HERO MADE GOVERNOR

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Sept. 26.—General Sir George Milesworth Bridges has been appointed Governor of South Australia, succeeding Lieutenant-Colonel Sir William Weigell. The latter resigned the position because he said he could not live on his salary and had not sufficient private means to afford the luxury of maintaining such a position.

His successor, Sir George, is known in the British army as the "Toy Drum Hero." That term has not been applied to him in derision, but in recognition of a memorable incident of the war in which he displayed great gallantry.

After the action at Le Cateau, in 1914, the British army started on its great fighting retreat, and men were dropping out from sheer exhaustion. Major Bridges, as he then was, went back to St. Quentin to round up 250 stragglers.

He found them in a state of collapse. At a little village shop he bought a toy drum, and falling the men into line with the toy drum and a penny whistle to serve as a band, he marched them off, laughing in spite of their weariness. They kept on marching for 2 1/2 miles.

Sir George was the military member of the Balfour mission to the United States in 1917, and head of the British War Mission to the United States in the succeeding year.

No Substitute Offered.
Say what you will about druggists offering something "just as good" because it pays a better profit, the fact still remains that ninety-nine out of a hundred druggists recommend Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy, when the best medicine for diarrhoea is asked for, and do so because they know from what their customers say of it, that it can be depended on—adv.

Costs Little and Overcomes Trouble Almost Over Night

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its great destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth. It seldom fails to relieve the torment without delay. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.
