"THE SERVANT IN THE HOUSE"

AT SHERIDY'S TODAY AND TOMORROW.

The Birch Gardens of Los Angeles Cal., are famous throughout the world as being the finest example of landscape gardening interwoven with natural scenery extant.

The famous gardens took years to develop to their present state of perfection and aside from the enormous cost to the Birch estate, for installing this perfection, the cost of maintenance was also a heavy one.

These gardens through the courtesy of Mrs. Birch were kept open for the pleasure of the general public who had access to them at all times as it was the desire of Mrs. Birch that the public should share with her the beauties that had been perfected by her landscape artist. Recently, however, it became necessary, owing to the tremendous cost of maintenance, for Mrs. Birch to rescind the order of admitting the general public to the gardens and the result of her decision probably closes these famous gardens forever as it is understood that the same amount of care and expenditure of money will not be made on them in the future, as in the past.

This famous story based upon "The Servant in the House,"

Also Carter De Haven in "The First Vacation," a two-act comedy.

"MONTE CRISTO" WILL WIN NEW CONVERTS.

It is generally conceded that the motion picture has not reached to any degree of popularity, quite a number of persons in America. Just why it has not is more or less of a mystery. Those few which the screen has not reached are numbered among the older folks who still doubt that motion pictures can portray a story in an interesting manner.

However, these building Thrustones will have a new joy in witnessing the remarkable drama adapted from the famous story, "Monte Cristo," written by the immortal Alexandre Dumas. It is to have its local premiere at the Arcade Theatre next Monday. It was produced by William Fox under the direction of Emmett J. Flynn.

Now, if any of the older generation, who have read at all, have never read this story. For this reason many who seldom go to the motion picture theatre, will do so when this great Fox special opens here. This has proved to be the case in other cities where the pictures has already been shown.

The local management states that "Monte Cristo" is without an equal as a screen drama.

NEW WALTON PICTURE HAS LAUGHS GALORE.

"Oh, divine Shakespeare, send Hamlet to rest me free."

The old and the modern in the annals of the stage is unaproposely juxtaposed in every detail of every scene and every line of "The Trooper," the Universal photoplay in which Gladys Walton will be seen at the Arcade theatre Wednesday only. A. P. Younger wrote the story for Miss Walton with the chief idea of putting into comic relief every light and sacred tradition of the followers of the immortal Bard.

But in spite of the humorous comedy in the story, the role portrayed by Miss Walton is deeply dramatic, almost as emotional in its content as "Second Hand Rose," which changed this star in the eyes of critics from a straight comedy drama star to an emotionalist worthy of the utmost attention.

Birmingham Age-Herald: "I want a car for family use."

"Here's just the thing for you," said the brisk salesman.

"What's that thing on the steering wheel that looks like a phonograph horn?"

"The latest invention to prevent collisions. When a woman driver swears her voice is transmitted through this horn which sets a mechanism at work that throws on the emergency brake and the car stops right where it is."
