Society

From the Brockton, Massachusetts, Enterprise, under an Easton, Massachusetts date line, the Evening Observer takes the following society item which is of interest to La Grande people.

The marriage of Miss Helen King, daughter of Mrs. George Freeman King, and Joel Henry Richardson, son of Mrs. Stephen Francis Richardson, of La Grande, Oregon, was solemnized Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride at Easton Furnace.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fred R. Lewis, minister of the Unitarian church at North Easton. The bride was gowned in white crepe de chine with a veil of tulle and a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and white roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Marton Wenonah Cunningham of Dorchester, wore turquoise blue georgette, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of pink Ophelia roses. The best man was Attorney William Beilly Cook of Boston and Iowa, a fraternity brother of the groom at Harvard. The ushers, Miss Esther Elizabeth Cunningham of Dorchester, and Miss Martha Scott Erving of Mansfield, both former schoolmates of the bride, were prettily attired in organdie. The bride's mother wore a gown of brown crepe de chine. The bride entered on the arm of her brother, Attorney Clinton King of Springfield, to the strains of the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, played by Mrs. John Martin McDermott of Dorchester. The ceremony took place in the bay window which was banked with potted plants and gladioli.

The bride's gift to her bridesmaid was a silver bag, and to the pianist and ushers, platinum pins. The groom presented the best man with cuff links. Following the reception at which Holman entered, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson left for their new home at Tamarack, Idaho, by way of Boston, Montreal, St. Paul, Spokane and La Grande.

The bride's traveling gown was of tan and blue radium. Her wrap was brown valdyn and she wore a hat of velvet and tulle.

The bride was born in this town and attended local and Boston schools graduating from the Boston Normal school, following which she taught in that city. The groom is engaged in the lumber business at Tamarack. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon and the law school and graduate school of business administration at Harvard University. He is a member of the bar of the State of Oregon.
