

BLANKETS and COMFORTERS

These cool Fall nights make you want to snuggle under extra bed covers. In fact the thoughtful homemaker will see that there is a Blanket or Comforter at the foot of every bed ready to be pulled up if need be.

Cotton Comforters covered with silkline in pretty patterns are very colorful at moderate prices.

When you sleep under a Blanket, you're toasty warm without being burdened with a lot of heavy covers. All varieties are especially priced from $1.98 pair up.

CANNING WEEKS IS REQUESTED

PORTLAND, Sept. 12.—To assist in the relief of the fruit growers of the state who are hard hit by the present rail strike, the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce has suggested that the week of September 18-22 be designated as "Canning Week" to be observed throughout the state during which housewives will be urged to can a two years' supply of fruit for family use. Communications suggesting "Canning Week" have been sent to more than one hundred commercial clubs and chambers of commerce in Oregon. Governor O'Leary has been requested to place his official stamp of approval upon the project. It is pointed out by state chamber officials that the rail strike has curtailed the car service to points east, especially in regard to refrigerated service, with the result that bumper crops in Oregon are in danger of being lost through lack of market. An increased volume of home canning will do much to relieve the situation, it is believed.

TEACHERS GIVEN A RECEPTION

Many Social Happenings at Cove During Past Few Days—New Road Pleases All.

(Special to The Observer)
COVE, Sept. 12.—Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Orion entertained a small party Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. Orion's birthday. Mrs. Nellie Martin has purchased from Mrs. Juliet F. Dougherty, the house recently vacated by R. Z. Baxter. The stock flew into Cove again on Wednesday bringing a son to the house of Wesley Adkins. Mrs. Ray Duran moved to Union on Friday, where she will teach the third grade this year, and put her small son "Dinky" into the school there.

Meeting Well Attended. The meeting on Saturday afternoon between the officials of the forest service department, farm bureau and commercial club to discuss the Cove-Main road, was well attended and an excellent outcome of the discussion the forest service offered to give $2000 of the $2500 needed to complete the road if the Cove people will raise the remainder. Mrs. L. R. Lay and Mrs. T. W. Conklin will entertain the Ladies' Guild on Thursday afternoon.

R. Z. Baxter has moved his family and his household goods to Union. He is still doing business at the barber shop, but with half of his interest centered on Union as a future place of business. The first week of school closed with the machinery well oiled and in good running condition. There were around 200 pupils enrolled.

Prof. J. R. Price, who has been living on his farm in the canyon, moved into town on Saturday. Three of the teachers, Misses Helen Dougherty, Edna Shephardson and Juanita Smithpeter, spent the weekend with their families in Baker. Mrs. Clifford Perkins of Baker, was a Cove visitor on Saturday.

Party for Teachers. Mrs. A. G. Conklin and Mrs. T. R. Conklin gave a small party on Thursday evening for the teachers. The teachers honored were Miss Helen Dougherty, Miss Esther Saunders, Miss Edna Shephardson, Miss Juanita Smithpeter, Miss Lois Lawson and Miss Mildred Payton. Other guests present were Messrs. Louie Lantz, Leonard Love, Herman Lund, Ernest Coons, Francis Kelly and Guy Barker.

Rev. D. Lorse is nursing a sore foot, having stepped on a rusty nail. Mrs. D. Lorse is entertaining her mother, Mrs. E. Kimbrell, three brothers, Will, Frank and Robert, and a sister, Miss Ethel, all of Prosser.

Miss Isabelle Miller of La Grande who was a guest of Mrs. Thos. Towle last week, returned home on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Laird who have been visiting in Cove, returned last week to their home in Weiser. Mr. Louie Lantz and Mrs. J. K. Lantz were Baker visitors last week. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Daniel and Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Lay were shopping in Baker Saturday.

Mrs. Frances Kirkpatrick of Baker was a Cove visitor on Friday. Ernest Bell, who was badly injured by a wild horse several weeks ago, is recovering sufficiently to be at home again.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Trippier, who have been summering in their camp on the Minam, returned home Saturday. Mr. Harold Barton of Redmond, Oregon, is visiting his sister, Mrs. P. M. Ellis.

Mrs. Lou Payne will leave this week for Walla Walla, where she will visit friends and attend the fair. Misses Zela and Grace Gayette rode to the top of Mt. Fanny last Sunday. H. G. Dykstra, who will be principal of the Imbler school, has been in Cove several days this week.

Robert Baird is at home again after his operation at Hot Lake sanatorium. Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Koger will leave early in the week for Roseburg, where they expect to locate.

Children Entertained. Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. A. A. Antles gave a party for her Sunday school class. This class in the cradle roll and the children were accompanied by their mothers. Games were played and dainty refreshments served. Those in attendance were Mrs. Earl Baker and two children; Mrs. Doris Childers and two children; Mrs. Waldo Richardson and daughter; Mrs. Lynn Chadwick and two children; Mrs. John Millers and son; Mrs. J. R. Price and daughter; Mrs. Frank Conley and daughter; Mrs. Elinor Towle and two children; Mrs. John Williams and two children; Mrs. Claude Puckett and daughter; Mrs. Phil Lockwood and daughter; Mrs. A. E. Hartley and four children; Mrs. Geo. Goley and three children; Mrs. P. M. Ellis and son and Mrs. Geo. McDaniel. Mrs. Antles was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. T. H. Conklin. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ross were in town on Sunday.

OLD INCOME TAX RAISES HIS HEAD

Clyde Huntley Urges All to Hop Through with Their Quarterly Payment of Uncle Sam.

PORTLAND, Sept. 12.—"The third quarterly installment of the income tax for 1921 is due on or before midnight, Friday, September 15, 1922," announced Clyde G. Huntley, collector of internal revenue, today. Notices have been sent to taxpayers, but failure to receive a notice does not relieve a taxpayer of his obligation to pay the tax on time. Failure to pay the installment renders the whole amount due and payable upon notice and demand. The tax may be paid at the office of Collector Huntley in the Custom House, Portland, or at either of the branch offices located at Pendleton and Eugene. Payment may be made by cash, money order or check. If made at a branch office, payment should be by check or money order to avoid danger of loss in transmission to the office of the collector. Checks or money orders should be made out to the order of "Collector of Internal Revenue, Portland, Oregon."
