mountain where he was fighting fire. After a day's rest he went again to the woods on a hunting trip. Joe is quite a bear hunter. All his friends wish him a good chase and that the year will be in the lead.

The first resignation of Miss Leone Baxter, school teacher, and the absence of the men trustees, leaves most of the work on the women folk to see that school is kept. They have splendidly done it, and the school is doing fine under the excellent teacher they have procured.

A letter has been received from Edna Zickler, who disappeared from her home in Oregon City two years ago, stating she is married and is now living in Seattle.

After a two week's postponement to enable the boys and girls to help in the hop and rummage, the Park City schools have reopened with a greatly increased attendance.

MILK, THE GREATEST FOOD.
Market Improvements Have Been Made in Methods of Keeping it Fresh.

In the preservation of foods, all of which has reached a high degree of perfection in these days, it is interesting to note how important a part is played by opposite forces of nature.

For instance, since milk is obtained from the cow, it is necessary to reduce it to low temperature so as to inhibit the growth of bacteria.

Later, however, an opposite plan is essential. In prolonged storage of the milk in a moderately high temperature the bacteria or germs which are unobtainable are killed and the milk, rechanged in its digestibility, is rendered safe for use by the infant or invalid.

Both of these methods are used in their simplest form in the preparation of Borden's Malted Milk, as we can see in the highest purity of the food.

The absence of moisture is an essential safeguard against the growth of bacteria and it also makes the product capable of being taken easily in all parts of the world.

It was in this achievement of Borden's Malted Milk (which contains all the nutritive value of malted grains and fresh milk and whose moisture at a moment's notice is food-juice that is steaming, evaporating and also addition to the taste.

FRESH EVERY MORNING!

quities about a car she had sold to the Haller boys about two years ago. There have been some complaints that on the party telephone line some one had too many rotary dials. Every time a receiver is taken down they are frustrated with the sweet and shrill songs of the little peeps. One old timer fancies to believe that the singing they hear is from the birds who are so plentiful on Catherine creek pecking on the line, singing over joy at such beautiful sunshine. However, it is a mighty good thing to hear the songs of the birds now-adays.

Ed Chambers resigned his position at the Davis sawmill and was going to his sister, Mrs. Claude Wood of Union. Joe Barber, sheep man; J. P. Mack, struggling, and a Mr. Jennings, all of Highland, Ore., were on a hunting trip up Catherine creek recently, the thrilling snelling and snow. They have been thrashing in Baker valley and the Big Creek country and will thresh the Park grain this week.

Chance Vandermer was hunting for deer one day last week. He jumped one buck of the old Hubble's place, but that was all the signs he reports.

R. Y. C. ENROLLMENT HIGHER.
The enrollment of college students at the Brigham Young University is 50 per cent higher than that of the corresponding date last year, according to an announcement made by President Harris at the end of the first two weeks. The authorities of the big school are being hard pressed to provide adequate class room for the unprecedented influx of students. Every available classroom in the plant is in use from 8:20 in the morning to 4:20 in the afternoon. The freshmen classes are especially crowded. The senior class shows an increase of over 50 per cent over last year.
