Local News In Brief

Baker Visitor.—O. B. Martin, of Baker, arrived in La Grande this morning and registered at the Foley. He is here on business.

Union Man.—Irvin Hess of Union, arrived in the city this morning and spent several hours here transacting business. Mr. Hess motored over.

Cove Man.—George McDaniel, who makes his home at Cove, is a business visitor in La Grande today and during his stay in the city is a guest at the Savoy.

Former Buckaroo.—John Spau, at one time holder of the world's champion buckaroo title, who made his home in Union, is a visitor in La Grande today.

Left for Durkee.—Mrs. Ada Peterson, who lives at Durkee, returned to her home this morning on No. 24 after spending a week in La Grande visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wallace Lane.

Marriage License.—The county clerk, C. K. McCormick, issued a marriage license to Andrew O. See and Leonn Mary Morris yesterday afternoon. Both are residents of La Grande.

Returned from Joseph.—Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Holmes returned to their home in La Grande yesterday from Joseph, where they had spent a week visiting relatives.

Imbler People Here.—Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Skillings and family, residents of Imbler, arrived in La Grande last evening and spent the night here. They were in the city on business.

Any La Grande subscriber to the Observer who does not receive his paper by 8 o'clock in the evening, please call Western Union, Main 24, and a special messenger will deliver a copy.

business. Mr. Tracy is a guest at the Foley during his stay.

Left for Pendleton.—H. O. Payne, income tax man, left La Grande this morning for Pendleton, where he was called on business matters. Mr. Payne was intended to remain in La Grande until Thursday evening and announces that he will return in a few days.

Went to Corvallis.—Robert Clark and family left this morning for Corvallis, where they will reside in the future. Their son Ralph, a graduate of the La Grande high school in the class of '21, will return to the O. A. C., where he is taking a course in agriculture.

Sells Lot.—The La Grande Investment company sold a lot on M avenue, located between First and Second streets, to William Smeal who is planning to erect another dwelling house in the near future. In addition to the one he already has under course of construction.

Left for Pendleton.—Mrs. R. G. Estes and her little son Bobbie, and Miss Celena Bergeson left this morning for Pendleton, where the latter makes her home. Mrs. Estes will remain in Pendleton for about two weeks and will attend the Round-Up.

Parole Revoked.—Charles P. Lang of Portland, is an inmate of the city jail until a guard will arrive to escort him to Portland. Lang was sentenced to jail in Portland on the charge of passing bad checks and was paroled out in La Grande and his parole was revoked by the Portland authorities. Special Agent Rooney, of the O-W, made the arrest.

Left for Union.—Dave Steward, who has been employed as a reporter on the Observer, left La Grande this morning for Union, where he has enrolled in the Union high school as a special student, taking a business course. He will also teach the piano.

Richard Otis in City.—After experiencing a wreck on the Sumpter valley railroad where he was running an engine and got out alive although the entire logging train went over into the ditch, Richard Otis, an old-time La Grande resident, is here for a few days visiting friends. The wreck was one of those which happen occasionally on timber roads but Mr. Otis is positive that he does not enjoy that kind of entertainment.

Was One Dog Now Nine.—James McNamee is a mathematician of some ability. A few days ago a very fine bird dog came to his home and received the hospitality for which a thoroughbred Irishman is noted. This morning Jimmie went to the basement to pet his dog and there were nine dogs there. "Just a little problem in multiplication," said Jimmie today, "and one that does not require any advanced education to compute."

Returned to Union.—Mr. and Mrs. Claud H. Ficklin and family returned to their home in Union today after spending several months in Medford, due to Mrs. Ficklin's poor health. She is much recovered.
