Almost All. A little girl had spent the whole morning at the zoo with her father and read all the notices and placards very carefully. As they passed the turnstile to return home the father said: "Well, I think we have seen everything, don't you, dear?" "Everything but the poppockets they talk about," she replied.

THEATRES

"THE SHEIK OF ARABY." LAST DAY AT SHERRY'S

H. B. Warner, the noted stage and screen star, who has just completed a successful engagement in the Cosmo Hamlet drama "Danger," at the Thirty-ninth Street Theatre, New York City, has one of the most romantic roles of his entire career in "The Sheik of Araby," the current attraction at the Sherry Theatre. Mr. Warner, tall and handsome, appears as the Sheik and he makes a figure glowing with romance and heroism.

An interesting feature of the exhibition of "The Sheik of Araby," which is a magnificent revival of the famous desert tale, "The Man Who Turned White," is that it is a part of a great national popularity drive sponsored by the publishers of the song hit, "The Sheik of Araby," and the R-C Pictures Corporation, which has released the picture. In the screen version of "The Sheik of Araby," the great desert chief about whom the song was written comes to life and millions of music lovers and photoplay devotees are having an opportunity of singing and playing the popular song and seeing it on the screen as well. Barbara Castleton, Wedgewood Nowell and others support Mr. Warner.

Also showing "Travelogues."

"THE LAST TRAIL," BY ZANE GREY, IS DUE HERE

"The Last Trail," one of Zane Grey's celebrated novels, has been adapted to the screen by William Fox as one of his special productions for this year, and will open an engagement here on Thursday at the Arcade Theatre. The name of Zane Grey is in itself a talisman for either readers of fiction or followers of motion pictures, and the superb manner in which Fox has hiterto has filmed novels by Grey promises an entertainment well worth while in "The Last Trail." In addition, the direction of the picture was in the hands of Emmett J. Flynn, whose notable workon "A Connecticut Yankee" and "Shame"—both big Fox specials—has placed his name in the very front rank of screen directors.

The leading roles in "The Last Trail" are enacted by Maurice Flynn, Eva Novak and Rosemary Theby. A spectacular masterpiece is said to be the breaking of a huge dam and the resultant flooding and destruction of a village in the valley below.

DOUBT CANNOT EXIST.

Investigation Will Only Strengthen the Proof We Give in La Grande.

How can doubt exist in the face of such evidence? Read here the endorsement of a representative citizen of La Grande: Wm. Winn, 2302 N. Fir St., says: "I consider Doan's Kidney Pills a reliable remedy and am glad to recommend them. My kidneys troubled me for a long time. The least cold I took caused me to suffer with severe backache and such a soreness over my kidneys, I could hardly do any stooping or lifting. The action of my kidneys was too frequent. I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and used some from the Red Cross Drug Store. Doan's helped me by relieving the aches and pains and strengthening my back and kidneys. Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Winn had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y."

I UNDERSTAND, SIR, THAT YOU TOLD MY KID THAT IF HE DIDN'T BEHAVE YOU WOULD SPANK HIM! WHAT'S THE IDEAR?

WHY, THE "IDEAR" IS THAT PARENTS WHO NEGLECT THE PROPER TRAINING OF THEIR CHILDREN AND LEAVES THE JOB TO THE NEIGHBORS HADN'T OUGHT TO BE TOO PARTICULAR HOW THE JOB IS DONE!!! AS NEAR AS I CAN EXPLAIN IT, THAT'S THE "IDEAR"!!!

Baker's New Football Coach, Charles King, Arrives on the Ground

BAKER, Sept. 13.—Charles A. King, athletic coach of Baker high school accompanied by his wife and the latter's mother, arrived in Baker Thursday evening from Roseburg by auto. Mr. King, who is a graduate of O. A. C., will also teach manual training and mechanical drawing. From a preliminary survey he has made of football material which will be enrolled for the year Coach King last evening expressed himself as being very enthusiastic over the prospects but states that every available man will have to turn out of a winning team is to be assured. Nightly practice is to become the rule beginning Tuesday evening, he stated.

No Substitute Offered. Say what you will about druggists offering something "just as good" because it pays a better profit, the fact still remains that ninety-nine out of a hundred druggists recommend Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy, when the best medicine for diarrhoea is asked for, and do so because they know from what their customers say of it, that it can be depended on—adv.
