David," when he took the part of a young boy of the Virginia mountains; but his present appearance as a fishing lad of the New England coast is said to give him an opportunity of equal dramatic strength and human appeal.

The star has the role of John Alden, Jr., descendant of a sturdy line of fishermen on the rockbound New England coast, fifteen miles from the nearest railroad. To this isolated town comes a luxurious yacht because of an engine breakdown that will keep it idle for seven days.

The passengers, rich society people of idle ways and young idealistic diversions in their imprisonment and finding none take the popular pastime of flirtation. To such a game unsophisticated John Alden falls a ready prey, seeing in the perfect carriage of the city trained girl the ideal womanhood he has been seeking for all his life.

To the girl it is only a game until something of the sincerity of John Alden's makeup penetrated beneath the superficialities of life and the moment comes to make a decision that will mark her regeneration or a continued life of idle ease.

Frank Losee, Leslie Stowe, Tammany Young, Anne Cornwall, Grace Barton and Patterson Dial impersonate the rural characters in the support. Louise Huff is the leading lady and the remainder of the cast for the society second parts include: Alfred Schmid, George Stewart and Teddie Gerard.

Henry King directed the picture which is based on an original story by Porter Emerson Browne.

OIL IN ALASKA?

(By Associated Press)

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Sept. 11.—An examination of the Anchorage deltaic region will be made by Ralph Smith, member of the United States Geological Survey, to ascertain if there is oil-bearing ground.

The proposal to prevent coal strikes by government regulation of the coal industry would be more convincing if it had succeeded with the railroad.

NOTICE TO AMERICAN LEGION

The next meeting is a joint meeting of the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary on September 11, at the Eagles hall, at 8 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.
